Parker's Latest Creation—Fountain Pen Desk Sets

With Duofold Pens in Ball and Socket Holders 25-Year Points—Non-Breakable Barrels

PARKER Fountain Pen Desk Sets will let you forever part company with old-style pens and spilly inkwells. In their place, this rich glass base with one or two Parker Duofold Fountain Pens filled with ink ever at hand in their ball-and-socket holders.

The Ball-and-Socket Action is smooth; its tension is self-adjusting. And because the pens will lie flat, you can slip the Parker Set in a drawer at close of day and lock it up.

Any instant you withdraw these pens from the Parker holders, the super-smooth points are moist with ink and ready to write. For our safety seal—another Parker improvement—prevents the point from drying in the holder. And it also holds the pen firmly.

See these improved designs at the nearest pen counter. Complete Sets $10.50 to $39. Write us if no dealer is handy.

HALL-HAYNES WEDDING ON SATURDAY EVENING

Former Kingston Man the Bridegroom—Couple Will Reside in Oshawa.

Gananoque, Oct. 11.—A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized in Christ Anglican Church, Saturday evening at 7.30 o'clock, by the rector, Rev. Louis Barber, when Rhea Gwaneth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Haynes became the bride of Bruce Cover Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, Kingston. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very charming in a gown of marine blue satin-back crepe with a tulle hat of burnt orange. Her corsage bouquet was of deep pink roses. The bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Edith Haynes who looked lovely in a gown of black satin-back crepe beige trimmed. Samuel Hall, brother of the groom, was groomsmen. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. After the ceremony, a dainty buffet luncheon was served at the bride's home to a few immediate friends, after which the happy couple left for western points. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will reside in Oshawa where the groom has a position with General Motors. The gifts to the bride were unusually lovely and of great number. Peter Lapan, Jr., is renewing acquaintance here among friends after an absence of two years in several parts of the United States.

Word was received here Saturday evening of the death in Cedar, Quebec, of one of Gananoque's oldest residents in the person of Henry Pelow. Mr. and Mrs. Pelow have been down in Quebec province for the past few weeks, and his death came as quite a shock to his friends here. Mr. Pelow has spent practically his whole life in Gananoque and vicinity and was highly esteemed in the community. He has lived a retired life for several years. The remains will be brought to Gananoque for interment.

Miss Jean Leeder was a hostess of a birthday party on Friday afternoon last when she entertained a number of her young friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leeder, Charles street.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Whaley yesterday morning. Donna Edwin.

The Teachers Institute, which was held here Thursday and Friday of last week was largely attended and proved a most interesting and profitable session, so much so that when the question came up as to the place to hold the next institute the executive seemed to be unanimously in favor of Gananoque, though this question is not yet definitely settled. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Norma Young; vice-president, Mr. Bolton; secretary-treasurer, Miss Mabel Carpenter; executive, Miss Janet Robinson, Miss Bawa, Mr. Wilson, Miss Russell; delegates to the O. E. A. Toronto, Mr. Charlton and Miss Dancy. In connection with delegates from Gananoque to go to Northern Ontario next summer it was upon motion of Mr. McGuire decided to grant $25 towards delegate's expenses.

In the evening the pupils and their friends gathered in the Assembly Hall, where an enjoyable evening was spent in dancing. Walter's orchestra providing excellent music. The annual meeting of the Lennox Teachers' Institute was held in Convocation Hall, Napanee, Collegiate Institute, on Thursday and Friday of last week. The meetings were well attended. The special speaker was Mr. P. Sandford, Ph.D., College of Education, University of Toronto, who spoke on recent studies in the Psychology of Reading. Mr. Loughland, Agricultural Representative of Lennox gave an interesting talk on Agriculture and school fairs. E. J. Corkill, B.A., Inspector, in his usual able manner greeted the new teachers, and gave helpful ideas. Other speakers were: Mrs. H. Fairbairn, president of the Association; C. A. Shoemaker, Dr. Morden of Napanee, Mr. Jenkins, B.A., of Newburgh, and Mr. J. G. Hamilton, Newburgh. The Thursday evening entertainment held in Convocation Hall, N.C.I., was one of the best ever given. St. Andrews' Orchestra, furnished delightful music and Messrs. Caldwell, Waite, Shannon and Vandervoort, gave several numbers which were highly appreciated. Miss Ramsay of Newburgh sang very sweetly. The main part of the evening was given over to Prof. MacClement of Queen's University who gave a splendid illustrated lecture on "Winged Friends and Winged Foes."

At the cheese board on Saturday afternoon 115 white and 1,119 colored cheese boarded all sold at 16 2-16c.

Can Society Make Us Abolish Marriage and Morals?

Four writers—one a woman of exalted social position—another an internationally famous judge—the third and fourth the greatest social novelists in America—give their authoritative answers in the four greatest literary features that have ever been published in a single magazine.

JUDGE BEN B. LINDSEY on The Moral Revolt MRS. PHILIP LYDIG on The Tragedy of Gilded Youth OWEN JOHNSON'S GREAT STORY "Children of Divorce" RUPERT HUGHES' LATEST NOVEL "We Live But Once"

In a democracy the mass of the people are given to imitation of the few. The few in America are the idle rich, who, in their search for new sensations, flamboyantly place themselves not only above the law but outside the moral code that society has evolved for its own discipline and salvation.

What once were scruples held inviolate are today openly discussed; habits of life once surreptitiously indulged are today boasted of; customs that have their roots in the safety of society are boldly being displaced by a code that justifies "anything you can get away with."

Whence came this amazing change in our manners and customs, no one knows. One declares it to be the direct result of the unbalancing of society by the Great War; another traces its origin to the possession of more wealth, almost overnight, on the part of vastly more people than ever before.

And no one is better placed to produce actual evidence of the change than Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of the internationally famous Family Court of Denver.

A tolerant man, an understanding man, but, more than all else, a brave man, he is presenting that evidence—and his conclusions—under the startling title, "The Moral Revolt," in the frankest series of articles that have ever appeared in a magazine.
