

Founded 1847.

QUEEN'S SWEATERS CORRECT COLORS Queen's University Students Headquarters QUEEN'S SWEATERS CORRECT COLORS

IT'S OVERCOAT TIME

And we're ready — ready with the finest stock we've ever shown. The whole overcoat family is represented—all the style, all the colors and all the fabrics — featuring three great groups.

$25.00 $27.50 $30.00

Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear Turnbull's Ceetee Underwear

A SMALL DEPOSIT WILL HOLD ANY OVERCOAT UNTIL REQUIRED

LIVINGSTON'S 75-79 BROCK STREET IF OFF Your Route It Pays To Walk

CITY AND DISTRICT

Expected Tuesday Morning. Car load assorted basket fruit, peaches, pears, plums, gages, quinces, grapes, etc., at Carnovskya.

Dr. G. W. Bell Very Low. Dr. G. W. Bell, oculist, varied low following a stroke suffered of Wednesday evening. He has not regained consciousness.

Fine Feldspar Mine. Fine feldspar is being taken from a mine near Pouch which is being operated by the Perth Reidepar and Mining Company. Mr. F. H. O'Connell, Tweed, is superintending the work.

Anthem At St. Luke's. During the offertory in St. Luke's Church last evening the choir rendered the anthem "Even Me." (Warren) in which the bass solos were effectively sung by Mr. H. W. Ide.

Liberal Ward Meeting. The Liberals of Kingston and Portsmouth will meet at Garden Hall to-morrow night (Tuesday), at 8 o'clock, to elect a chairman for each ward, and every ward is expected to be represented.

Purchased Business. George Charlton having bought the tailors business of Mr. Radof in Brockville, will continue the same as usual, giving careful attention to orders. Mr. Charlton has had thirty years experience in the tailoring business.

Saw Little Service. On Oct. 10th, 1897, the sloop of war St. Lawrence, 100 guns, was launched at Kingston, Upper Canada, and immediately went into commission under Admiral Sir James Lucas Yeo, but saw little service as the war ended three months later.

Children of Mary Euchre. At the Children of Mary euchre held Friday night in the Catholic Assembly Hall, Miss Brady was assisted by the following: Misses R. Menard, B. Kane, I. Martin, M. Linaugh, B. Shaw, M. Staley, C. Kehoe, M. Burke, M. Keyes, M. Murphy, F. Wickham.

Who's Missing in Kingston? Since the fatal tragedy at Belleville Detective Sgt. Trauhsch, of that city, has received scores of letters from anxious mothers, wondering whether the unknown were their relatives or sons. No later than Saturday, one was received from Kingston about a missing youth.

Donald McIntyre to Retire. The Toronto Telegram says that at the expiry of his present leave of absence, when he is expected to retire, an appointment must be made to take the place of D. M. McIntyre, chairman of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board. This position carries with it a salary of $7,000 per year.

Lost Thumb and Fingers. A very unfortunate accident occurred on Thursday last when Blanche, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Pringle Bongard's, lost a thumb and two fingers of her left hand. The little girl was in the act of getting wood when a heavy stick fell, crushing the fingers which made amputation necessary.

To Be Honorary Patrons. Dr. R. Bruce Taylor, principal of Queen's University, and Sir Robert Borden, chancellor of Queen's, paid a visit on Friday to the Governor-General and the Viscountess W. Angdon at Rideau Hall, and received assurance that their Excellencies will be honorary patrons of the Queen's University Endowment Fund.

Buy St. Lawrence Villa. The St. Lawrence Villa, corner of James and Huguenin streets, Clayton, was sold by Mrs. Fred Trueter to Violet and Lessa Halliday, Cape Vincent, N.Y., the consideration being $10,000. The new owners, wives of Halliday Brothers, well-known cattle buyers, will take possession about Oct. 15th and will conduct the place as a rooming house.

To Stay in Paris A Year. Prof. and Mrs. Iva E. Martin, Russell Hill road, Toronto, have just returned from an outing abroad. They were accompanied by Mr. Martin's son, Mr. Ralph O. Standish, who remained in Paris, where he will study the language and take some lectures at the Sorbonne for a year before returning to Canada to proceed to a degree in a Canadian university.

Final Destiny of Batstone. Mr. Harry Batstone seems to be headed eventually for the newspaper business, remarks the Toronto Mail and Empire. After several years' study of commerce he will take a medical course. If this is followed by further profound study of theology, economics, politics, engineering, the veterinary science, poker and lifeboat, he will be following the curriculum mapped out by the late Bill Nye.

Gun Went Off Accidentally. Peter Sibley, aged sixteen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brayton Sibley, Wellfleet Island, is in a critical condition with his right leg shattered below the hip by a charge from a shotgun in the hands of his brother, Ernest. Young Sibley is suffering from loss of blood and shock. The accident occurred when the two boys were on their way toward a nearby hunting ground where they were to meet a man named Dutton, a camper on the island. The younger boy could not tell how his gun happened to explode and shoot his older brother, Ernest was so grief-stricken that he could not explain the accident. He said that they were walking along side by side, some distance apart, but that he did not know what caused his gun to go off.

An R.M.C. Graduate Dead. The death occurred on Saturday at the residence of his sisters, the Misses Sweeney, Westmount, of Lieut.-Col. Roger Campbell Sweeney, D.S.O., O.B.E., M.C., A.I.S.C., commandant of the Indian Army Service Corps Training Establishment, Rawalpindi, India in his 48th year. He entered the Indian Army in 1899 after graduating from the Royal Military College, and had a varied and distinguished career.

W. J. Bryant Recovering. Word has been received from Toronto, that W. J. Bryant, well known to his many friends in Kingston as "Bill," who has been confined in Christie Street Hospital since a year ago last May, is able to sit up. Mr. Bryant was severely wounded during the Great War. He was operated upon some time ago, and the operation proved successful. Mr. Bryant is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant, Alfred street. The news of his splendid progress was received by his many friends in Kingston with much pleasure.

A Missionary Appeal. Rev. R. M. Hamilton, Brockville, preached in Sydenham street church on Sunday. His morning address was missionary in type, the transforming of ash heaps of vice, sin and slavery into beauty under the influences of Christ's teaching. His stories of what had been accomplished in heathen lands were vivid and inspiring. He urged his hearers to work and pray, to sacrifice and give so that the uncivilized races of men may have the benefits of christianity and the ashes of degradation and sin transformed into the beauties of holiness and true living.

Succeeds Mrs. Lavell. Mrs. John MacGillivray, Toronto, was elected president by acclamation of the Dominion Board of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada. She succeeds Mrs. H. A. Lavell, Kingston, who was unable to continue as president. In giving her presidential address as the new head of the organization, with its 200,000 members from coast to coast, Mrs. MacGillivray pointed out the responsibilities facing the W.M.S. in the period of adjustment following the consummation of the union of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational organizations. There was an extensive missionary work to be accomplished. She was confident of the loyalty of the great Dominion membership of the W.M.S.

AUTO VICTIMS ARE NOW DOING NICELY

They Were Injured in Crash at Corner Earl and Division Streets.

Willie, the infant child of Lieut. and Mrs. W. G. Kear, who was thrown through the windshield of the automobile driven by her mother, on Sunday morning, when the car crashed into a house at the corner of Earl and Division, had recovered sufficiently on Sunday to be removed from the General Hospital, to the home of her parents. The eight-year-old daughter, who was also injured in the same accident, has been found to be suffering only from cuts and bruises, and no serious results are anticipated. She will probably be allowed to go home within a day or two.

MARINE

The steamer Winton, of the Matthews Line, arrived this morning from Port Colborne, with grain for Richardson's elevator.

The steamer Brighton arrived Sunday afternoon and is now unloading at the elevator.

The tug Dupre, of the Simmac Line, arrived Sunday with four barges, the Dunmore, Fredon L., Augustus and Beron L., to be loaded at the quays for the transshipment of the grain to Montreal.

The tug Simmac passed with the barge Compton for Sodus, Sunday afternoon.

Up—Oct. 10th, Fordonian, 3.30 p.m.; Oct. 11th, Niebet, 2.25 a.m.; Taylor, 7.45 a.m.; Calgarion, 9 a.m.; Down—Oct. 10th, Huntley, 3 a.m.; City of Kingston, 11.15 a.m.; Oct. 11th, Baird, 2.15 a.m.; Canadian, 3.15 a.m.; Drumshoo, 4.15 a.m.; Torian, 4.15 a.m.

Lad Had Arm Broken While Cranking a Car

Gordon Redmond, the thirteen-year-old son of J. W. Redmond, of the Bath Road, broke his arm on Monday morning, when attempting to crank his father's car. The boy was brought to the General Hospital, where Dr. H. A. Boyce had the arm X-rayed and set the fracture.

The contract for the $1,000,000 hotel in London has been let to a Canadian company and work is expected to start next week.

DAILY MEMORANDUM

Meeting at House of Providence to-night at 8 o'clock. Misses Daughters Convention, Sydenham Street church, Oct. 12th and 13th.

New Silks and Dress Goods

For Fall

are being shown in our fabric section, and so important are materials in the mode, fashions for Fall will be smarter and brighter than ever.

Heather Mixed Silk and Wool Balbriggan $3.00 yd.

FOR SUITS AND ONE OR 2 PIECE DRESSES

So popular has this wonderful mixed Silk and Wool material become that we are showing a few of the very newest shades:

Tomato and Powder Blue Sand and Blue Black and White Pansy and Silver Powder and Silver

EXTREME WIDTH, 56 INCHES.

Supple Crepe de Chenes

40 INCHES WIDE

$1.50

No Silk enjoys the popularity that Crepe de Chene does for frocks of Afternoon or Evening occasions. The range of shades is large.

VERDIGRIS ROSEWOOD COCOA PINK DUCK BLUR ORCHID BLACK FOG POPPY RED FRENCH ROSE BUFF NAVY JUNGLE GREEN POWDER BLUE MIST COPEN

39 in. Flat Crepe $2.50 yd.

A heavy quality, 39 inch, Flat Crepe, with lovely, lustrous finish. Suitable for frocks of afternoon or evening wear.

Shades:

ALMOND BUFF NAVY POWDER BLUE ZINC GREY BLACK

Fancy Floral Printed Fuji Silks $1.75 yd.

These Fujis in exquisite flower patterns and colors are very rich for coat linings. The colors are:

PENCIL BLUE NAVY FURFURKLE JUNGLE GREEN FLAME FRENCH ROSE SAND SAPPHIRE

For Street Dresses and Sport Attire

Colored Dress Flannel 85c yd.

The all-important fabric for warm frocks, suitable for street or for sports wear. The shades are:

BLACK, NAVY, HENNA, ROSEWOOD, SAND, BUFF, CASTOR, BIEGE, POWDER BLUE, SAPPHIRE BLUE, JADE GREEN, RUST, STEEL GREY.

Full 31 inches wide.

J.L. LAIDLAW & SON LIMITED 170 Princess Street

Rippling Panels That Sway Gracefully

THIS lovely evening frock, designed in Paris, is now available for you through Butterick. And the making of the frock is thoroughly explained in the Deltor, a wonderful dressmaking guide included with the pattern.

After you buy this BUTTERICK PATTERN buy suitable materials at our Piece-Goods Department

Soft materials of exquisite texture, especially suited to a frock of this type, are now on display.