mendous Growth in Europe Since the War.

A Belleville boy, Oscar L. Pearson, physical director of the Central Y.M.C.A. at Toronto, and delegate of the physical directors of Ontario to the world's conference of Y.M.C. A. held in August, at Helsingfors, the capital of Finland, has made his report and there are many points in it of general interest. He says:

Helsingfors, capital of the Finnish Republic, is a pleasant modern city situated on the Gulf of Finland. It is the largest city of the republic ad the commercial centre. The principal square of the city contains some very fine buildings including the university which accommodates some 3,000 students. The permanpopulation of Helsingfors is 180,000 but in the summer many visitors help to swell these figures. The country is very similar to Northern Ontarto and in many parts one would actually think he was in the Muskoka district. The people are very kind and hospitable and indeed as you meet them on the street you are impressed with their wholesomeness. They are of medium build with stout people in the minority. I have met people of many countries but I have yet to find any who are as courteous as the Finns. The goodwill shown to we visitors is pleasant to remember; in stores, restaurants, or on the policeman to enquire a direction and you are saluted upon approaching and retiring. Give a taxi-driver his fare and he touches his cap and returns the amount intended for his
