Happy Days Recalled.
The Brockville Recorder-Times says: "At the Davis dry dock the hull of the steamer St. Lawrence is being cut into scrap. The passing of the St. Lawrence marks the end of almost the last of the old excursion boats of this generation that piled up and down the river before motor-boats and automobiles began to exert their effect on larger excursion parties. Many of the older residents of Brockville, and indeed every port between Ogdensburg and Kingston, will recall pleasant trips on this old 'steak-wooler' of the Folger Lane, which in its day was regarded as the 'queen of the fleet.'"

KINGSTON MEN AT RE-UNION BANQUET

21st Battalion Association Had Jolly Time at Belleville Friday Night.

The attendance at the eighth annual re-union of the 21st Battalion Association, which was held in the Quinte Hotel, Belleville, on Friday evening, was the largest on record. The former members of the famous battalion, numbering about two hundred, who come from all parts of the province, stated that the gathering was one of the best on record.

At 9 o'clock the infantrymen sat down to the banquet, after which a toast list was carried out. The toast "Canada," was proposed by Mayor R. J. Graham and responded to by Comrade H. E. Pense, one of the commanders of the battalion.

"The 21st Battalion Association," was proposed by Lieut.-Col. R. Vanderwater, D.S.O., and responded to by Comrade W. St. Pierre Hughes.

"Our Fallen Comrades," was proposed by Comrade Wolfrain, and responded to by Comrade W. E. Kidd, former chaplain of the battalion.

In addition, those on the programme included Lieut.-Col. Bywater, who congratulated the members of the battalion on the splendid gathering, and also on the spirit which kept the association such a powerful organization.

About thirty members of the 21st Battalion Club, Kingston, motored to Belleville. One of the cars was decorated and carried a large banner announcing the gathering at Belleville.

The programme, a most artistic one, contained pen sketches of the commanders of the battalion. It was decided to hold the next reunion at Ottawa.

Eight years ago Friday the 21st Battalion was in the trenches east of Diekbusch, having relieved the 20th Battalion, of Toronto. It is of interest to recall that from the initial engagement at Loos on Oct. 25th, 1915, until their glorious entry into Mons in Nov. 1918, the 21st never lost a trench to the enemy. Furthermore, to this Battalion goes the honor of capturing ninety-nine prisoners in a daylight raid at Bully Grenay which up to that date Jan. 17th, 1916, was a record.

The Battalion was decimated time and time again—on the Somme, at Vimy, Passchendaele, Amiens, and Arras, until there were but few of the originals left. But the spirit of the 21st still remains, and now that hostilities are over, the survivors rear after year hold a joyful reunion, either at Peterboro, Belleville, Ottawa, or Kingston and talk over the glorious days which are fast becoming history.
