Their Excellencies the Governor-General and Viscountess Willingdon will hold the drawing-room party in January. Announcement to this effect was made from Government House yesterday. It is customary for the drawing-room to be held shortly after the opening of Parliament, but, as it is generally expected that the session which opens in December will be of short duration, their Excellencies have decided to hold it early in the New Year.

Mrs. F. L. MacGachen, Montreal, entertained on Monday afternoon in honor of her debutante daughter, Miss Freda MacGachen. The tea room, decorated with bronze chrysanthemums and maidenhair fern, was in charge of Mrs. J. M. R. Fairbairn and Mrs. G. C. MacKenzie, assisted by Miss Norah Sullivan, Miss Margot Grindley, Miss Beryl Gilmore and Miss Emma Church. Miss MacGachen is a frequent visitor in Kingston with her aunts, the Misses Kirkpatrick, King street.

"I pray to God that He will grant me the power to be able some day to win your friendship," may I say, love, and that He may give me the strength to be of some real use to this great country of yours—your Canada," was the pithy essence of the message from Her Excellency, the Viscountess Willingdon when on Saturday she was welcomed by the Ottawa Women's Canadian Club. Her Excellency, it was announced, had become the honorary patroness of this club.

On Monday evening an exceedingly pleasant and well-attended reception was held in St. James' parish hall by the young people of the parish in honor of the Anglican students of Queen's University. The guests were received by Rev. T. W. and Mrs. Savary, Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Huyck and Mr. and Mrs. George Gilbert. The societies responsible for the entertainment were the A.Y.P.A. and the Girl's Auxiliary, and they left nothing undone for their guests' comfort. An orchestra provided excellent music for the numbers, which included guessing contests; an excellent programme was also arranged. On behalf of the congregation Dr. P. H. Huyck, himself a graduate of Queen's and the rector's warden, welcomed the students, and later in the evening Rev. T. W. Savary added his welcome as he presented the prizes won in the contest. Miss K. Elliott sang and Miss E. Echlin did a charming solo dance. Mr. R. Howard gave a vocal number and the musical trio, the Misses Asselstine and Miss H. Gardner, gave much pleasure by their selections. A delicious supper was served, and a sing-song, with music by the orchestra, afterwards, for the last number, brought the jolly evening to a close.

The Editor Hears

That Mrs. J. N. Lewis, Detroit, Mich., who is the international superintendent of junior work in the King's Daughters, said when in Kingston a short time ago, that the tendency of the younger circles was to lose sight of the higher objects of the society and to consider it more in the light of a social order. She deplored this and we feel rightly. The young people to-day have so much amusement that the older ones who lead them in their societies do not need to trouble so much to give them a good time as to give them an interest that they will carry with them to be part of their life.

That the recent rains have flooded many cellars and only the best of roofs have withstood the continuous downpour. Ontario was "wet" enough for the week-end anyway.

That while we hear the heavy rain stopping business on Monday, we feel sure that the pretty gay slickers that were worn by many of the Kingston girls were bought to save their new autumn frocks from being destroyed by wet.

That the Ladies' Aid of St. James' Anglican Church, Pittsburgh, held a most successful sale of work and home cooking in the market building on Saturday, at which the sum of $55 was realized.

COOKE'S W. M. S.

Autumn Thankoffering. Meeting Held on Monday Evening.

A very interesting and pleasant gathering was that held in the school hall of Cooke's Church last evening the occasion being the autumn thank offering of the W.M.S. The speaker of the evening, the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Cliff, pointed out the great work the women of the United Church had been permitted to do in spreading the gospel story to so many of the dark corners of the earth, but impressed on the members the magnitude of the task still before them, showing that the best effort must be put forth to fulfill this task and so win the world for Christ. The last half of the programme was given by the members of the Olive Branch Mission Band who presented a very effective missionary musical exercise called "crystal and coin" the thought through-out being the power of little things: the drops of water, the grains of sand, the little pennies, the little hands and the little prayers all doing their part in the world's great task of helping one another.

During the evening a gift of $100 was presented to the Society, being a bequest of the late valued member and at the time of her death the honorary president of the auxiliary, Mrs. M. H. Claxton. She being dead yet "speaking." A life membership was presented by Mr. Claxton, to his daughter, Mrs. T. W. Reid, in memory of her mother.

A splendid collection showed the interest of Cooke's Church women in missions. A cup of tea was served at the close, a tea table being in charge of Mrs. W. McKay, Mrs. John

LADIES!

Don't wash your hair daily—or even every week. Here's a way to keep it wavy for days at a time. BEFORE you use your iron, or curlers, DAMPEN the hair with DANDERINE. Just a few DROPS on comb or towel. Your locks will then behave for a MONTH! Of course, you know what Danderine does to dandruff: dissolves every speck, within five minutes of rubbing into the scalp. But as a wave-preserver on the hair itself, Danderine is a JOY. The best dressing in the world because it doesn't show. Any permanent wave or water wave lasts much longer and looks much nicer when Danderine is used instead of water to "set" the wave.

Ask Your Druggist

Get a bottle of Danderine and start its benefits to-day. Every druggist has it, for only 25c. For the finest dressing you could find, and the best aid to hair health yet discovered, just try—

A cup of tea is an excellent thing at a meeting; it gives an air of sociability and while drinking it the new members can be drawn into conversation. But young and older alike, we want to feel we are doing something when we go to a meeting. We most of us have plenty of social engagements and if we leave them to attend a church gathering we don't like to feel we have only changed the setting of our afternoon or evening function. We live in an age of action and young people will be far more likely to take an interest in something they feel they are helping along than in an organization designed solely to keep them out of mischief.

That for nearly six years women have run a self-supporting colony at Lingfield, England, and after an experiment of six years have decided to admit husbands. The colony consisted of one hundred acres and was started by half a dozen young women who believed that men were not the only farmers. They took up the breeding of Angora rabbits; one kept a small herd of cows; one took care of the garden and the other has been cultivating and they have decided that a man's strength is required. Some of the girls have married and now they will be allowed to get their husband's help. However, the women are to retain control of the property.

Letter Tells of Wonderful Relief After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Coniston, Ontario.—"After a severe operation and a three weeks' stay in a hospital I returned home so weak that I was unable to move a chair. For four months I was almost frantic with pains and suffering until I thought sure there could not be any help for me. I had very severe pains in my left side and suffered every month. One day when I was not able to get up my mother begged me to try your medicine. My husband got me a bottle of Vegetable Compound at once and I took it. I started a second bottle, and to my surprise and joy the pains in my side left me completely and I am able to do all my work without help. I am a farmer's wife, so you see I can't be idle long. In all, I have taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, five boxes of the Compound Tablets, two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, and have also used the Sanative Wash."—Mrs. L. LAJEUNESSE, Box 103, Coniston, Ontario.
