to them, and have acquired a knowledge of detail about the subjects of absorbing interest brought up in the clubs that cannot help to bear good results in the education of the bulk of the people, and is making parent-hood and the home the supreme ideals of life. With the culture of these clubs is achieved success in social and financial spheres as well as in the moral realm. A knowledge of community values has been broadcast, which will be reflected in every movement of national importance in the future. In wrestling with these problems and facts, women have assuredly shown their ability to take their place with men in legislating and promoting human welfare.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

LYNDHURST.

A meeting of the Women's Institute was held Oct. 18th at the home of Mrs. A. H. Singleton and was presided over by the president, Mrs. D. Wing. The roll-call was responded to by fourteen members. After the opening exercises the hospital committee reported a generous donation to the Brockville General Hospital, eighteen sealers of fruit, etc., having been sent from this branch. Arrangements were made for a Halloween social to be held in St. Luke's hall, on Oct. 30th. A resolution was adopted expressing sympathy with one of our members who is ill and unable to meet with us. Mrs. Anderson has been an active and efficient member since coming to reside in our midst and her presence and help are greatly missed in our meetings. Mrs. F. W. Breeze was appointed delegate to the Ottawa convention.

As our branch is interested in historical research a paper reminiscent of the "Olden Days of Lyndhurst" was given by the secretary and a selection. "In the Days of Candlelight" was read by Miss Roddick. An "apple contest" was an enjoyable feature of the evening. After a good programme of instrumental music and community singing, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and a social time spent over the teacups. Miss Somerville invited the members to meet at her home in December.

WOMEN'S MEETINGS

St. John's, Pittsburgh. The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid of St. John's, Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, was held at the home of Mrs. William McFadden, Thursday afternoon, Oct. 21st with a good attendance of members. The meeting opened by singing hymn, "Work for the night" is coming," followed by Scripture readings and prayer. The business part of the meeting was then carried on. Meeting closed by singing a mission hymn, "From Greenland's icy mountains." Refreshments were served by the hostess and the ladies spent a social half hour over the tea cups.

WEDDINGS.

Collins-Black. A pretty house wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Black, Frances street, Trenton, on Thursday, at 11 a.m., when their second daughter, Sarah Louise, was united in marriage to Homer F. Collins, only son of Mr. F. Collins of Bath. Rev. H. B. Workman, brother-in-law of the groom, performed the ceremony in the parlor, which was banked with ferns and other house plants.

The bride, who was unattended, entered the room to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" (Wagner), played by her sister, and was given away by her father. She wore a becoming frock of brocade with ivory crepe, silver shoes and the family veil. A beautiful bouquet of butterfly roses completed the costume.

A small reception was held when only the immediate relatives and a very few friends were present. The bride's grandparents being among the number. Immediately following this the bridal couple left by motor for London and points west, the bride travelling in a suit of cocoa brown with hat and fur to match. The girls of the groom were a lovely gold pendant set in pearls, to the bride, and a dainty bangle bracelet to her sister. Mr. and Mrs. Collins were the recipients of many presents and good wishes. They will reside near Bath on their return.

SUFFERED FOR YEARS FROM CONSTIPATION

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brought relief in three weeks

That constipation need not strike fear upon your heart is proved by this letter from Mr. Thomas Henliger:

"I wish to write and tell you how much I prize your Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. For twenty-five years I sought relief from constipation without success. But now I have been using your ALL-BRAN for three weeks and I can truthfully say that I am entirely cured and feel like a new man."

Cleanse your system of constipation's devastating poisons by Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, a health food that sweeps your intestines clean, stimulating normal, healthy action. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. If eaten regularly, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or your grocer will return the purchase price. Remember it is 100% bran! Try a package given on every package. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is made by Kellogg in London, Canada. Sold by all grocers. Served in leading hotels and restaurants.
