BIRTHS.

McGARVEY—In Kingston on October 31st, 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGarvey, Mt. Chesney, a daughter, Mrs. M. J. McGarvey.

DEATHS.

CARNOVSKY—In Kingston on Nov. 1st, 1926, Sarah Eliza (Lizzie) Carnovsky, beloved wife of William H. Carnovsky. The funeral will take place from her late residence, 250 Johnson street, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock to Catholic cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roberts and their two children, Lynnwood and Irving, who were killed on November 2nd, 1924. Dear loved ones who have gone before us, wait for us there. To loving arms will God restore us. And in their bliss we'll share. Then full of faith we'll lay our sorrow at Jesus' feet! And in the bright and heavenly morrow, Loved ones—the saved ones meet. Sadly missed by father and mother, sister and brothers.

Liberal Leader W. E. N. Sinclair

Makes a Strong Appeal at Whitby.

Whitby, Nov. 2.—A clarion call to all Liberals, Progressives, Conservatives, and members of any other party who believe that the will of the people, as expressed in the referendum, should prevail, and who desire the re-establishment of democratic government, to rally under a common standard, was sounded here last night by William E. N. Sinclair, K.C., Liberal leader, at the convention for South Ontario. There was a large attendance of party stalwarts from all parts of the riding, despite the inclement weather. Mr. Sinclair, who has represented the constituency for ten years, was accorded a magnificent reception, and was unanimously nominated. The large audience thoroughly endorsed his platform, as contained in his manifesto and his speeches.

AUSTRALIAN HOSPITAL

SYSTEM EXPLAINED

By Dr. M. T. MacEachern, of the American College of Surgeons.

Dr. M. T. MacEachern, assistant director of the American College of Surgeons, which supervises the standardization of hospitals on this continent, spoke to the staff of the General Hospital Monday afternoon and gave an illustrated lecture in Convocation Hall on Monday night to all the hospital staffs of the city, the medical students and the medical profession. Dr. MacEachern was in the city studying conditions in the hospital at the penitentiary which is one of the states of the Australian Commonwealth. There is one central hospital with super-facilities, which serves several hospitals of a type comparable with the Kingston General. This second grade of hospitals each serves a number of out-

BRINGING UP FATHER

Prof. Duncan McArthur, the president of the Kingston Historical Society, who had introduced Judge Mowat, thanked him for his most interesting lecture and said that other lectures would be given during the winter, one on the names of the streets by Prof. Douglas Ellis, and one on the early newspapers by Mr. J. G. Elliott, of the British Whig.

Three yeomen, preparing to blow the safe of the Forest City Laundry at London, fled when two men arrived on the scene. They had already exploded an insufficient charge of nitro-glycerine.

Master Nelson Patterson, fourteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Patterson, Belleville, had his eyes on Saturday, while playing football.
