with a swift glance that he was unobserved and then swung over it.

alarm, no uproar and running of feet on the deck he quitted. With a facility born of his former experience, Trask slid down to the deck below, climbed inboard and began at once to make his way forward.

going about his business in a fre and open manner. For one thing, he did not feel in a furtive mood and he was convinced that his best disguise lay in an outward air of confidence and ease. If he encountered Captain Blodgett himself, he His journey took him directly past the stateroom of Sinney Sands, affairs of her father's weather

Thus far it had been unexpected

He decided to follow the policy of

This time there was no cry of

The Children

Mothers should never neglect the first ldren are conserned, for if they do some serious lung trouble is liable

Mrs. R. T. Hubby, 1022 Barrington Halifax, N.S. writes:- The lden are continually getting colds, at I have no trouble with them, for ust as soon as they begin to cough I give them a dose of

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine

Spencer Trumbull, in order to be near his girl in the Adirondacks instead of faking a health trip, hires his old college and war-days chum, Billy Trask, to make the sea trip in his place and promises him

$1,000 and expenses if he takes his place under the eye and care of Keeler, a male nurse, who is a stranger to both, and thus fulfill the orders of Trumbull's father's physician. Trask starts aboard the Gulf Stream in a wheel chair, and no sooner is pushed on deck by Keeler than he beholds a girl at the rail-the "goddess," he dubs her. She is Miss Kent, a society girl with a mania for nursing, who takes at once to the interested invalid, despite her dragon of an aunt, Miss Grimm.

Meanwhile, Keeler makes himself a hero to Sidney Sands, a girl in the second cabin, concealing his identity. Trask breaks bounds and meets Sidney, daughter of an absent-minded professor, who has missed the boat, leaving her to continue his scientific observations of the weather. His achievement leads to an exposing of Trask, which Keeler makes worse by stating to the captain that the invalid is really a mental case. The captain threatens to put them off when Trask heard the key turned in realized that he was actually lock and for the first time since he had been aboard the Gulf Stream aboard, one desire persisted in his mind. He wished that Spencer Trumbull himself were there. He had a fervent yearning to punch

Trumbull's head, also to permit led a tempting bribe before the eyes of a poor chauffeur who ne ded the thusiasm for the adventure was oozing, as he faced the prospect that it was coming to an untimely end. The business of being sick almost made him sick. He wanted to be through with the whole business. And yet, contrarily, he proposed to escape. His reason for that determiavocation of pseudo-invalid; it was wholly concerned with the second cabin and one of its passengers.

"Cascarets" for

Your Bowels if

Headachy, Sick

To-night! Clean your bowels and end Headaches, Colds, Sour Stomach

Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters

oughly cleanse, freshen and purify

A Cascaret to-night will make you feel great by morning. They, work while you sleep-never gripe, sicken, and cost only 10 cents a box from and never have Headache, Bilious ness, Severe Colds, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cas-carets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

Stomach Trouble

CUT THIS OUT

stomach lining and often leads to gas-tritis accompanied by dangerous etom-only give temporary reflet from pain by acid stomach after meals with a little hot water and Bisurated Magnesia and sia, to sweeten and settle an aci stomach. It soaks up the harmful ex-

Get a 10-cent box defy Captain Blodgett, who or so. I get great results out of it and would not be without it for anything. I can highly recommend it to any one." Price 35c. a bottle; large family size Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Civil Engineer and Contractor. Office 81 Brock St, cor. Wellington

Grandmother Knew here was nothing so good for conges-ion and colds as mustard. But the old-shioned mustard plaster burned and plasters gave, without the and without the blister h oil of mustard. Gently rub it in quickly the pain disappears. usterole for sore throat, brontonsillitis, croup, stiff neck,

The Musterole Co. of Canada, Ltd.

DR. RUPERT P. MILLAN DENTIST EN EVENINGS BY

Dental Surgeon Wellington Street. 'Phone 679.

Our Coke is made from the very best grade of Coal, by the most modern pro-The primary purpose is to make est Coke. No gas fumes, no soot, soke, no clinkers, very little ash. $13.00 per ton

Farmers and Builders, ATTENTION! FOR SALE at Attractive Prices.

Cohen & Co.

Dominion Meat Store

Tomorrow's Specials

Creamery Butter 35c

Fresh made Sausages

Fresh Mince

Sliced Beef Liver 10c Campbell's Soups 2 for 25c

Prompt delivery

"THE GIRL IN THE SECOND CABIN"

By E. J. RATH Copyright, 1926, by G. Howard Watt.

[ed like a very long time; when he finally reappeared he found Trusk nervously pacing the stateroom. smoking furiously and muttering to himself.

"Well?" demanded the patient. Keeler tossed his hat into a corner, wiped his forehead and looked at Trask with tragedy in his eyes. "It's all off, sir," he whispered. "What's off? Didn't you see

"Oh, yes; I saw her, sir." "What did she say to the plan?" "I-I didn't get that far." "What!"

"I didn't get a chance, Mr. Trask," said Keeler humbly, "She did most of the talking, sir. I might say that she has a bit of a temper, if you don't mind my mentioning it." "Of course she has! She ought to fraction of a second in his step.

have. But what did she say?" "She said it first, sir. She saw me coming, and she walked right up to but he could see no sign of a light me, with her chin in the air. I knew | within, nor any in the adjoining there was trouble then, Mr. Track; room, where she was conducting the I-I was afraid of her.

"She said, 'If you are looking for gimcracks. He walked on steadfly, me, Captain Ferriss'-and I didn': nodding occasionally to casual like the way she spoke the name, acquaintances whom he had met sir; it sounded sarcastic-'if you're that afternoon, but who knew nothlooking for me, I can save you the ling, he well understood, of his trouble of a long conversation by status aboard the Gulf Stream. They informing you that I have no in- could only have known through the ed. tention of ever speaking to you girl, and he was certain she had again. Good afternoon, sir!' She said nothing. said it just like that, Mr. Trask." Keeler sighed as he added: "She

"And you mean to tell me that you got no farther than that?" de-

"I tried to put in a word for you sir. I did my best. I told her I had she'd only listen for a minute Next to a determination to remain | was sure that it would be an act of Keeler paused in embarrassment "Go ahead! Out with it! What did she say to that?'

"Ehe said," faltered Keeler, "that what applied to me also applied to Trumbull was the cause of all his you, sir. And with that she walked troubles-Trumbull, who had dang- away."

"Oh, the devil!" "That's the way I feel about it, money. All of Trask's early en-

> 'You're hopeless, Keeler!" "But what more could" I do. sir? She wouldn't give me a chance.' Trask did not speak for a minute. He stood with his hands buried deep in his pockets, an image of

"Well," he remarked in a surprisingly mild voice, "it seems as if both of us are in mighty bad with nation had nothing to do with his the ladies, Keeler."

"I was thinking so, sir. So I guess we go ashore after all, Mr. Trask.' "Go ashore nothing!" cried Trask, rousing himself. "I wouldn": Trask waited until nightfall, by which time he was in such a state of nervous irritation that Keeler dared not speak to him. The invalid scarcely ate his supper, so preoccupied was he with plans to remain aboard the Gulf Stream and to see Sidney Sands herself.

The latter project he had decided apon immediately following the disheartening result of Keeler's trip. Trask did not propose to be dismissed without a fight. He realized that it had been a futile thing to send an emissary, particularly such a vulnerable one as Keeler. Probably she thought it savored of cowardice.

Trask Tell His Story. Trask was not a coward. He was to an unpleasant tune, if necessary Keep your "insides" pure and fresh The one thing he would not permit with Cascarets, which thoroughly was being ignored:

cleanse the stomach; remove the un-"Keeler, I want you to stay here digested, sour food and foul gases, until I come back, he ordered sharptake the excess bile from the liver and ly after a final glance through the carry out of the system all the conwindow to make sure that it was dark outside.

Keeler was on his feet instantly. "Why, you can't go out, Mr.

"I'm going. Don't argue. You can sit around and get put off at Key your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then West, if you like. I won't. If any one comes inquiring for them I've retired. Keeler backed against the door and hesitated. "Keeler!" cried Trask sharply. 'You'd better stand aside! I'm not as easy as I look. I'll stand for no

"It's only you I'm thinking of, sir." said Keeler meekly, yet stubbornly. "I'm afraid you're going to do something rash again Mr.

"Perhaps. I don't know, But that's my affair. I order you to get out of my way."

Still Keeler besitated. There was a look of deep anxiety in his eyes. "You'll promise, Mr. Trask, to take no chances with yourself? I'd never forgive myself, sir. if I the stomach at an alarming rate. The acid irritates and inflames the delicate

"I'll take no chances that aren't necessary. Come, now, I'm in Keeler drew a deep breath, let it escape slowly and then stepped

"Please be careful, sir," he urged as he turned the knob. "I feel sort not only will the pain vanish but your of responsible for you." Trask nodded shortly and left the

> He did not loiter on the deck. Nor did he make any attempt to use he stairway leading to the second cabin. Two-Round Tommy might be a friend of Keelers, but Trask had never enjoyed even an acquaintance. Besides, there might be another guardian at the gate, capable of perhaps more than two rounds of combat. Trask sought no combat at all. Instead, he walked briskly to-

neither to the right nor the left. where he had once before made a sensational disappearance, noted STOMACH MISERY, GAS, INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" Corrects Sour, Upset Stomachs at Once

"Pape's Dispepsin" is the quickest. surest relief for indigestion, gases, fiatulence, heartburn, sourness, fermentation or stomach distress caused by acidity. A few tablets give almost immediate stomach relief. Correct your stomach and digestion now for a few cents. Druggists sell millions of packages.

Trask waited for no opportunity to present itself; he did not know how long his stolen liberty would endure. He made his own opporfelt sure that he would not even tunity. He walked briskly over to quiver an eyelid or hesitate for a the trio.

"I beg your pardon," he said, She turned quickly at his voice, recognized him without a display of astonishment and waited. "I have an engagement with Mis-Sands," he explained to the young

"I regret very much to deprive promise to return her to you as

(To Be Continued.)

figure standing at the rail, and evi- Trinity Anglican Church, Chatham, meeting was held at J. E. Freeman's looks mighty fine when she's angry, dently watching the moon streak was nominated as the standard and Elisha Martin's last week. The on the water She was not, however, bearer to carry the banner of the Epworth League social evening was Joe Romeo, committed for trial Two young men were be- West Kent Conservative party in the held at Mrs. Tallen's on Tuesday on a charge of manslaughter by side her, engaged in what appeared provincial election.

to be a desultory conversation. An ivory statue of a woman, found Oak Flatts, have moved into part of granted ball in the sum of $5,000 caught the echo of her recently on the Danube river near Mrs. Jeffrey's house. Edward Curl upon an application before Mr. Jus-

Flag and Radio Poles

Straight, round, Spruce and Tamarack Poles from 35' to 40' long. Excellent for Radio or Flag Poles and moderately priced.

S. ANGLIN CO. LIMITED

COAL, LUMBER AND WOODWORK. BAY AND WELLINGTON STREETS, KINGSTON, ONTARIO. Private Branch Exchange 'Phone 1571.

NOW IS THE TIME To have your Fall Shoes made.

JOHNSTON'S SHOE STORE

VERONA BOY INJURED.

Rev. A. C. Calder, rector of Holy in the Bank of Montreal. Prayer Saskatchewan and Vancouver. evening. Joseph Genge and family, Magistrate Jelfs of Hamilton, was their homes by a coat of paint. Rupert Storms had the misfortune Rupert Storms Fell at School and to be quite seriously hurt at school on Friday when he fell while run-Verona, Nov. 1 .- The farmers are ning, striking his head and leaving behind with their work and every- him unconscious for some time. Mr. The young men bowed-and sigh one is wishing for nice weather. The and Mrs. D. Walker attended the usual crowd of hunters are leaving funeral of the late Dr. Gedden at for the west, W. T. Wilkins has Deseronto. Mr. and Mrs. William taken over the position of manager Lillie have returned after visiting in here is Only One JELL()

No Other Dessert is Like It

TELLO is Canada's most famous des-J sert. For thirty years it has enjoyed increasing popularity.

Wonderful fruit flavors. Finest and purest ingredients which money can buy! No wonder results with Jell-O are always sure. No wonder there is never a disappointment, never a wasted jelly.

Just open a package of Jell-O. It speaks its quality. Note the exclusive Jell-O packing which brings this famous dessert to you as fresh as the day it left the Jell-O kitchens. Note the aroma of the fruit flavor.

Jell-O is pure and has real health value. Jell-O requires very little digestive effort, and yet it supplies valuable energizing and body-building nourishment. Serve it often. Your grocer has all the famous Jell-O flavors -Demon, Orange, Raspberry, Strawberry, Cherry, Vanilla, Pineapple, and Chocolate Jell-O which makes wonderful chocolate puddings.

We are really proud or the beautiful Jell-O kitchens at Bridgeburg, Ont. If ever you are near Bridgeburg, come and see Jell-O made. You will be very welcome.

Jell-O is always the same high quality. Dampness or other climatic conditions never affect Jell-O. The seamless, waterproof, air-tight inner carton protects tha

Made in Canada

To make desserts of extra appeal send for these molds

We have had specially individual jelly molds of new design approved by home science experts who know the latest and most the beautiful Jell-O re-

CANADA'S MOST FAMOUS