

NEWS AND VIEWS FOR WOMEN READERS

LIFE'S SOCIAL SIDE

Woman's Page Editor Phone 2618. Private Phone 827w.

Dr. and Mrs. Patterson, Smith's Falls, will be in town for Queen's reunion.

Miss Gwyneth Carr-Harris, Mack street, will spend the week-end in Montreal.

Miss Gertrude McKelvey, Bagot street, was a bridge hostess on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. R. O. Alexander, Royal Military College, is entertaining at bridge this evening.

Mrs. Gordon Cummings, Lyn, who will be in town for the week-end, will be at "Densmere."

Mr. and Mrs. William Bermingham, "Otterburn," motored to Montreal for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. James, Johnston street, returned from Watertown, N.Y., on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis, King street, left today for Montreal for the Queen's McGill games.

Mrs. Luther Breck and Mrs. Haynes, who have been in Lowell, Mass., have returned to town.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Elworthy and Capt. Walsh, "Densmere," will spend Thanksgiving in Ottawa.

Mrs. J. H. Elmsley, King street, left for Montreal today to spend the week-end with Miss Nina Elmsley.

Miss Louise Shaw, B.A., will come from Ottawa to spend the week-end with the Misses Shaw, Sydenham apartments.

Mrs. Hugh Oser, Winnipeg, arrived in town on Thursday and is with her father, Hon. William Harty, Bagot street.

There will be a final dance on November 13th for the Old Boys and Girls of Queen's who will be in town for the reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Craig, Mrs. W. Bartlett Dalton and Miss Emma Pense motored to Montreal today for the Queen's-McGill game.

Mrs. T. J. Lockhart, Union street, west, left for Montreal today to spend Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. Vernon-C. Jones.

Mrs. Frederick Etherington, president of the local Council of Women, who has been at a meeting of the National Executive held in St.

Thomas this week, was expected to return to Kingston to-day.

Miss Nadine and Miss Betty Harty returned from school in Montreal today and are with Mr. and Mrs. William Harty, "Roselawn."

The Bishop of Ontario has returned from his visitation in the diocese and will spend the week-end at Bishop's Court.

Miss Jean Macgillivray, Halifax, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. John Macgillivray, Albert street.

Miss Grace Mooers, who motored to Montreal for the Queen's-McGill game, will be the guest of Mrs. Gordon Anderson.

General and Mrs. F. W. Hill and Miss Louise Hill, Gore street, will return from New York early next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conway and their daughter, Lower Union street, leave this month for California to spend the winter.

Mrs. Sidney Kirby will be in town for Queen's reunion and will be with her mother, Mrs. F. R. Phillips, Johnson street.

Miss Mary McLelland, Toronto, will come from Toronto to spend Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. R. A. McLelland, "Densmere."

Mrs. John Waddell, Mrs. R. Dudley Cargill and Miss Lucy Waddell, who have been in town for several days, have returned to Montreal.

The Misses Hilda and Daisy McCammon will be with Mrs. A. W. Bremner, Outremont, Que., for the Queen's-McGill game on Saturday.

Mrs. David Murray, Frontenac street, has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Howell, and Dr. Howell, Galt, and her brother in Toronto.

Cadet Leo Apedalie, Royal Military College, will spend the week-end and Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Apedalie at the Chateau St. Louis, Quebec.

Mrs. R. Bruce and her daughter Mrs. C. Climo, were joint hostesses on Wednesday evening at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Thelma Chown, a bride-elect of next week.

Judge and Mrs. Lewis, Goderich, entertained at dinner this week in honor of Col. George Gillespie and Miss Hilda Smith, London, Ont., whose marriage takes place in London early in December. Mr. and

Mrs. Van Lesalle, Goderich, formerly of Kingston, were among the guests.

Mrs. H. Downer and her son of St. Thomas, are with Mrs. Downer's parents, Rev. J. D. and Mrs. Boyd, University avenue for the Queen's Old Boys' Reunion, which is being held next week.

At a meeting of the Prince Charles Chapter, I.O.D.E., held in the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday, Mrs. Arthur Clarke told the members something of the work of the Children's Aid and asked their co-operation.

The monthly meeting of the Rideau Home and School club was held on Wednesday evening and was largely attended. The president, Mrs. T. Murphy was in the chair. After the business was transacted the meeting took the form of a social nature and those present listened with much pleasure to the following programme. Piano solos, Miss Helen Curragh; solo, Mrs. G. Stenton, piano solo, Miss Isabel Leslie, recitations, Miss Ethel Pringle, solo, Mr. T. Murphy, Mr. Harry Hill was also present and delighted the audience with an interpretation of Chopin's Raindrops. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was brought to a close with the singing of The King.

"Tilly of Bloomsbury" a comedy by Ian Hay, presented by Faculty Players, Grant Hall, Wednesday, November 10th, at 8 p.m. All seats 50c. For sale at Uglow's, University P. O. and at door. Doors opened at 7.30.

Mrs. I. G. Bogart, Divisional Commissioner of the Girl Guides, is doing much, not only to form companies in connection with this valuable movement, but to teach the girls something of their own country. She and her daughter went during the summer to British Columbia and on to Alaska and the Yukon, and she has brought back with her diminutive totem poles and a polar-lash bow, nugget bracelets and many other interesting curios. These she takes with her to the Guide meetings and tells the girls about other parts of Canada and what the men and women who were the first Canadians thought and did. On Wednesday evening the St. James' Guides and the Portsmouth Guides met in St. James parish hall and enjoyed a jolly masquerade party, and Mrs. Bogart and her talk were a feature of the evening. On Thursday evening three companies of the C. W. L. Guides met in the Assembly Hall and here again Mrs. Bogart came to interest these young girls and to arrange for their training. She also invested one new Guide, Miss Verna Saunders will train the new officers of the C. W. L. Guides.

Mrs. Van Lesalle, Goderich, formerly of Kingston, were among the guests.

Mrs. H. Downer and her son of St. Thomas, are with Mrs. Downer's parents, Rev. J. D. and Mrs. Boyd, University avenue for the Queen's Old Boys' Reunion, which is being held next week.

At a meeting of the Prince Charles Chapter, I.O.D.E., held in the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday, Mrs. Arthur Clarke told the members something of the work of the Children's Aid and asked their co-operation.

The monthly meeting of the Rideau Home and School club was held on Wednesday evening and was largely attended. The president, Mrs. T. Murphy was in the chair. After the business was transacted the meeting took the form of a social nature and those present listened with much pleasure to the following programme. Piano solos, Miss Helen Curragh; solo, Mrs. G. Stenton, piano solo, Miss Isabel Leslie, recitations, Miss Ethel Pringle, solo, Mr. T. Murphy, Mr. Harry Hill was also present and delighted the audience with an interpretation of Chopin's Raindrops. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was brought to a close with the singing of The King.

"Tilly of Bloomsbury" a comedy by Ian Hay, presented by Faculty Players, Grant Hall, Wednesday, November 10th, at 8 p.m. All seats 50c. For sale at Uglow's, University P. O. and at door. Doors opened at 7.30.

Mrs. I. G. Bogart, Divisional Commissioner of the Girl Guides, is doing much, not only to form companies in connection with this valuable movement, but to teach the girls something of their own country. She and her daughter went during the summer to British Columbia and on to Alaska and the Yukon, and she has brought back with her diminutive totem poles and a polar-lash bow, nugget bracelets and many other interesting curios. These she takes with her to the Guide meetings and tells the girls about other parts of Canada and what the men and women who were the first Canadians thought and did. On Wednesday evening the St. James' Guides and the Portsmouth Guides met in St. James parish hall and enjoyed a jolly masquerade party, and Mrs. Bogart and her talk were a feature of the evening. On Thursday evening three companies of the C. W. L. Guides met in the Assembly Hall and here again Mrs. Bogart came to interest these young girls and to arrange for their training. She also invested one new Guide, Miss Verna Saunders will train the new officers of the C. W. L. Guides.

Mrs. Van Lesalle, Goderich, formerly of Kingston, were among the guests.

Mrs. H. Downer and her son of St. Thomas, are with Mrs. Downer's parents, Rev. J. D. and Mrs. Boyd, University avenue for the Queen's Old Boys' Reunion, which is being held next week.

At a meeting of the Prince Charles Chapter, I.O.D.E., held in the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday, Mrs. Arthur Clarke told the members something of the work of the Children's Aid and asked their co-operation.

The monthly meeting of the Rideau Home and School club was held on Wednesday evening and was largely attended. The president, Mrs. T. Murphy was in the chair. After the business was transacted the meeting took the form of a social nature and those present listened with much pleasure to the following programme. Piano solos, Miss Helen Curragh; solo, Mrs. G. Stenton, piano solo, Miss Isabel Leslie, recitations, Miss Ethel Pringle, solo, Mr. T. Murphy, Mr. Harry Hill was also present and delighted the audience with an interpretation of Chopin's Raindrops. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was brought to a close with the singing of The King.

"Tilly of Bloomsbury" a comedy by Ian Hay, presented by Faculty Players, Grant Hall, Wednesday, November 10th, at 8 p.m. All seats 50c. For sale at Uglow's, University P. O. and at door. Doors opened at 7.30.

Mrs. I. G. Bogart, Divisional Commissioner of the Girl Guides, is doing much, not only to form companies in connection with this valuable movement, but to teach the girls something of their own country. She and her daughter went during the summer to British Columbia and on to Alaska and the Yukon, and she has brought back with her diminutive totem poles and a polar-lash bow, nugget bracelets and many other interesting curios. These she takes with her to the Guide meetings and tells the girls about other parts of Canada and what the men and women who were the first Canadians thought and did. On Wednesday evening the St. James' Guides and the Portsmouth Guides met in St. James parish hall and enjoyed a jolly masquerade party, and Mrs. Bogart and her talk were a feature of the evening. On Thursday evening three companies of the C. W. L. Guides met in the Assembly Hall and here again Mrs. Bogart came to interest these young girls and to arrange for their training. She also invested one new Guide, Miss Verna Saunders will train the new officers of the C. W. L. Guides.

Mrs. Van Lesalle, Goderich, formerly of Kingston, were among the guests.

Mrs. H. Downer and her son of St. Thomas, are with Mrs. Downer's parents, Rev. J. D. and Mrs. Boyd, University avenue for the Queen's Old Boys' Reunion, which is being held next week.

At a meeting of the Prince Charles Chapter, I.O.D.E., held in the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday, Mrs. Arthur Clarke told the members something of the work of the Children's Aid and asked their co-operation.

The monthly meeting of the Rideau Home and School club was held on Wednesday evening and was largely attended. The president, Mrs. T. Murphy was in the chair. After the business was transacted the meeting took the form of a social nature and those present listened with much pleasure to the following programme. Piano solos, Miss Helen Curragh; solo, Mrs. G. Stenton, piano solo, Miss Isabel Leslie, recitations, Miss Ethel Pringle, solo, Mr. T. Murphy, Mr. Harry Hill was also present and delighted the audience with an interpretation of Chopin's Raindrops. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was brought to a close with the singing of The King.

"Tilly of Bloomsbury" a comedy by Ian Hay, presented by Faculty Players, Grant Hall, Wednesday, November 10th, at 8 p.m. All seats 50c. For sale at Uglow's, University P. O. and at door. Doors opened at 7.30.

Mrs. I. G. Bogart, Divisional Commissioner of the Girl Guides, is doing much, not only to form companies in connection with this valuable movement, but to teach the girls something of their own country. She and her daughter went during the summer to British Columbia and on to Alaska and the Yukon, and she has brought back with her diminutive totem poles and a polar-lash bow, nugget bracelets and many other interesting curios. These she takes with her to the Guide meetings and tells the girls about other parts of Canada and what the men and women who were the first Canadians thought and did. On Wednesday evening the St. James' Guides and the Portsmouth Guides met in St. James parish hall and enjoyed a jolly masquerade party, and Mrs. Bogart and her talk were a feature of the evening. On Thursday evening three companies of the C. W. L. Guides met in the Assembly Hall and here again Mrs. Bogart came to interest these young girls and to arrange for their training. She also invested one new Guide, Miss Verna Saunders will train the new officers of the C. W. L. Guides.

Mrs. Van Lesalle, Goderich, formerly of Kingston, were among the guests.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Harold Davis, King street west, entertained at the tea hour in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Polson, Bronxville, N.Y. The hostess and the guest of honor received in the drawing room where gold and bronze crystal chandeliers were keeping with the lights in soft yellow shades and in the library Mrs. Polson's little daughter Jean also received many visitors until she was taken off to bed by her nurse. The tea table in the dining room was centred with a silver basket filled with perfect deep red roses and lighted with tall red candles. Here Mrs. Hugh C. Nickle and Mrs. T. Ashmore Kidd poured tea and coffee and at another table Mrs. Elmer Davis cut the ices. The ladies assisting in the tea room were Mrs. Frank Day, Mrs. E. H. Young, Miss Jessie and Miss Una Polson, Miss Mary Macgillivray, Miss Nora Cornell, Miss Elizabeth Lyster, Miss Margaret Davis, Miss Helen Steacy, Miss Clara Farrell and Miss Jean Macgillivray (Halifax).

Mrs. Van Lesalle, Goderich, formerly of Kingston, were among the guests.

Mrs. H. Downer and her son of St. Thomas, are with Mrs. Downer's parents, Rev. J. D. and Mrs. Boyd, University avenue for the Queen's Old Boys' Reunion, which is being held next week.

At a meeting of the Prince Charles Chapter, I.O.D.E., held in the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday, Mrs. Arthur Clarke told the members something of the work of the Children's Aid and asked their co-operation.

The monthly meeting of the Rideau Home and School club was held on Wednesday evening and was largely attended. The president, Mrs. T. Murphy was in the chair. After the business was transacted the meeting took the form of a social nature and those present listened with much pleasure to the following programme. Piano solos, Miss Helen Curragh; solo, Mrs. G. Stenton, piano solo, Miss Isabel Leslie, recitations, Miss Ethel Pringle, solo, Mr. T. Murphy, Mr. Harry Hill was also present and delighted the audience with an interpretation of Chopin's Raindrops. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was brought to a close with the singing of The King.

"Tilly of Bloomsbury" a comedy by Ian Hay, presented by Faculty Players, Grant Hall, Wednesday, November 10th, at 8 p.m. All seats 50c. For sale at Uglow's, University P. O. and at door. Doors opened at 7.30.

Mrs. I. G. Bogart, Divisional Commissioner of the Girl Guides, is doing much, not only to form companies in connection with this valuable movement, but to teach the girls something of their own country. She and her daughter went during the summer to British Columbia and on to Alaska and the Yukon, and she has brought back with her diminutive totem poles and a polar-lash bow, nugget bracelets and many other interesting curios. These she takes with her to the Guide meetings and tells the girls about other parts of Canada and what the men and women who were the first Canadians thought and did. On Wednesday evening the St. James' Guides and the Portsmouth Guides met in St. James parish hall and enjoyed a jolly masquerade party, and Mrs. Bogart and her talk were a feature of the evening. On Thursday evening three companies of the C. W. L. Guides met in the Assembly Hall and here again Mrs. Bogart came to interest these young girls and to arrange for their training. She also invested one new Guide, Miss Verna Saunders will train the new officers of the C. W. L. Guides.

Mrs. Van Lesalle, Goderich, formerly of Kingston, were among the guests.

Mrs. H. Downer and her son of St. Thomas, are with Mrs. Downer's parents, Rev. J. D. and Mrs. Boyd, University avenue for the Queen's Old Boys' Reunion, which is being held next week.

At a meeting of the Prince Charles Chapter, I.O.D.E., held in the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday, Mrs. Arthur Clarke told the members something of the work of the Children's Aid and asked their co-operation.

The monthly meeting of the Rideau Home and School club was held on Wednesday evening and was largely attended. The president, Mrs. T. Murphy was in the chair. After the business was transacted the meeting took the form of a social nature and those present listened with much pleasure to the following programme. Piano solos, Miss Helen Curragh; solo, Mrs. G. Stenton, piano solo, Miss Isabel Leslie, recitations, Miss Ethel Pringle, solo, Mr. T. Murphy, Mr. Harry Hill was also present and delighted the audience with an interpretation of Chopin's Raindrops. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was brought to a close with the singing of The King.

"Tilly of Bloomsbury" a comedy by Ian Hay, presented by Faculty Players, Grant Hall, Wednesday, November 10th, at 8 p.m. All seats 50c. For sale at Uglow's, University P. O. and at door. Doors opened at 7.30.

Mrs. I. G. Bogart, Divisional Commissioner of the Girl Guides, is doing much, not only to form companies in connection with this valuable movement, but to teach the girls something of their own country. She and her daughter went during the summer to British Columbia and on to Alaska and the Yukon, and she has brought back with her diminutive totem poles and a polar-lash bow, nugget bracelets and many other interesting curios. These she takes with her to the Guide meetings and tells the girls about other parts of Canada and what the men and women who were the first Canadians thought and did. On Wednesday evening the St. James' Guides and the Portsmouth Guides met in St. James parish hall and enjoyed a jolly masquerade party, and Mrs. Bogart and her talk were a feature of the evening. On Thursday evening three companies of the C. W. L. Guides met in the Assembly Hall and here again Mrs. Bogart came to interest these young girls and to arrange for their training. She also invested one new Guide, Miss Verna Saunders will train the new officers of the C. W. L. Guides.

Mrs. Van Lesalle, Goderich, formerly of Kingston, were among the guests.

Mrs. H. Downer and her son of St. Thomas, are with Mrs. Downer's parents, Rev. J. D. and Mrs. Boyd, University avenue for the Queen's Old Boys' Reunion, which is being held next week.

At a meeting of the Prince Charles Chapter, I.O.D.E., held in the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday, Mrs. Arthur Clarke told the members something of the work of the Children's Aid and asked their co-operation.

The monthly meeting of the Rideau Home and School club was held on Wednesday evening and was largely attended. The president, Mrs. T. Murphy was in the chair. After the business was transacted the meeting took the form of a social nature and those present listened with much pleasure to the following programme. Piano solos, Miss Helen Curragh; solo, Mrs. G. Stenton, piano solo, Miss Isabel Leslie, recitations, Miss Ethel Pringle, solo, Mr. T. Murphy, Mr. Harry Hill was also present and delighted the audience with an interpretation of Chopin's Raindrops. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was brought to a close with the singing of The King.

"Tilly of Bloomsbury" a comedy by Ian Hay, presented by Faculty Players, Grant Hall, Wednesday, November 10th, at 8 p.m. All seats 50c. For sale at Uglow's, University P. O. and at door. Doors opened at 7.30.

Mrs. I. G. Bogart, Divisional Commissioner of the Girl Guides, is doing much, not only to form companies in connection with this valuable movement, but to teach the girls something of their own country. She and her daughter went during the summer to British Columbia and on to Alaska and the Yukon, and she has brought back with her diminutive totem poles and a polar-lash bow, nugget bracelets and many other interesting curios. These she takes with her to the Guide meetings and tells the girls about other parts of Canada and what the men and women who were the first Canadians thought and did. On Wednesday evening the St. James' Guides and the Portsmouth Guides met in St. James parish hall and enjoyed a jolly masquerade party, and Mrs. Bogart and her talk were a feature of the evening. On Thursday evening three companies of the C. W. L. Guides met in the Assembly Hall and here again Mrs. Bogart came to interest these young girls and to arrange for their training. She also invested one new Guide, Miss Verna Saunders will train the new officers of the C. W. L. Guides.

Mrs. Van Lesalle, Goderich, formerly of Kingston, were among the guests.

Mrs. H. Downer and her son of St. Thomas, are with Mrs. Downer's parents, Rev. J. D. and Mrs. Boyd, University avenue for the Queen's Old Boys' Reunion, which is being held next week.

At a meeting of the Prince Charles Chapter, I.O.D.E., held in the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday, Mrs. Arthur Clarke told the members something of the work of the Children's Aid and asked their co-operation.

The monthly meeting of the Rideau Home and School club was held on Wednesday evening and was largely attended. The president, Mrs. T. Murphy was in the chair. After the business was transacted the meeting took the form of a social nature and those present listened with much pleasure to the following programme. Piano solos, Miss Helen Curragh; solo, Mrs. G. Stenton, piano solo, Miss Isabel Leslie, recitations, Miss Ethel Pringle, solo, Mr. T. Murphy, Mr. Harry Hill was also present and delighted the audience with an interpretation of Chopin's Raindrops. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was brought to a close with the singing of The King.

"Tilly of Bloomsbury" a comedy by Ian Hay, presented by Faculty Players, Grant Hall, Wednesday, November 10th, at 8 p.m. All seats 50c. For sale at Uglow's, University P. O. and at door. Doors opened at 7.30.

Mrs. I. G. Bogart, Divisional Commissioner of the Girl Guides, is doing much, not only to form companies in connection with this valuable movement, but to teach the girls something of their own country. She and her daughter went during the summer to British Columbia and on to Alaska and the Yukon, and she has brought back with her diminutive totem poles and a polar-lash bow, nugget bracelets and many other interesting curios. These she takes with her to the Guide meetings and tells the girls about other parts of Canada and what the men and women who were the first Canadians thought and did. On Wednesday evening the St. James' Guides and the Portsmouth Guides met in St. James parish hall and enjoyed a jolly masquerade party, and Mrs. Bogart and her talk were a feature of the evening. On Thursday evening three companies of the C. W. L. Guides met in the Assembly Hall and here again Mrs. Bogart came to interest these young girls and to arrange for their training. She also invested one new Guide, Miss Verna Saunders will train the new officers of the C. W. L. Guides.

AUNT HET

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

"My notion is a wife ain't got the tender mother feelin' she ought to have for her husband unless she likes to kiss his bald spot."

Always and Easily

The Leader in Quality

"SALADA" TEA

It possesses that entrancing and seductive flavour not found in ordinary teas. Brown label 75c lb. Orange Pekoe Blend 85c lb.

A commercial hydroaviation service between Lima and Iquitos, Peru, is to be established under the direction of the Peruvian navy.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox and beaver.

The most popular furs for the winter, according to the sales at the Canadian fur auctions, are muskrat, ermine, marten, red fox