

A PURSE OF MONEY FOR RETIRING FRIEND

Yates Marshall and Wife Are Removing From Toledo to Bradford, Pa.

Toledo, Nov. 3.—A number of friends gathered together and held a farewell in the Orange Hall for Mr. and Mrs. Yates Marshall, on Tuesday evening last and presented him with a purse prior to their leaving for Bradford, Pa. where he holds a position. The Bible class, about twenty-six in number, from Jasper motored to Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Marshall's, on Thursday evening last, and spent a very enjoyable evening in games and music after which a lunch was served and everyone reported a good time.

On Friday evening last the Young Ladies' Bible Class held a 'Hallowe'en party, in the Brick church. There were a good many costumes and such make-up that no one could detect them. There was a time set apart for judging costumes and prizes given for those that represented most what they were masked for. Then there were games and contests after which a lunch and coffee was served and everyone went home pleased with such an enjoyable evening.

About thirty-five ladies went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Donaldson on Tuesday afternoon, and showered her with many costly and useful gifts. Mrs. Donaldson has been a worker in the church and Sunday school for years and the many friends wish her many happy years of wedded life.

The young people gathered together Tuesday evening, Nov. 2nd, and gave a shower to Miss Pearl Bell who is to be married shortly. Miss Bell received many beautiful gifts after which an address was read to her. The evening was spent in games and a lunch served. All went away after extending best wishes to Miss Bell.

Mrs. Ella Kennedy has gone to live with her niece, Mrs. G. H. Donaldson. Mrs. C. A. Wood and Mrs. G. W. Dunham have returned home after spending a week with friends in Montreal and Ottawa. Gladstone Hills and Lloyd DeWolfe have gone near Ompah to spend a few days camping during the hunting season. The sale of Herman Gray's furniture was largely attended and good prices realized. A number from this section attended the convention in Brockville on Tuesday last. Collins Covey is engaged to work for John Lyons. Mr. and Mrs. William DeWolfe, Ottawa, are fixing up their new home and will be residents of Toledo.

AT WILTON WEST. An Excellent Concert Was Held in the Victoria School. Wilton West, Nov. 3.—The school concert held Friday afternoon at Victoria school, was well attended and great credit is due to our teacher, Miss D. Cook, for the way the children were trained. The weather still continues very wet and farmers are having a hard time gathering in the root crop and late grain. A business meeting of the Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. C. Stover on Thursday evening to appoint committees and plan for the bazaar, which is to take place Dec. 3rd.

Quite a number from here attended the funeral of an aged and respected resident in the person of Mrs. C. Davison, which took place Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. R. McQuaid. Mr. and Mrs. Torrance Babcock motored to Hamilton, Saturday last, to visit their son, Headley. Mr. Clifford Frink is all smiles. It's a girl.

Mr. Earl Perry has recovered after his recent illness. Mr. Edwin Peters has moved into Mr. Dorval Peters house, and Mr. George Griffet has moved into the house lately vacated by Edwin Peters. The work on Victoria bridge is progressing slowly on account of the continued wet weather. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Compton, of Florida, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Snider. Miss Marguerite Frink is spending a few days at Mr. Earl Burt's. Hallowe'en passed off very quietly with only a few juveniles wandering about in the mud. Mr. Kenneth Babcock is doing a rushing business in the apple trade. Rev. Mr. Batestone, of Selby, occupied the pulpit in the United Church Sunday evening in the absence of Rev. G. R. McQuaid.

Institute at Westport Entertained by the Newboro Institute. Westport, Nov. 1.—Mrs. Harold Fredenburgh has returned to Pittsburg, Pa., after spending the past month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hull. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Kathleen Hull, R.N. Miss J. V. Noonan and children, Joan and Richard, returned to Ottawa on Monday, after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCann. Mr. Charles Egan, Nipigon, is visiting his sister, Miss Mary Egan. Mrs. Dool, Toronto, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wing. Mrs. Mildred Merkley has returned home after spending the past week with Miss Marjorie Lyons, Ottawa. Born, on Saturday, Oct. 23rd, to Mr. and Mrs. John Speagle, a daughter.

On Thursday last the Newboro Institute entertained the Westport Institute to a very pleasant afternoon. The many friends of Mrs. A. Marks, who underwent an operation at the Kingston General Hospital on Thursday last, will be pleased to know that she is recovering nicely. Mr. Carruthers, of Montreal, is spending a few days in town. Mr. and Mrs. Howard McNally, of Ottawa, spent Sunday in town. Mrs. M. E. Mulville and daughter, Irene, was a visitor in Montreal last week. Mrs. W. J. Tooley, tax collector, is making his house-to-house calls.

NOTES FROM WESTPORT.

Dogs have a wholesome fear of fire. A delivery man recently saved himself from attack by two vicious dogs by tossing lighted matches at them when they lunged at him. Grasshoppers have done such great damage in Guatemala that they are now considered to be a serious menace.
