SPORTING NOTES AND COMMENT

Coach Nicholson of the Montreal certain that Ottawa will retain the ing that the defense in Canadian football is too strong for the attack. The defense is certainly too strong for any attack yet uncovered by the Winged Wheeler tutor. It is too strong for attacking systems used by other teams. The Winged Wheelers, with one of the best quads in Eastern Canada, have wo one game in five starts, and have been defeated in all their games at play-off for the title, will fight to the M.A.A.A. field. Against a team with a weak centre Montreal would look good. They use a criss-cross plunge of ancient United States vintage that even the poor, misguided With Queen's seniors playing at tutors of this country heard of years ago. The Winged Wheelers did not attempt to open up the play. They plunged and kicked, and whenever they tried an extension the fans were shocked speechless. Other teams have also lost many games but they at least tried to open up Leadley and Harding will likely the play to the satisfaction of the be the choice of Dr. Campbell as spectators. It is unfair to Canadian football to say that the play cannot be opened up.
