KEEN INTEREST BEING TAKEN IN THE QUEEN'S-McGILL GAME

Not Since 1921 Has the Series Created Such a Stir in the Intercollegiate Union—Many Queen's Supporters Went to Montreal.

A large contingent of Queen's supporters left on Friday afternoon and evening by motor and train to be present at the Queen's-McGill fracas on Saturday.

Intense interest will be manifested throughout the intercollegiate circuit in to-day's mix-up and Toronto of course will hope for a McGill win.

TYRUS R. COBB QUILTS BASEBALL

"Georgia Peach" Says It Hurts to Admit Playing Days Are Over.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 6.—Tyrus Raymond Cobb, better known as "the Georgia Peach," and the greatest hitter in baseball history, has swung his last bat in a baseball game.

Ty was back home to-day in the town where he first received recognition as a baseball player, having resigned as player-manager of the American League after a colorful career of 21 years on the diamond.

Ty saw the realization of a dream of year's yearning come true, for twelve months ago he had made known his desire to resign as the head of the Detroit club, so he could spend his time at home.

"I am tired and I want to rest," Ty said. "The game is getting harder each year, and I am getting older. My legs are still good, my eye is as good as ever, but I can't take chances any more. A ball-player who can't take chances ought to quit. That's what I am doing."

Ty said he did not expect to play baseball again, although he said he expects to obtain an interest in a baseball club. (New York reports indicate there is a possibility of Cobb becoming president of the Brooklyn club, an office due to be made vacant by W. Robinson, who has declared he will devote his entire efforts to managing the Dodgers next year.)

"I have swung my last bat in a baseball game," he said. "You know I am going to be 40 years old December 18th."

The former manager of the Tigers, known as one of the greatest fighting players who ever graced a major league diamond, was in tears as he finished a statement that his baseball playing was over.

The "Georgia Peach" said: "Of course I can still hit 'em. I finished this season up in the .340's." Cobb.

BUSH GETS JOB

Former American League Star to Manage Pittsburgh Club.

Owen Bush.

Owen Bush is to get another chance as a big league manager. He has been signed to pilot Pittsburgh, succeeding Bill McKechnie.

Bush began his major league career in 1908 as a member of the Detroit Tigers. He remained with that team until 1921. Sold to Washington, he was made manager of that team in 1923.

After landing his club in the first division he was released, although no good reason for such action was ever given by Clark Griffith. The following year Stanley Harris won a pennant with the club Bush handed him.

To Manage Bears.

Newark, N.J., Nov. 6.—The announcement by President Charles A. Davids, of the Newark Club, of the International League, that Jack Egan has been appointed manager of the team for next season, means the Bears will be directed by one of the most capable managers in the minor leagues.

A Wroop Move.

"What became of that young feller from the city?" "Oh, he used to be a chauffeur, and he crawled under the mule to see why it wouldn't go."—Pele Mele, Paris.

"HAIR-GROOM"

Keeps Hair Combed, Glossy, Well-Groomed all Day

"Hair-Groom" is a dignified combing cream which costs only a few cents a jar at any drugstore. Millions use it because it gives that natural gloss and well-groomed effect to the hair—that final touch to good dress both in business and on social occasions. Even stubborn, unruly or shampooed hair stays combed all day in any style you like. "Hair-Groom" is greaseless; also helps grow thick, heavy, lustrous hair.

AMATEUR GOLFERS ARE OFF TO FLORIDA

Bobby Jones Will Lead Sarasota in the League Matches.

St. Petersburg, Fla., Nov. 6.—Everything points to the west coast of Florida as the centre of amateur golf interest this fall and winter. While the professionals, lured by the siren that makes them pros, are trekking to California for the winter season, the famous amateurs will disport on the fairways and greens of Florida. The West Coast Golf League is coming in for a big play from these well-known club-wielders. Chick Evans, who has taken more important golf titles, perhaps, than any other amateur of his age in the world, will probably lead the Sunshine City team in the West Coast circuit.

Bobby Jones, world's golf champion, who calls Sarasota his home part of the time, may be called upon to aid that city in the league championship battle which started to-day. Jones has been mentioned as a leader of his team and may have to swing into the competition in order to keep this city in the running.

Tampa had so many golfers near the "scratch" class that the city wanted two teams in the league. St. Petersburg fought against this, its representatives contending this would destroy inter-city rivalry as well as interest.

The presence of Evans, Jones and other leading golfers on the west coast is going to bring this part of Florida into the golf spotlight, according to Walter P. Fuller, developer and owner of the famous Jungle Country Club, where matches will be staged in this city. Mr. Fuller has been chosen by the local chamber of commerce as director for St. Petersburg, and is busy selecting his team for the opening battle with Clearwater here this month. The complete personnel of the team hasn't been announced.

John Daly, Jr., Florida state champion, is captain of the Clearwater team and also director representing his city in the West Coast Golf League.
