STRIKE SHOWS LOSS OF TIME BY PARKING

New York, Nov. 5.—The recent subway strike demonstrated the wastes of parking in a city like this. During the strike all main streets were barred to parkers, so traffic was hastened. It is estimated, by twenty to thirty per cent. That downtown parking doesn't help retail stores, either, is shown in a survey of thirteen of the leading stores. Here, during a busy shopping hour, 35,252 customers entered. Of these, only 813 came by private automobile or taxicab.
