DUMBELLS BACK AGAIN
 Appear at Grand Tonight in "Joy Bombs."
 The Dumbells are back again. All of them—Al Plunkett, Ross Hamilton, "Red" Newman, Stan, Bennett, Pat Rafferty, "Jock" Holland, Morley Plunkett, Glenn Allan and Howley Fogg and his orchestra boys—all renewing old friendships and making new ones.

So much has been printed and said about the virtues of "Joy Bombs" that every one is in a state of expectancy and a record crowd will no doubt pack the Grand Opera House to the doors tonight and all this week.

AT THE CAPITOL
 A dazzling jewel parade, a beautiful love story, heart interest, the battle of a mother for her child against tremendous odds—these are some of the features of First National's latest photoplay, "Mismates," with Doris Kenyon and Warner Baxter in the featured roles. "Mismates" is at the Capitol theatre to-day. One of the high lights of the picture is the big banquet hall scene in which three hundred of the most beautiful girls to be found in New York City take part. Dancing girls ride through the dining hall on chariots drawn by Nubian slaves. All are garbed in Grecian robes. It is a spectacle of the rarest kind.

WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
 The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for Nov. 14: "Caleb's Faithfulness Rewarded."—Joshua 14:6-15.

By Wm. E. Gilroy, D.D., Editor of The Congregationalist.

Someone some day may write a book, that is worth while for its inspiration, on chief lieutenants, or right-hand men, or second-fiddlers, or whatever one may call those who are not the chief leaders and who bring to movements that intense allegiance, consecration and service that make them powerful in support of the leader.

We have read of a florist who once tore up with disdain the second prize that he had won at a flower show; nothing but first prize could satisfy him. From one standpoint there may be something commendable about such an ideal, but the world would not get very far with-out good second-rate things as well as first-rate things. There probably is no strength greater than that of the man who, realizing that he has not the elements of a prime leader, a first-rater, puts all his energy and passion into being a second-rater or even a third-rater. To know what one can do, and to do it well, is a great secret of power and influence.

Moses and Aaron.
 Would Moses have been so great a leader without the support of Aaron? Would Paul have been so successful if he had not had the association of the unselfish and courageous Barnabas? Even the glory of Jesus required the preparatory work of John the Baptist.

So here, though Joshua is the outstanding leader, in the period with which we are dealing his glory and his accomplishment must be shared with Caleb. They stand together as the two men of faith, vision and courage among the 12 spies.

Caleb's faith and vision were all the more remarkable, inasmuch as it is claimed by some that he was not an Israelite by birth but an Israelite only by faith and adoption. In this lesson we find Caleb claiming the reward of his faithfulness, but it should be noted that Caleb's faithfulness had not been achieved simply with the hope of reward. Caleb had acted with unselfish courage, and, manifestly, if he were 85 years old, as he claims in the lesson, he had not been in a hurry to claim anything for himself.

BAY OF QUINTE W.M.S. EXECUTIVE MEETING

Held at Belleville on Wednesday—Work of the New Society.

The executive of the Bay of Quinte Conference Branch, W.M.S., of the United Church met in John Street Church, Belleville, on Wednesday. The president, Mrs. J. T. Daley, Port Hope, occupied the chair. The recording secretary, Mrs. C. A. Callery of Canifton, presented a report of the sectional executive meeting held in Trenton recently and a memorial sent in to this meeting re inequality of representation in the branch was discussed at some length.

Owing to the removal of Mrs. W. A. Bremner, former secretary of the department was appointed, Mrs. (Rev.) Jull, of Brooklyn, Cobourg Presbyterian, being chosen for the office. Nominations were received for a literature secretary (a new office in the branch) and Mrs. John Turner, of Almonte, Renfrew Presbyterian, was appointed. It was resolved to recommend to the various Presbyterials that one delegate to the branch be chosen as the representative of the Young People's Societies.

DEBATE AT EGINBURGH.

"Is Music Always a Help to a Community?"

Elginburg, Nov. 9.—Rev. W. Mackenzie preached a Thanksgiving sermon on Sunday evening to a fairly large congregation. Miss Ruth Hogarth, Queen's University, spent the holiday with Miss Helen Mackenzie. Mrs. J. Johnston, Mrs. B. Jackson and Miss Bernice Jackson spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Johnston at Ogdensburg, N.Y. E. H. Stover and Mr. and Mrs. W. Storing left yesterday for Denbigh. Mrs. S. Jackson fell last week and received some bad bruises but broke no bones. The Y.P.S. met here Friday evening last, Rev. W. Mackenzie's subject was "Is Music Always a Help to a Community." The answer was "Yes" but several in the audience took negative views and the subject took the form of a debate.

The Ladies' Aid met at Mrs. J. Silver's on Thursday last. Mr. and Mrs. E. King and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hughson were the delegates from this point to the Liberal-Conservative convention, at Odessa, last Thursday.

Enchre and Dance.
 A successful enchre was held in the Catholic Assembly Hall on Wednesday, in aid of Regiopolis Athletic Club. The prize winners were: Ladies, Mrs. Payne, gentlemen, Mr. Torres.

REST FROM WAR

Not the least pleasing feature of our lesson is the statement that "the land had rest from war." History, in the Bible as well as in the pages of profane history, seems oftentimes an interminable course of dissension and bloody conflict. But it is worth while to remember that there have been periods of peace and eras of prosperity when the world has girded itself with new hope and aspiration.

Caleb had been a man of war, willing to fight when fighting was necessary, but his purpose was not a war-like purpose. His purpose was to attain a promised land, to establish peace and righteousness. Great spies and scouts have not always been great civilizers.

It is a satisfaction to see this old and famous spy of Israel settling down to play his part in peace and reconstruction—even if he was 85 years of age.

TO THE ELECTORS OF FRONTENAC-LENOX

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:
 Having been duly chosen as the Liberal-Conservative candidate for Frontenac-Lenoxx at the convention in Odessa, I respectfully request your votes and influence to return me to the Legislature in support of the Ferguson Government and the Ferguson policies.

I appeal to you with confidence and upon my record of 15 years in the Legislature, as well as upon my record not only as a temperance man personally but as a strong advocate and supporter of every measure and act designed to help the cause of real temperance for which the Liberal-Conservative party has always stood, for I am convinced that the people of Ontario have not forgotten and will not forget that it was a Liberal-Conservative Government that gave to this Province its first real temperance legislation.

If elected I pledge myself also to continue my efforts to secure for this section of the Province further grants for highways and good roads, in which I have always been vitally interested, and to obtain for Frontenac-Lenoxx fair and just recognition in all Governmental matters, while I will co-operate heartily with the Government in its desire to improve the social, moral, educational and financial condition of the people, keep down expenses and reduce taxation.

My record in before you and the record of the Ferguson Government is likewise before you. On my own and the Government's record I accordingly appeal to you for your support.

Owing to the shortness of the campaign, it will be impossible for me to make a personal canvass of the Riding and hence I take this means of making this personal appeal to you through the columns of the public press.
