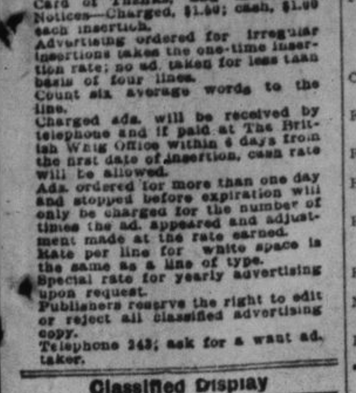
IT'S ALL OFF



It's all off between Adolphe Menjou, dapper movie star, and his wife Kathryn. At least, they're in the Los Angeles courts, suing each other for divorce. This shows Mrs. Menjou as she looked the day the hearings opened.

WEEK OF ACTIVITIES AT THE LOCAL Y.M.C.A.

"Find - Yourself - Campaign" Will Get Underway This Week.

This is to be a very busy week at the local Y.M.C.A. with the "Find yourself campaign" in progress. The campaign starts to-night, with a large banquet at which the boys will attend and will fill out their self analysis blanks. On Friday night a banquet will be held at which the boys will receive vocational guidance according to the requirements shown on their analysis sheets.

The Channel Swim is to be held to-night, at which the boys will increase their distance on the English Channel. The competition between the Blue and the Red teams has become very keen.

A meeting of the Board of Directors will be held Wednesday night. On Saturday, Mr. R. W. Brockel, gymnasium instructor, organized the Junior School Club. V. Sherbino was elected President, Will Connors vice-president, and Stewart Moore, secretary-treasurer. The boys will meet every Saturday morning and after their meeting will have a gymnasium class and a swim. The boys will plan their own programme. Among other things they will receive instruction in first air.

A KINDLY TRIBUTE.

To the Memory of the Late Alfred Abernethy.

(Toronto Globe)

While Queen's and University of Toronto fought it out at Richardson Stadium on Saturday afternoon tragedy descended swiftly and mercilessly to bring grief to the fans in Kingston and at Queen's University because Alfred Abernethy loyal follower of the Tricolor, a man beloved by the students of Queen's during the last generation, gave his life in the wild excitement. At a tense moment in the thrilling struggle Mr. Abernethy passed to his reward, and those of his acquaintances who learned of the tragic occurrence were stunned when the merciless "Hand of Death" took this fine sportsman away. For years the late Mr. Abernethy lived near Richardson Stadium and Queen's University. His two daughters and his two sons were students and athletes at Queen's, and one of his sons took part in the Old Boys game at Kingston on Thanksgiving Day. Mr. Abernethy's home was always open to the "boys and girls of the Tricolor brigade." His untimely demise will cause regret wherever he was known, and the sympathy of all those who knew and admired Mr. Abernethy and his family will be extended to those who are left to mourn the passing of one of the best friends sportsmen ever had.

The Pennsylvania Motor Federation, in a resolution relating to the minimum speed of motor vehicles in the state, has proposed a minimum speed of twenty-five miles an hour on open highways.

The most dangerous time for automobile accidents in the metropolitan district of New York is from 5 to 6 p.m., and the most deadly is between 4 and 5 p.m. Saturday is the fatal day on which most accidents and fatalities occur.

Mrs W. D. Hudson and Mrs. R. J. Elliott, sisters, and possessing grandchildren, recently finished an automobile trip from Seattle, Wash., to Atlantic City, N.J., and back, alone and unaided, even fixing their own tires along the way.
