The Misses Grace and Susan Blackburn, London, were hostesses at a reception for the London Women's Press Club in honor of the president of the Canadian Women's Press Club, Miss May Clendenan. The spacious rooms were attractively arranged with chrysanthemums in rich autumn shades, and during the evening the guest of honor was presented with a bouquet of beautiful golden chrysanthemums. An interesting poem, composed in honor of Miss Clendenan, was read by the poet laureate of the club, Mrs. Margaret Clarke Russell, and from a gramophone basket delightful flavors were distributed among the guests.

A most successful tea was given by the Alumnae Association of Notre Dame Convent in the parlors on Tuesday afternoon. Blue and white, the convent colors were used as decoration with mauve and yellow mums. The guests were received by the Reverend Mother, the president, Mrs. Fergus O'Connor and the vice-president, Miss Kate O'Connor. Tea was poured at the effectively decorated table by Mrs. Edward Ryan and Mrs. Arthur Neish, assisted by the members of the executive and some young girls, including Mrs. H. Hart, Mrs. D. J. Millan, Miss M. Brophy, Miss Frances Sullivan, Miss Kathleen, Miss Mary Keenan, Miss Corine Madden, Miss Eileen Kane, Miss Nora and Miss Margaret O'Connor. At the home cooking table, Miss Annie Hagan, Mrs. E. Brice-Land, Mrs. La Marche, Mrs. James Martin and Miss McMahon were in charge and the candy which all displayed rapidly was sold at a prettily decorated table by Mrs. M. Keenan, Mrs. G. Sullivan, Mrs. Meagher and Miss Mary Short. The fish-pond was looked after by Miss Ida Shaw and Miss Kathleen and Miss Lorraine Grimshaw. The entrance fee was taken by Miss J. Browne. Exquisite embroideries done by the Chinese women of a mission in the Far East were on sale in Chalmers Church Hall on Monday afternoon. Novelties, too, ornaments of cloisonne and lacquer ware, brass and silver and charming favors were for sale. Some of the work was brought from India by Mrs. J. F. McPadyon, who with Mrs. John Matheson and Mrs. G. A. Brown owned the sale. The W.M.S. gets part of the profits and a certain percentage goes to the schools for Chinese and Indian girls, where the dainty articles are made. The entrance fee was taken by Mrs. T. G. Smith in charge of Miss Barbara Jack, Mrs. W. J. Renton and Mrs. T. H. Renton. The fine linen was presided over by Mrs. Edwin McLellan and Miss L. Fairfield, and the dollies and trays were in charge of Mrs. G. A. Brown, Mrs. M. W. Harlow, Mrs. Brockie, Mrs. T. H. Stewart, Mrs. T. Cook and Miss Ethel Shannon. Table linens and lingerie were sold by Miss Lois Allen, Miss Agnes Bellhouse and Miss Elsie Mackenzie. The pretty handkerchiefs were at a table where Mrs. M. G. Tea was poured at a prettily decorated table by Mrs. Hector Hall and Mrs. Alexander McLachlan, the tea committee being Mrs. George Mahood, Mrs. Colin Macpherson and Mrs. Alexander Laird.

Downpours of rain that should have damped the ardor of sale-goers had seemingly no effect on the crowds who crossed from Kingston to Barriefield or came from the surrounding country to attend the annual sale of St. Mark's Ladies' Guild held in the town hall on Tuesday afternoon. The hall was packed with buyers and the gay decorations of flags and red and white bunting gave a cheerful note to the gathering. The guests were received by the president, Mrs. Francis Brooks and Mrs. F. W. Archibald and they promptly turned to the home cooking table where bread and buns, pies and cakes in wonderful profusion were set before the eager buyers. Vegetables too with apples and preserved fruit were for sale. The children's table was in a corner attractively arranged and tea was served on the platform. The number of men present at St. Mark's sale is always one of its noticeable features and on Tuesday Mrs. C. A. Seager, the wife of the Bishop of Ontario, saw just what the ladies of St. Mark's could do in the way of a sale. Mrs. Edward Murray took the entrance fee and tea was poured at a table centred with a pink primrose by Mrs. F. H. Day, Mrs. John Baxter, Mrs. J. S. Sibbitt, Mrs. H. F. H. Hertzberg and Mrs. P. H. The Editor Hears

That the Canadian Churchman for November contains a cut of St. George's Hall, which was cleared from debt and recently consecrated by the Bishop of Toronto. The church is beautifully situated. The incumbent was Rev. C. Gray Eakins, who is being warmly welcomed as curate of St. George's Cathedral, Kingston.

That in England grapefruit is as much of a novelty as it was with us thirty years ago. It is considered quite "American" to eat grapefruit for breakfast, and there seems to be an idea over there that Americans have grapefruit for breakfast every day of the year. When these English hostesses have American house guests they feel obliged to have grapefruit. Just the way some American women feel that they must have English muffins and Yorkshire pudding when English people come to see them.

That the specialist who spoke at the meeting of the National Executive of the Council of Women at St. Thomas, strongly stressed the advantages of milk as a food for babies. Certified milk or pasteurized milk, in the latter orange juice should be also given, as while an excellent food, there are vitamins in milk before it is pasteurized that are lacking afterwards. This doctor also spoke of the splendid work the Well Baby Clinics were doing wherever they were established. We have two excellent pasteurization plants in Kingston so our children should be healthy.

That the weatherman forgot about the three large sales that were arranged for Tuesday. But in spite of him the people who had arranged to go to them were, for the most part, not discouraged and turned up at their destination and bought largely.

That the football fever is at its height and no doubt a good many people will go to Montreal on Saturday and later to Toronto for the final game. The Kingston women are quite as keen as the men and the only social events that can be arranged on the day of a game are teas after the battle and a dance at night to work off some of the surplus excitement.

"MADE IN THE EMPIRE" INSTITUTES TO LEAD WAY.

Western Ontario Institutes at their meeting in London last week seem to have taken a practical step forward that might be an example to other organizations in their handling of this question.

In a London speech, Mrs. George Edwards, of Komoka, convention chairman and provincial vice-president, challenged the women of rural Ontario to a fight for the protection of home industries.

Mrs. Edwards presented four important questions to the delegates, and these she urged them to take back to their institutes. Later she hopes to receive reports on the part the institutes are willing to take in the warfare against imported goods and the support of "Made in the British Empire" trade.

The questionnaire presented for the consideration of the Women's Institute included the following points:

- 1.—In your daily buying do you ask for Canadian products?
- 2.—Do you buy the foreign article—first, because it is cheaper; second, because the quality is better; third, because there is no similar article made in Canada.
- 3.—Will you furnish a list of goods produced in Ontario or in Canada that are not equal in price or quality to similar foreign-made articles?
- 4.—Do you think that if your women constantly demand home products your local dealer will supply them?
- 5.—If you believe that a strong and loyal home market will attract new industries and settlers, and that these will in turn reduce the burden of individual taxation, will you pledge yourself in your daily buying to ask for local, Ontario, Canadian or British Empire products?

Bad Cold? Take "Cascarets" for Bowels Tonight

No headache, constipation, bad cold or sour stomach by morning

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret-to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your liver clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.
