London Advertiser-There are al ways the bleacher managers and coaches in every game, but sometimes the coaches and managers, either by accident or design, do happen to stumble on the right thing to do. It is pointed out that if Coach Billy Hughes had not put Chantler in for Voss in the last period at Kingston, Saturday, Trimble would have been over for a touchdown after his great run. Nobody, it seems but the fleet Chantler, who was on the opposite side of the field when Trimble started his 50-yard sprint, could have barred his way.
