GREAT FUTURE FOR GREAT LAKES PORTS

Chicago Diversion Termed Blunder and Its Perpetrators Corrupt Gang.

Buffalo, N.Y., Nov. 18.—William George Bruce, of Milwaukee, was chosen for re-election as president of the Great Lakes-Harbor Association of the United States and Canada by a nominating committee of the convention in session here. Nomination is regarded as equivalent to election.

Vice-presidents nominated were: C. Alfred Maguire, Toronto; W. E. Chilson, Buffalo; Elbert H. Baker, Cleveland; W. S. McCormick, Duluth; and L. G. Macomber, Detroit. Raymond H. Weiss, of Milwaukee, was re-elected secretary-treasurer by the board of directors.

L. G. Macomber, chairman of the committee on port development, in presenting that committee's report, predicted a wonderful future for the Great Lakes ports, "particularly in the connecting of the Great Lakes with the Atlantic Ocean by means of a deep waterway."

The convention adopted a resolution urging defeat of the pending rivers and harbors bill now before the Senate of the United States, unless it is amended to omit all reference to the Illinois River and the Chicago sanitary district. The resolution said that enactment of the bill as it stands might "compromise or affect the result of the final decision by the Supreme Court of the United States in pending actions arising out of the Chicago abstraction of the waters of the Great Lakes."

Mayor Daniel W. Hoan, of Milwaukee, characterized the Chicago drainage canal as the greatest engineering blunder of recent years, and called its operators "the most notorious and corrupt gang in the country." He ridiculed attempts, which he said were being made to change the name of Chicago's "open sewer" to "the lakes to the gulf waterway."

McGill Line Going Well

Shown Great Form on the Front Rank Against Loyola Yesterday.

Montreal, Nov. 18.—Yesterday the McGill squad was given one hour of the fastest type of scrimmaging, for half an hour first against the hustling Loyola College intermediates and then against an all-star team of old boys and M. A. A. A. players until darkness set in. There was fight and scrap in every minute of the play. Loyola put up a stiff argument as the battling young maroon-clad team always does. But they could not withstand the line crashing and end runs which were launched at them in bewildering fashion.

The red team ended their half hour's workout against Loyola by bucking the line for 25 yards—a sustained drive which suggests that for the first time this season Varsity will find the McGill team on Saturday handing back at least a little of the smashing style of play that the blue threw at McGill in the first two games. The improved work of the McGill line was the pleasing tid-bit of the afternoon's drill to the McGill supporters, who have been nursing apprehensions as to what the hefty Varsity pile-driving attack might do to the red front rank in the play-off game. McGill has vivid recollections of Varsity's driving style of play and the yards gained by the blue team in rushing the line here in the opening game of the year.

A RECORD CROWD.

Twelve Hundred Extra Seats Have Been Put in the McGill Stadium.

Montreal, Nov. 18.—McGill Union presented a busy night all day yesterday, when the holders of season tickets for the rugby matches at the Percival Molson memorial stadium, exercised their privilege of having the preference in the sale of seats for the play-off series game on Saturday. Almost every book-holder applied for tickets for the game, each asking for the same seats occupied at the other matches.

The sale of season books this year was a record one, which gives every assurance of a record-breaking crowd for the Varsity-McGill match on Saturday. Twelve hundred extra seats have been placed in front of the two stands which will give a seating capacity of 12,876 for the match.

Practice With the Argos Fell Through

Toronto, Nov. 18.—The expected practice game between Argonauts and the University of Toronto Intercollegiate senior football team failed to materialize yesterday. Coach Mike Rodden, of the Argos was out of town with the St. Patrick's hockey team and most of the players have had enough football. Varsity can see nothing to it but the Intercollegiate title, and they will take all the confidence in the world into the McGill game Saturday.

Toronto emerged from last Saturday's struggle with Queen's with no serious injuries. Snyder and Trimble were never better and these brilliant halves will be hard to stop. The plunging of Stollery has featured the line work in this week's practices, while every man on the team is tackling well.

To the Electors of Kingston and of Portsmouth

A short campaign will make a personal canvass of each of you impossible, but I shall have opportunities from the platform of placing before you my views on the political issues of the day.

If you think my position correct, and believe that as member for this Electoral District I would be of service to this community and the Province, I request your support.

Yours sincerely,

WEDDINGS.

Bois-Compeau.

A pretty autumn wedding took place in the Church of the Good Thief, Portsmouth, on Wednesday, Nov. 17, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. Kingsley, united in marriage William A. Bois, son of Mr. Alexander Bois, of this city, and Amelia Antoinette Compeau, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Compeau, Portsmouth. The bride looked very lovely in a dress of powder blue sat crepe, trimmed with silver, and grey hat, shoes and stockings to match. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Irene Bois, sister of the groom, was dressed in shell pink chiffon, embroidered in seed pearls. She wore a large black picture-hat and carried pale pink chrysanthemums. The groom was supported by Mr. A. Beaupre.

After the ceremony, a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride. The happy couple left for a short honeymoon in the west, and on their return will reside in the city.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Compeau gave a wedding dance to about 150 friends of the young couple, to enable them to view the gifts of the bride and groom. The best wishes of a host of friends follow the popular young couple.

The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Elmer Charbonneau, Brewer's Mills; Mrs. Wilmer Hampton, Gananoque; Miss Mildred Compeau, Gananoque.

Western Qualified To Meet the R.M.O.

Toronto, Nov. 18.—University of Western Ontario qualified here yesterday for the right to meet Royal Military College of Kingston in the Intercollegiate Intercollegiate final, by soundly trouncing St. Michael's of this city in the second game of the series by a score of 9 to 0. As Western vanquished the Saints in the first game played at London 17 to 0, they captured the round by 29 points to nothing.

Western displayed a fine brand of the fall pastime and after securing a try in the first few minutes of play the issue was never in doubt and only on rare occasions was the London goal-line threatened seriously by St. Mike's. The brilliant play of Western's half-line was largely responsible for the inability of the locals to score. Haugh, Kennedy and Warren formed a rear guard trio that combined in brainy fashion to run back the punts "to their opposition for numerous gains.

On the line the Saints were not so badly outclassed, but they tumbled much more frequently than did Western. The latter were able to get their plays into motion in speedy

NOTICE!

It is understood that a considerable number of Citizens of Kingston, though willing and ready to do so, for various reasons have failed as yet to make their contributions to Queen's University Endowment Fund.

Some were out-of-town, or absent from their homes or places of business when the canvassers called. Some have hesitated to subscribe owing to publication of the names of contributors. Some have not contributed because they felt the amounts they could give would be too small to be of consequence.

ANY CONTRIBUTION WILL BE GRATEFULLY RECEIVED, REGARDLESS OF THE AMOUNT. Names of contributors are NOT published if REQUEST TO THAT EFFECT accompanies the subscription.

Contributions of $25 or more may be paid over a period of five years, that is to say, one-fifth now, and the remainder in four equal annual instalments.

Contributors names are inscribed upon the Roll of Benefactors of the University—a lasting record of the beneficence of those who thus share their substance in the interests of others.
