LATE THOMAS MAXWELL.

Burial of Pittsburgh Farmer Who Died Suddenly.

Gananoque, Nov. 19. — The late Thomas Maxwell, who died suddenly a week ago, is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Minnie Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell of Sunbury; one son, Mr. Campbell Maxwell, and one daughter, Miss Doris Maxwell. He is also survived by three sisters, Sarah, Jane and Margaret of Boston, Mass., and one half-sister, Mrs. George H. Scott of Kingston. The deceased was born in Pittsburgh township and had conducted the farm on the Front Road for the past forty years. His father had managed this farm before him. He was a member of the Canadian Order of Foresters, No. 66, at Gananoque, a Conservative in politics, and a staunch and valued member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, this town. His quiet, unassuming manner and the interest he took in all community affairs, as well as the many kindnesses he showed to neighbors and friends, endeared him to all. Such a man will be sadly missed in the realm in which he moved. He was at one time reeve of Pittsburgh township.

The funeral services, held on Sunday afternoon, were conducted by Rev. C. E. Kidd, pastor of St. Andrew's, at the home of the deceased, where a large concourse of people gathered to pay their last respects to one whom they had so long known and esteemed. The remains were laid to rest in Willowbank cemetery, the bier being literally buried in flowers. The pall-bearers were three cousins, Messrs. John Kidd of Kingston, Thomas Maxwell of Deereville, and D. McCracken of Cornwall, and three brothers-in-law, J. D. Campbell of Sunbury, George H. Scott of Kingston, and Edward Parker of Gananoque. Among the out-of-town friends who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. David McCracken, Cornwall; Mr. and Mrs. John Kidd, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Carson, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Dr. and Mrs. Edwards, Kingston; Mr. J. D. Campbell, Sunbury; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Small, Brockville; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reid and Mr. Sterling Reid and Mrs. E. Taylor, Gananoque.

The motor car makes the local option plan a joke!

IF Government Sale is adopted in Ontario, and your district was dry by Local Option, do you think you'll still be dry?

Not in these days of fast motor cars and good roads.

Local Option had a reasonable chance to be effective back in the old horse and buggy days.

But now—it will be but a matter of a few minutes to travel from a dry riding to a wet area and from a wet to a dry.

Think of the Danger

Consider what this means. Think of the young men and the fathers of families who will not be able to resist temptation when liquor can be obtained a few miles away or from the bootlegger.

Think of the dangers on the highways!

How can a government leader enforce Local Option in so-called dry ridings next to wet areas when he states he can't enforce a province-wide Temperance Act?
