A Number Have Been Unable to Do Fall Ploughing.

Stella, Nov. 24.—The continued wet weather is keeping a great many of the farmers from finishing their fall ploughing. The Perry telephone staff, who have been working on the lines here since spring, left on Friday for their home in Napanee. It is expected that they will finish the work next season.

Residents of Amherst Island regret to learn of the death in Kingston on Thursday night, of a former resident in the person of David Hinton. The late Mr. Hinton resided in Stella for a number of years before removing to the city. He followed his trade of shoemaker, being located in what is now the telephone exchange building, and was respected by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. H. K. Wilson, George street, Kingston.

The cheese factories located at Stella and Emerald have closed their doors after a very successful season. Many who have a surplus of cream are shipping to the Kingston Creameries Ltd. W. H. More—Jell-O offers dozens of opportunities for variety. You can serve Jell-O many times, always with the same Jell-O quality, yet each dessert different.

Jell-O comes in six flavors. Each of these flavors is delicious when served simply as a clear jelly, or, when whipped to fluffy lightness. But, that's only the beginning! Each of the flavors may be served in dozens of other ways. Combined with fruits, fresh or canned... with berries... with nuts, dates, figs, prunes, raisins... with whipped cream... with sauces. No fear of Jell-O desserts growing monotonous! And it's the same way with Jell-O salads. Fruit salads, vegetable salads, meat and fish salads... all are more tempting and appetizing when prepared with Jell-O.

So healthful, too. Jell-O requires very little digestive effort and contributes valuable energy and nourishment.
