ATHENS

Athens, Nov. 25 .- Although the Alguire-Barl marriage in Brockville ed the 11th was a very quiet affair, yet two largely attended showers have been arranged in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Cook Alguire, naving returned from a honeymoon at Toconto, Brighton, and Lansdowne, were tendered a shower at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Delorma Howe, Addison road, on the evening of Friday, the 19th inet., when many gathered to offer felicitations and enjoy a social evening. Then, on the Monday evening following, the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Aiguire, Hard 1stand, opened its doors to many neighbors and friends who spent a few happy hours together in honor of this estimable young couple whose popularity is attested by the many useful and beautiful gifes, "showered" upon them.

Very complimentary remarks are heard regarding the singing at the meeting held on Thursday evening in the town hall, in the interests of the prohibition candidate, C. A. Winters, Brockville. J. L. Medcof. B.A., was director, and his efforts were much appreciated. Orchestral music, with Mrs. Lawrence Taylor, plano, Lawrence Taylor, saxaphone, and Ernest Johnston, trombone, was much enjoyed.

Principal Medcof has been somewhat indisposed, and under the care of bis physician. Dr. Beamont S. Cornell, a native Athenian, who was appointed to do research work regarding pernicious ensemia, has decoded to locate in Montread. For some time he has been identified with Johns Hopkins Uni versity and has had every advantage and facility for the prosecution of fris task placed at his disposal with the result that his achievements are lauded by men of eminence and
