AN ACT

To repeal part of the Laws now in force for Raising and Training the Militia of this Province, and to make further Provision for the Raising and Training of the said Militia.—[Passed 5th Aug. 1812.]

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of this Province from time to time, to constitute and appoint by commission under his hand and Seal a sufficient number of Officers to train, discipline and command the Militia of the Province, and also such number of Staff Officers as he shall think necessary, & the Officers so appointed for the Militia, shall rank with such of the Officers of His Majesty's Forces as may for the time being serve within this Province, as youngest of their respective ranks: Provided always, that Lieutenant-Colonels in His Majesty's Army shall command all Militia Officers whatever.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in the several Districts, Counties and Ridings, the Militia shall be formed into Regiments consisting of not more than ten nor less than five Companies: two of which Companies shall be styled Flank Companies, and shall be formed in manner hereafter mentioned; which Companies (the Flank Companies excepted) shall consist of not more than one hundred nor less than twenty private men each.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Colonel, Lieutenant-Colonel, or Officer commanding any Regiment or Battalion, and he is hereby required to order and direct the Adjutant of such Regiment or Battalion as often as the same may be necessary, to furnish him with complete returns of all and every person or persons within the limits of such Regiment or Battalion liable to Militia duty, specifying their age and place of abode, and the more easily to enable the Adjutant so to do, it shall be lawful for him to call upon any Captain or officer commanding a Company for a return of the names of the men of his Company and also of the names of such persons as may have lately removed to any place within the limits of his Company; and after he shall have been furnished with such return as aforesaid, to form the Militia Men so returned into Companies, in such manner as to him shall seem most conclusive to the interests of the Service.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Male-Inhabitant from the age of sixteen to sixty, now resident, or who may hereafter become resident within the limits of any Regiment or Battalion as aforesaid, shall be deemed capable of bearing Arms, and shall be considered a Militia-Man; and shall within eight days after he shall have attained the age of sixteen years, or become resident within the limits of any such Regiment or Battalion enrol his name with some one Captain or other Officer commanding a Company of the said Regiment or Battalion, who is hereby authorized and required to transmit the same with all convenient speed to the Adjutant thereof, for the information of the Colonel; Provided always that no person above the age of fifty years, shall be called upon to bear Arms except on the day of annual meeting, or in time of war or emergency.

VII. Provided also and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the neglect of any person so to present himself for enrolment, shall not be construed to prevent the name of such person being enrolled; and such Colonel or Officer commanding, is hereby required to enter the name of every such person as shall come to his knowledge, upon the enrollment of the Regiment or Battalion, and when so entered, every such person shall be subject to perform all and every the like Militia duties & under the
