Kingston, August 28, 1815. 12

WHEREAS

BENJAMIN CLAPP, of Adolphustown, did, on the 28th of June last, insinuate in a certain advertisement published in the Kingston Gazette, respecting a that I deemed it of too little consequence to inform the owner where she might be found: I think it my duty to inform those who are inclined to credit the malicious assertions of B. Clapp, of a few of the circumstances attending the above transaction. I can prove to the satisfaction of any person desiring it, that the following notice was posted up in the most public places, in three different townships, viz. Adolphustown, Fredericksburgh and Ernest Town, for at least three weeks previous to the advertising of the Mare by B. Clapp.

STRAY MARE,

"BROKE

Into the Pasture of the Subscriber, on the 25th of May, 1815, a likely BAY MARE. Any person by proving property and paying charges, can take her.

WILLET CASEY."

The above Mare was at my house on Friday, the 23d of June, towards night; but missing her on that night, and hearing by chance that she was in the possession of B. Clapp, I sent him the following note in order to obtain her. I was credibly informed that B. Clapp was seen riding said Mare on Saturday morning, and in the afternoon lent her to go several miles.

"BENJAMIN CLAPP,

"I hear that there is a BAY MARE at your place, that broke out of my pasture; if it is the one, the boy I send will know her. She and two others broke into my enclosure on or about the 25th of May. The other two, the owners have got. The Mare I have advertised, therefore, I am holden for her, and I will thank you to let the boy have her; and the first time I see you, I will pay your demands for pasture.

You will oblige me in sending her.

"From yours to serve,

WILLET CASEY.

Adolphustown, 27th June, 1815."
B. Clapp, refusing to comply with the request contained in the above note, I immediately went myself, and took her away. I think it proper to state that I had about nine months previous to her breaking into my enclosure, agreed for said Mare and her mate, for two hundred dollars. However, the rightful owner has got her, and I really hope the disturbed mind of B. Clapp, concerning her, is now at ease.

WILLET CASEY.

Adolphustown, August 28, 1815. 12
CAME into the enclosure of the subscriber about the first of August inst. a small Bay Horse.

The owner is requested to prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

NOTICE.

WHEREAS a number of gentlemen in Canada, previous to the war with the U. States, did subscribe towards printing certain books in this country, which, in consequence of the War were not nor could not be printed—This is to inform those of the subscribers who paid in advance, that they may call at Mr. Merrifield's in Montreal, or at this Printing office, and take to the amount of their subscription in any BOOKS or TRACTS belonging to the subscriber.

And the public is respectfully informed, that a variety of useful books and tracts were committed to my care by different Societies and charitable individuals in Great Britain; some to be sold at a moderate price, to defray the expense of transportation; and others to be given gratis, for the benefit of such as may be disposed to read.

I feel truly grateful for the many favors which I have received both in Great Britain and in different parts of America; and above all, I thank that Almighty benefactor who has continued my health, and enabled me to devote seven years of my life to that employment on which I look back with satisfaction, and from which I hope essential good will arise to my fellow-men.

I am, with due respect, the public's most devoted humble servant.
