Arts & Sciences.

THE Teacher of the Academy, lately opened in Mr. H. Baker's red house in rear street, acquaints his friends and the public, that his School Room is suitably furnished for the reception of a numerous set of Students. Larger apartments and the assistance of an experienced Usher will be engaged, should an occasion require them. Both sexes will be separately situated. He guarantees to those who may favour him with their patronage, that no exertions shall be wanting to facilitate the progress of his pupils, and, strict attention will be bestowed on their morals. He returns his thanks to those who have so liberally patronized the Sunday School. It shall be his primary object, without observing the peculiar forms of any religious society, to inculcate the sublime truth of religion and morality contained in the Holy Scriptures.
The Evening School will be continued as usual.
For terms, &c. please apply to the Teacher.
