Resolved, That the Common House of Assembly having hitherto rejected all conference on the subject of Money Bills, no conference be had with the Legislative Council, but respectfully to submit its judgment and reason, or to reject wholly the offered Bill, unless the Common House of Assembly will continue as it has heretofore, in many cases done, even during the present Session, to reject the amendments of the Legislative Council without notice, and re-engage the matter as to receive the concurrence of the other branches of the Legislature.
