From the Upper Canada Gazette.

His Excellency the Lieut. Governor has received the following address from the inhabitants of the Township of Lochiel in the county of Glengary.

To His Excellency, Sir Peregrine Maitland, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Major General Commanding His Majesty's Forces within the Province of Upper-Canada, and Lieut. Governor of the said Province, &c. &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY. We His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects the Protestants, freeholders of the township of Lochiel in the Eastern District, of the Province of Upper-Canada, beg leave to offer our respectful and sincere congratulations, on your safe recovery from the severe indisposition which your Excellency has experienced.

May a gracious and protecting providence, enable your Excellency long to hold the reins of this government; we regret that the short visit of your Excellency to the county of Glengary, preclude the loyal and numerous protestants of this Township, from expressing on that occasion those sentiments of respect, which we entertain for your Excellency, as well as the gratitude we owe to our Sovereign, in having nominated to this Government, one of your Excellency's elevated rank, connected with the high and noble family of Lenox.

Few months have elapsed since we hailed with the most flattering anticipation, your Excellency's arrival amongst us, to diffuse harmony and happiness amongst all classes of his Majesty's subjects in this Province, to inspire them with the most unlimited confidence in the honor, the integrity and talents of his Majesty's Representative.

Superior to all prejudice, your first care was to guard against the impression of party and individual opinions, often guided by partiality, often vindictive in interested motives, you soon convinced all that you are determined to judge for yourself, upon the unerring principles of experience, and that Justice and impartiality forms the basis of your wise administration.

You have already studied the interest of this Province in every point of view; your ready compliance with every just request, the correctness and equity of your decision, and your respect for the constitutional right is in itself sufficient proof of your wisdom and attachment to the people of this Province.

Allow us to offer our fervent wishes that you may enjoy every domestic happiness; and that you may long reside to administer justice amongst us, and witness the growing prosperity of this Province, is the sincere wish of all the Protestants of this Township.

(Signed by 217 persons)
To which His Excellency was pleased to give the following Reply:

GENTLEMEN
I am much gratified by your loyal and affectionate address. That the transplanted offspring of North Britain, has retained the virtues of the Parent Stock, you shewed in the late war, by a loyalty kindred to that which was bearing the standard of the Mother Country into the heart of France. You have shewn it equally in Peace by that strong good sense and honest principle, under the guidance of which you saw at once into the overtures of dissembled treason, and repelled them with becoming disdain. May the blessed author of our Faith, from whom alone are all good sentiments, confirm your dependence upon him and give you every other blessing.

Accept my thanks for your congratulation on my being restored to better health. I hope to be enabled to fulfil my intention of visiting your township in the ensuing season.

York, Feb. 17 1819.

To Robert Nichol, Esq. M. P. Lieut. Col. 2d Regt. Norfolk Militia.

SIR,
We, the undersigned officers of the 2d Regt. of Norfolk Militia, avail ourselves of the earliest opportunity of waiting upon you, to offer our hearty congratulations on your safe return to this country, and to express our satisfaction at the prospect of your again taking up your residence amongst us.

We shall feel the greatest pleasure in seeing you resume those Legislative and Military duties which we know from experience you are so well qualified to discharge with ability.

We embrace the present opportunity of assuring you that we have heard with pleasure, that your exertions during the late war with the United States, have been so justly appreciated by His Majesty's Government, and of the distinguished manner in which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has thought proper to reward them. Such rewards are at once the most ample testimony of the merits of the individual, and the flattering attention of Government to those who distinguish themselves honorably in its service.

As individuals, we beg to add that we anticipate with pleasure the moment of being again under your command.

Permit us also to offer our best wishes for your domestic happiness and welfare, and to reiterate our congratulations on your return to the bosom of your family and the society of your friends.
