Government Building.

A STORE HOUSE, to be built of hewn or cut Stone, in His Majesty's Naval Yard at Kingston, U. C. according to plans (observing that the roof is altered to a projecting eave) which may be seen at the office of the Commanding Engineer at Quebec, Naval Storekeeper's Office at Montreal, and at the Commissioner's Office at this place. Persons desirous of contracting separately for the Mason's, (by the ton) Carpenter's, or Cast Iron work, or to wholly finish the building, digging the foundation, and covering the roof with tin—will send in sealed tenders to the latter Office, on the 11th of October next, naming two sufficient securities for the due performance and proper execution of the works by the 30th September 1820.

Other tenders will also be received for erecting the building with wood instead of the Cast Iron work for the inside, as described in the drawings. Whether the building is put up with or without the Cast Iron work, the Stone will be allowed to be quarried on the King's ground, and all the timber materials furnished from this yard.

EDWARD LAWS,
Naval Storekeeper.
Naval Yard, Kingston,
23d August, 1819. 35
N. B. Tenders will only be received from BRITISH SUBJECTS, nor will any FOREIGNER be allowed to have an interest in the Contract.

Statutes of Upper Canada.

An Act to give effect and validity to deeds executed by Married Women in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies, and to repeal part of and amend an Act passed in the forty third year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act to enable Married Women having real estate to alien and convey the same."
[Passed 12th July, 1819.]

WHEREAS, there is by Law no Provision enabling Married Women resident abroad, and owning real estate in this Province to alien the same, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, an act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful and for any Married Women, having real estate in this Province, and being above the age of twenty one years, with the knowledge and consent of and by any Deed or Deeds jointly with her husband, to alien, depart with and convey any real estate, whereof she may be seized within this Province, to such use or uses as to her and her said husband shall seem meet, which conveyance shall be as valid and effectual in Law to all intents and purposes, as if she were sole, any Law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby declared that nothing in such Deed contained shall have any force or effect to bar such Married Woman, or her said husband, or her heirs during the continuance of her coverture, or after the dissolution thereof, or shall be held to have any force or effect whatsoever, unless such Married Women, if resident in Upper Canada, shall appear before any Judge or other person mentioned and described in a certain Act passed in the Parliament of this Province, in the forty third year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act to enable Married Women having real estate, more conveniently to alien and convey the same," or unless such Married Woman being resident in Great Britain or Ireland, or any Colony belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, shall appear before the Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any City, Borough or Town corporate, in Great Britain or Ireland, or the Chief Justice, or any one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of any Colony belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, and be examined by such Mayor or Chief Magistrate, or Chief Justice or Judge, touching her consent to alien, and depart with such real estate, and shall freely and voluntarily, and without coercion, give her consent before such Mayor or Chief Magistrate, or Chief Justice, or Judge as aforesaid, to alien and depart with such real estate.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case it shall appear to such Mayor or Chief Magistrate, Chief Justice or Judge, that such Married Woman doth freely and voluntarily consent to depart with, alien and convey her said real estate without coercion on the part of her husband or any other person, it shall and may be lawful for such Mayor or Chief Magistrate, Chief Justice or Judge, to cause a certificate thereof to be endorsed on the Deed so executed by her and her said husband as aforesaid, which certificate shall state the day on which such examination is taken, and shall be signed by the Mayor or Chief Magistrate, Chief Justice or Judge before whom the same shall be taken, and for as much as by the second Section of the said recited act of the forty third year of the reign of His Majesty, the examination of any Married Woman, touching her consent to alien, depart with and convey any real estate in this Province, shall take place within six months from the time of the execution of any Deed or conveyance, the same being found inconvenient and impracticable in many cases, it is hereby enacted, that so much of the said second Section of the said act, as enacts that such examination shall take place within six months from the time of the execution of any Deed or conveyance as therein stated, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no certificate to be granted as aforesaid by any such Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any Borough or Town corporate in Great Britain or Ireland, or of any Colony belonging to the Crown of
