

CANADA, The Last Hope OF ENGLAND;

Being an attempt to shew the vast Agricultural, Commercial, and Political importance of the magnificent countries bearing the general name of Canada.

By CHARLES FOTHERGILL, Esquire.

THE object of this little work is principally to point out the superior advantages held forth by this country to all classes of Emigrants, (from whence soever they may come) from the poor man to the capitalist;—and, to afford that kind of information which is known to be so much wanted in Europe;—and especially, in GREAT BRITAIN;—to which the possession and improvement of these Provinces is of the last importance. As the work will be published in London, the author wishes to ascertain, as nearly as possible, what number of copies will be wanted in this country, in order that the necessary instructions may be sent to the publisher:—he has, therefore, appointed the undermentioned gentlemen, agents, to receive the names and address of those who may wish for copies in all parts of the two Provinces—and it is requested that such as may be desirous of subscribing, will be kind enough to signify the same as early as possible.

Rich flavored Ale.

The present price is one shilling per gallon, for immediate payment. The admirers of extra strong bodied Ale are respectfully informed that as soon as possible he will provide a flock that will satisfy the most fastidious critic.

He thinks it will not be amiss to remind the Farmers (who are the main of the people) that if they wish their grain to command Cash, they must absolutely make malt Liquor their common beverage, and thus support the Canadian Brewers instead of the West Indian Distillers. It is of serious consequence, both to themselves and to the whole country, that they should immediately adopt so praiseworthy a resolution.

Orders sent to the Brewery, or left with Mr. John Russell, at Smith Bartlet, Esq's will meet with due attention.
