D. FARLEY,
December 28, 1819. 53tf

THE subscriber feels it his duty, from the villainous treatment he has received, to guard the public against any imposition on the part of Mr. Solomon Johns, by his offering to sell any part of half an acre lot, with buildings thereon, in the village of Ernest Town, bounded on the east by the Farmer's Store, and on the west by the property of the heirs of the late John Davy, as any title to the said property held by him, was fraudulently obtained by a surrender of a bond that was in my own name for the purchase made of it in 1806, when Johns was at low wages, and as can be made appear evidently by various proof taken at the time of the examination of his transactions in 1812—had no shadow of a claim.

PETER GRANT.
The person who is slated to hold a Bond for a Deed for half the above property from Johns, was acquainted with my just pretension in the first instance, but any thing to answer the purpose.
