St. ANDREW'S CHURCH

THE Committee respectfully request that the Subscribers will pay into the hands of the Treasurer, Mr. Alexr. Pringle, their respective subscriptions.—The Committee would likewise call upon those individuals who have not yet subscribed to give their support to the undertaking, they deem it superfluous to enlarge on the advantages which are likely to arise from an establishment such as the one contemplated, because they must be evident to every one. To those, however, who are Presbyterians, and particularly to those educated in the forms and doctrines of the Church of Scotland, the Committee beg respectfully to address themselves and to solicit their support, not only by subscribing what they can themselves afford, but by the influence which they may possess with their friends of other persuasions. Subscription papers are left with the Treasurer, Mr. Pringle, and with the Secretary, Dr. Marshall, also at Point Frederick, with Mr. Robert Graham, Merchant. A. MARSHALL, Secretary. 27th July, 1820 30

The business will in future be conducted under the Firm of Thomas R. Cartwright & Co. THOMAS R. CARTWRIGHT, NEIL J. McLEAN. Kingston, October 17, 1820. 42tf

MONTREAL ACADEMY.

Wm. RYAN, A. B. Master. IN this institution, conducted according to the most approved modern systems, the education of young Gentlemen is completed in about half the time usually required; and except in extreme cases without the aid of corporal punishment, hitherto unjustly considered as indispensable. To this only can be ascribed the unparalleled patronage received by this Institution—which by enabling the principal to proceed on a liberal and enlarged scale, secures to the public advantages not to be met with in the establishments of this Country, which are generally speaking, of only an ephemeral existence. The premises are perhaps the best calculated of any in the Country for a large establishment. The house is very Spacious and comfortable, the pleasure ground and garden extensive and well enclosed. The course of Studies comprise, the Greek, Latin, French and English languages; Logic, Mathematicks, History, Geography, Chronology, Writing, Arithmetic, Book keeping &c. Music, Dancing and Drawing, are also taught at hours that do not interfere with the regular classes. TERMS. Board & Tuition, per Annum £ 0 0 0 Day Scholars who learn Class 14 0 0 Day Scholars who learn Writing and Arithmetic &c. 10 0 0 Montreal, October 4th, 1820. N. B. Information may be had by reference to Smith Bartlet, Esq. Kingston, or to Mr. Thomas Dalton of the Kingston Brewery, each of whom has a son at the Montreal Academy. 43m3

AT a Meeting of the Stewards and leaders of the Wesleyan METHODIST SOCIETY, held in Kingston this day.—It was resolved that a remonstrance be sent to the British Missionary Committee, against their late decision, relative to the withdrawing their Missionary from this place, and that the sense of the public be obtained by receiving Signatures to a petition for the continuance of a British Missionary here. This is on the presumption that misrepresentations have been made to the Committee, by the American Delegate. The particulars of which on their arrival will be laid before the public. As British Subjects, we are resolved to support a British Ministry. By order, N. McLEOD, Sec'y. Kingston, 6th Nov. 1820. 45tf
