IN this institution, conducted according to the most approved modern systems, the education of young Gentlemen is completed in about half the time usually required; and except in extreme cases without the aid of corporal punishment, hitherto so unjustly considered as indispensable. The premises are perhaps the best calculated of any in the Country for a large establishment. The house is very Spacious and comfortable, the pleasure ground and garden extensive and well enclosed.

The course of Studies comprise, the Greek, Latin, French and English languages; Logic, Mathematicks, History, Geography, Chronology, Writing, Arithmetick, Book-keeping &c.
