ther aggravated to the wretched prisoners, throw herself on my mercy, will be with by the fact that on the day after the sen- out effect. The young Earl of Hertford tence was pronounceed,-the witnesses however, will not, I think, continue to sulwhose testimony would have restored them ly his fair fame, and to shut himself up it to love and liberty, were seen publickly in the gloomy dungeons of this place, for the the streets of London. The sentence of the love of one who is so unworthy of him." Star Chamber was however irrevocable, disappearance, and the as sudden reappearance of these much sought after witnesses. Some beleived that by bribes and threats, others, that Hertford and Catherine, conforthcoming when called upon.

In the mean time, Elizabeth could not ham are privy." entirely stifle either her love for Seymour the hope of regaining the Queen's favour, dress. might prevail upon him at length to disown his alleged marriage, induced the Queen still to retain him in custody; although her and reflected on the injustice which she was committing. Still the reports which the Licutenant of the Tower made to her of the state and conduct of the Earl of Hertford, evinced neither change nor coldness in his affection. He was continually Queen. "How! do you dispute the comsoliciting Sir Edward Warner to grant him | mands of your Sovereign ?" an interview with his wife, and as often received the Lieutenants assurance that Lieutenant, seeing it was impossible to prethe extension of such an indulgence towards serve his secret, and throwing himself at him was impossible. For his liberty he the Queen's feet, " pardon, pardon, for the expressed not the slightest auxiety, but said most guilty of your Majesty's subject's" that the whole world would be but one gloohis dungeon, sometimes made inquiry twice | dost thon mean ?" or thrice in the course of the day, as to "The Earl of Hertford is not in his dun-Hertford's behavour, and the only reply geon." which his gaoler could make to her waste the effect which we have stated. The thou suffered him to escape ?" Queen's love and hatred were alike goaded | Warner grovelled on the ground in the but from this she was as often deferred by partment." the obvious impolicy of such an act, and | "What ho there!" shouted the Queen his duty, his loyalty, ay, even his love to ger, "Guards, seize the traitor !" Queen, to spurn Lady Catherine from his | Several yeomen of the guard immediillustrious being in her place.

at least her suppliant posture, her stream- lousy, all lent wings to her steps. quence upon Sir Edward Warner.

so slight a boon should have been extorted had gathered on her cheek. from me by the charms of that face whose beauty makes her tremble on her throne." "Sayest thou my suit is granted?" said Catherine, falling on her kneesbefore him, on each other, seemed as if they did not and pressing his hand to her lips. " Now | understand the command.

may the blessing of the distressed and of the captive light upon your head!"

ing dearthfor asilortsenson, and thou silait | Earl, but they yet paused a moment ere clasp the Earl of Hertford in thy arms." they led him out of the dungeon, when tween the Lieutenant's departure from Ca- | self on her knees before Elizabeth, and therine's apartment and his return, leading | seize the skirt of her robe. the Earl of Hertford in his band, but that short period seemed to the lady to be an cried, " have pity !" age of longer duration than the entire term of her captivity, which had preceded it .- had no pity on himself when he ventured No newly imprisoned bird ever fluttered to break prison, even in the precincts of more wildly in its cage, than did the lady our royal palace. His doom is fixed." Catherine Gray hurriedly and impatiently "Not yet, great Queen, not yet!" said pace up and down the low roofed and nar- Catherine, still grasping Elizabeth's robe. him. In consequence of this, great num- (A tumultuous scene follows, during which gular troops. The Russians lost in this tain Trepka, also arrived yesterday, in 34 row apartment in which she was imprison- " Can nought save him !"

ed, whose small dimensions seemed pain-

We will not attempt to describe the rapseeching the lovers not to make the expres- and brandishing it aloft, " thus may his reserve, lest the smallest deviation from "About the year 1784 and 86, some ladies territory by a column which debouched ture of the emperor. sion of their delight to vociferous, and to life be spared !" expect a very speedy seperation, proceeddance upon her. He found Elizabeth a- could wrest the dagger from her hand, she ry to state they were punctual to the ap- comed. I have been informed, from what and some prisoners, among whom was a lone, moody and agitated, and he thought had buried it in her own bosom. he could even trace the marks of tears upon her eye-lids.

"Heaven knows, good Sir Edward," re- Gray was released from all its sorrows.

The bitterness of their doom was yet far- | induce her to acknowledge her crimes, and

"Would your Majesty commission me," and the public were only left to their own said Warner, "to reason with the Earl. conjectures as to the reason of the sudden and to inform him of your Majesty's gracious intentions towards him?"

"Nay, Master Lieutenant," said the A Cheer for the Church! and a Cheer for Queen, "I would reason with him myself. Elizabeth had kept them out of the way; and and will visit him in his dungeon, to see it his proud spirit can be tamed down by scious that the evidence of these people the condescension of a Queen .- This very! A Cheer for the laws that have made us could not benefit them, had resolved to ap- | moment shalt thou lead me to him. With peal to their testimony, when they knew my features enveloped in my hood I shall that it could not be procured; having them- be unknown to all but you. Thus good selves taken care that they should not be Sir Edward, do I intrust you with a state secret, to which neither Cecil nor Walsing-

The blood faded from Warner's cheek, or her fears of Catherine. The hope that the his knees knocked against each other, and confinement of the former, and his separa- so violent was the agitation of his whole tion from the latter, might in time alienate frame, that he was for some time unable to his affections from her, and, combined with utter a syllable in reply to the Queen's ad-

"How now, Master Lieutenant!" asked Elizabeth; "what means this? My resolution is perhaps, a somewhat singular one; heart as well as her conscience often smote but surely there is nothing in it so appallher when she recalled to her mind the grace- ing that it should banish the blood from ful form and manly features of her prisoner, your cheek, and prevent your limbs from performing their functions. Lead on, I say,

> "Gracious Madam!" said Warner, " pause a moment ere you take this step." "Not an instant, Sir Edward," said the

"Then, most dread Soverign," said the

"Ha!" said the Queen, using the famy prison to him, if deprived of the society vourite interjection of her father, while his of Catherine. The Queen, who held her own proud spirit flashed in her kindled eye, court in the same building which contained and lowered in her darkning brow; "what

"What, escaped! Traitor-slave-hast almost to madness by this information. most abject posture at the Queen's feet, Sometimes she determined to sacrifice the and his frame trembled in every fibra as he life of the Lady Catherine Gray secretly; said, "He is in the Lady Catherine's a-

often, very often, did she resolve to visit as the white foam gathered on her lip, her ingrate favourite in prison, to unbosom | and her own frame became agitated, though her secret soul to him, and to adjure him by not with fear, but with uncontrollable an-

heart, and to enthrone there a far more ately entered the appartment, & seized the Lieutenant of the Tower, binding his arms Catherine continued incessantly to assail | behind himbut not deprived him of his weathe Lieutenant with importunities that she pons. The Queen acting on the impulse of the might be allowed to visit her husband, or moment, commanded one of the guards to that she might be permitted to see him in | conduct her to the dungeon of the Lady Caher place of confinement. The lady was, | therine Gray, and ordered the others to as the reader has already been informed, follow her with Sir Edward Warner in young and beautiful; she was also eloquent, their custody. Anger, hatred, fear, jeaing eyes, the thrilling tones of her voice, dungeon door was soon before her; the and the mild, pale, beseeching expression | bolts were withdrawn, and with little of the of her countenance, had the effect of clo- appearance of a Queen in her gait and gestures, excepting that Majesty which be-"Sweet Madam," he at length exclaim- longs to the expression of highly wrought ed" your suit is granted. It is a fearful res- feeling, she rushed into the dungeon, and ponsibility which I am incurring, yet sure- tound Catherine Gray in the arms of Hertly even Queen Elizabeth may pardon that ford, who was kissing away the tears that

> "Seize him-away with him to instant execution!" said the Queen.

The guards gazed for a moment wistfully

"Seize him! I say," exclaimed the Queen. " I have myself taken thedrecaution to be "Cease, cease these transports, gracious present, that I may be assured that I e is in Madam. Even stone walls and iron bars | your custody, and led away to the death have betrayed the most important secrets that he has taken so much pains to merit."

in these gloomy vaults. Stay thy flutter- The guard immediately surrounded the Short was the period which elapsed be- they saw the Lady Catherine throw ber-

" Away minion!" said the Queen; "he fully to confine the beatings of her heart. Queen; and then she added in an under on them. He told them that it was indis-At length, however, the door of her dunge- tone, which she did not seem to intend pensably necessary to the success of the shall rest happier in Newgate than ye, took place between a Russian corps of aon flew open, and the Earl of Hertford should be audible; while a dark smile process, that each of them should set down Gentlemen of the House of Commons, in bout 15,000 men, with 20 pieces of can-ture of that meeting, to enumerate the ca- the Queen's sentence, and with the quick- accordingly done with an exactness which Irishmen in London, and ye may rise in the Danube. The Russians, after an obstiresses, nor to repeat the passionate excla- ness of lightning she exclaimed, "Thy perhaps had not always been observed in all mations of joy and love which accompanideath or mine, O Queen ! then thus," she previous statements, on this important pared so unexpected, though so long sought added, plucking from the belt of Sir Ed- ticular, and septuagenarians, octogenarian interview. We will therefore accom- ward Warner, who stood by her side with ans, and even those of ninety years, gave pany Sir Edward Warner, who, after be- his hands bound behind him, a dagger, in their true standing, without scruple or

A cry of Treason! treason! pervaded ed renovation. They were then directed ry taste, agreed to assemble at each other's ed to the presence-chamber of the Queen, the dungeon, and the guard advanced be- to return to the operators lodgings the next houses, for the purpose of rational conver- cavalry and from 4 to 5,000 infantry, was from whom be had just received a sum- tween Catharine and the Queen, whose day when, they were informed, the work sation; and at these parties, persons of eve- defeated by Alisch Pacha at Tachilitope, mons, commanding his immediate atten- life she seemed to threaten, but ere they would be completed. It is hardly necessa- ry description of genius were kindly wel- and lost 600 horsemen, who were killed, plete investment of Choumla, and to has-

"Now, now, do I claim thy promise, expectation for the consummation of their ciety owed its peculiar name to the homely O Queen!" she said as she sank to the wishes. The grand master spirit at length dress of one of the visiters; namely, that several conflicts less favourable to the tad to further the attack on that place.— "Master Lieutenant," she said, "I am earth, while the blood poured in a torrent appeared, and with a countenance express- highly gifted, but excentric being, James Turks. Here there is a chasm in the comabout to take a step that might probably from her wound. "Catharine Gray can sive of the most unfeigned sorrow and dis- Barry, Professor of Painting to the Royal munications made by the Porte, which Eski Stamboul has occasioned much uneaexpose me to the censorious prattle of im- no longer disturb thee-spare she life of appointment, informed them that a malig- Academy who was at that time employed leaps at once to some skirmishes in the en-whose discretion and prudence I can rely." words-her last gaze was fixed upon the from him during the night, and it was there- assembly of the high-born and the intelsumed the Queen, "that in the government The sacrifice of the unhappy lady's life process would consist in burning alive the of rank, who was only just afrived in Lonof my kingdom I have endeavoured to preserved that for which it had been offer- oldest of their number, and the rest were to don, refused to accompany a friend to one back, on this occasion, they are said to have hard fighting the Turks were defeated and temper justice with mercy, and even in the ed up. The Queen, touched with the mecase of the unhappy persons who have lancholy termination of her kinswoman's would infallibly become young. The asto- travelling deshabille, the gentleman repli- person important papers were found. lately been committed to your custody, I existence, revoked the despotic and illegal nishment at this information can easily be ed, "Oh! we never mind dress on these Yesterday, several couriers arrived from and so the great road towards Constantinowould rather bring them to a conviction of order which she had given for the executheir guilt by persuasion and remonstrance, tion of Hertford, but ordered him to be con- triumphed over doubts and fears, and they blue stockings," alluding to the usual un- Choumla, and from the Captain Pacha, at than by the measure of severity which have ducted back to his dungeon, where he re- agreed to make another schedule .-- They dress of Barry: the foreigner fancying Varna. These dispatches announced mained in close custody for more than did so, in fact, but not with the same scru- that bas blues were part of the necessary them victorious. The following is their "Persuasion and remonstrance, gracious nine years. The death of Elizabeth at the pulous exactness as before; for each ap- custom' called the meeting ever after, the substance. Madam," said the Lieutenant, somewhat expiration of that period released him prehensive of being found the oldest on the bas blue society. at the course the Queen's conversation from his captivity, and then, although he list, and being burnt to death, made large "The ladies and gentlemen of whom it a league and a half of Varna, and had attried and found manufacture was unable to restore the Lady Catherine deductions from her former account : for was composed, were not all authors and tacked the Captain Pacha on the 20th with Emperor set out on his march from Choto life, he took immediate steps to re-estar example, she who had yesterday confessed authoresses, but they were found of litera-

MISCELLANY.

FROM IRISH PAPERS OF A RECENT DATE. ONE CHEER MORE!

the State A Cheer for the King whom his subjects

so great!

A Cheer for them all! Cheer again! ONE CHEER MORE.

A Cheer for Peel's stainless and true British name! to the core

A Cheer for them both ! Cheer again !

ONE CHEER MORE! A Cheer for the sagest of heads in the land! Who stands by the Church like the Martyrs of vore! The stay and the strength of the Protestant A Cheer for Lord Eldon! A cheer!

ONE CHEER MORE! A Cheer for the Land of the Fair and the

May its Protestant Oak spread its roots more and more! The Victor by Land and the Lord of the

A Cheer for Old England! A Cheer ONE CHEER MORE!

MORE CONS.

"This boy will be the death of me," Why is a crooked girl like a London Miss awry (misery).

music ?- Because it is arm on exe tharme-

Why is a donkey-driver like an opinionated man?—Because he is prone to ass hurng (assorting)

Why is murder like mirth ?-Because it is manslaughter (man's laughter). Why are ladies that faint at dinner like turtle well dressed ?-Because they are pale-at-table (palatable) Why is knocking down a man like ice creams?-Because it is a summary proceeding (summer-ry). Why are men who say nothing apt to conquer in argument ?- Because they triumph (try-umph). Why are conundrums like philosophers

-Because they have whys-heads (wise Where should all penitent sinners lives

-In Cease ill-street (Cecil-street). What actress is like a blue-bottle fl ouzzing about one's ears ?- Hum-by. Why are the East India directors a blockheads?—They are Leaden-hall.

Why are Buxton, Ure, Gordon, and Sugden, all gluttons ?- They are members for Wey-mouth.

What celebrated actress is the latin for yours" !- " Vester," is. What little M. P. is like the food of a lindoo?-Spring Rice. Why is Lady Holland like skimmed milk !- She is a creamless blue.

What Scotch nobleman is allied to the brutes !-- The owner of Kin fauns. If the Duke of Argyle had a son, why would his estates be desolate?-They would be all for-Lorn. Why was the Duke of Clarence's party on the 18th of June very like drowning !-

It was fate-by-water (fete). Why is a Sam Rogers like Vestris?-

Because he deals in re-busses.

CURE FOR OLD AGE.

From the Spanish of Figor. Once upon a time, as the story goes, there arrived in the famous city of Zaragoza, an "Have pity, gracious Queen!" she itinerant dealer in recipes and prescriptions who gave out that he was possessed of wonderful secrets in the healing art, and among other things, that he could make old women young. His account of the matter appeared so plausible, that, in spite of all experience to the contrary, most people believed bers of elderly ladies applied to him, and "Nought, save my death," said the begged he would perform the operation upin her dying grasp, the spirit of Catherine | the importance and even necessity of that | sted blue stockings.

preper ordernals the validity of his mar- thirty-five, &c. The disciple of Medea distinguished in all arts and sciences, riage, and transmitted his inheritance to had no sooner received the new schedule without regard to their condition in life. them together, said, with an air of great sa- room, exhibiting, as it usually does, the since yesterday. You, Madam," address- broken into groups of various sizes, nor in ing one of them, "were yesterday ninety London Meetings for the purpose of conyears old; to-day you are only fifty. You, versation, has it ever been resumed. It Miss, were sixty yesterday, now you are is only in provincial circles that this rembut thirty-five"-and so went on, from one nant of barbarism is still suffered to exist ; to another, till he got to the end of the play. awing the timid into intercourse with their killed and many prisoners."

> ANTICIPATED DRAMA. IN COURSE OF REHEARSAL AT THE THEATRE

ROYAL, ST. STEPHEN'S WESTMINSTER. " All the world's a stage, players." Whose heart's for the Protestant cause Scene.-Night. A storm without, and a the introduction of conversation parties; tance will be made.

stormy debate within. A Cheer for our Wellington's glory and S.P.Q.R. "Now by the pricking of my thumbs, > broadly spread over the chest, conspicuously displuys these words:

"Hereditary bon dmen, know ye not,, Who would be free, themselves must strike the blow."

doffs to the Speaker.] Sir Thomas-(starting from his seat) "An- ty, and that this party was formed of certhe Treasury benches) defend us." Mr. rational conversation. Therefore it may peared, when it was dismounted. The Tur Speaker, I move that immediate steps be be fairly assumed that men and women taken to vindicate the insulted privileges who meet in these days for the same purof this Honourable House. A stranger, pose are equally entitled to the name of squares of the 15th and 16th regiments of bearing an alarming resemblance to Guy blue-stocking, and they alone; though the Chasseurs, which formed there, and on the Fawkes, has intruded within the sanctuary epithet blue is now exclusively, and there- other side made an attempt to get posses-Begggar ?-Because she is a picture of of these walls, and polluted the pure and fore erroneously, confined to some indivi- session of our artillery. But all their enunsullied benches, on which I am in the duals among women. We also know, that deavours were fruitless. By a well-sup-

> S.P.Q.R. Order. Order. I hope I men and women of the time. But of loss of 200 killed. We had 30 killed and shall make myself understood. (Cheers.) If any Honourable Member is acquainted males of the present day who are called with the person or pretensions of the Stran- the blue stockings? Like their predecesger, he will state it to the house. Sergeant be in attendance !

[Solemn silence. Stranger rises.]

STRANGER .- The Chieftain of the Holy crated by God's Vicar upon earth, the omnipotent Pope of Rome, to the emancipation of seven millions of his subjects from the thraldom of heretics, will speak for on what has engaged their own attention: himself. I am the founder of the Catholic Association, the leader of seven millions, united as one man" under my command, to reconquer their civil rights their Church (the only true one) and the spoils of their confiscated property from the "barbarous domination of the Protestant Oligarchy of England." I present myself at your table as the Member for the county of Clare, and the only true Representative for all Ireland! I come not to violate your privileges, but to claim sanctuary and protection under the roof of that boasted edifice of your Constitution, of which my ancestors were the house of the ladies mentioned above." founders and the architects. I came-

Mr. WYNNE. I move the standing orders be enforced. The Honourable Gentleman has not been sworn. O'Connell. Sworn but not forsworn. I have been sworn at Rome never to stain ings as W-ll-n, Eld-n, L-nd-st, the would form a bulwark against the Rusblessed Virgin Mary---the Sacrifice of the collected imposing forces upon any parti-Mass -- the Invocation of Saints -- the Mys- cular point, but lost much time in partial teries of Pugratory -- the Romission of Since Speaker. Daniel O'Connell! you are in the system of operations which it had ahereby required to take the oaths which the dopted. Clerk will administer to you.

Omnes. The oaths, the oaths! Sir THOMAS L .-- TH GE, (to himself) November,

Gunpowder treason and plot,

never be forgot."

at Arms.)

O'CONNELL --- (as he is led away)---I played on her lip, " or perchance thine." her name and precise age upon a schedule, your beds this night --- " Remember that non, and the Turks stationed at Moldavia, ding dates. Catherine's ear caught the last part of to be prepared for that purpose. This was there are one hundred thousand needy opposite Widdin, on the left bank of the hundred places at once."

the truth should endanger their anticipat- and gentlemen of rank, fashion and litera- from Kalifat. pointment, and were waiting in anxious appeared to me good authority, that the so- staff officer. to reveal it to any one but yourself, on Her last breath was spent on these that awaited him, had stolen the schedule room of the Adelphi, and used to go to this from Choumla.

next neighbour only, encouraging the sufriend next him, and enabling the indolent name of Versey, was the original promoand she was assisted in her efforts by the widow of Admiral Boscawen, and by the celebrated Elizabeth Montague, the writer Something wicked this way of an essay on Shakespeare, and of a collection of letters, distinguished for their Door opens. Enter, amidst thunder and wit and elegance. These ladies met alterlightning, a stranger, attired in a dark natively at each other's houses; and afame, were Elizabeth Barter, the translator of Epictetus, and the admirable Hannah Moore.* "By the foregoing facts it appears indisputable that formerly, men as well as women were known by the name of blue [On his head the bonnet rouge, which he stocking—that the appelation was given to ces of flying artillery which were directed all who frequented the blue-stocking pargels and Ministers (looking anxiously at tain individuals who met for the purpose of ly however, had the enemy's artillery ap-Why is a blow on the vision like good habit of sitting, with his unhallowed per- in former days, the term designated some ported fire of howitzers and musketry the of the most distinguished and enlightened enemy was repulsed at all points, with the what description of persons are the fe- 50 wounded. minds into collision with those of the wiser his sharp shooters. sex, that they may profit by their remarks, and by these means improve even the hours which are appropriated to social intercourse. Surely no rational woman ought to be averse to resemble the original of such a portrait as this.

which she then imbibed, and has always on the 2d of June, and put the garrison to had power to assemble at her house the the sword. There is no truth in this. first-rates of the present day, for the same purpose as led those of past days to the FOREIGN.

TURKISH BULLETIN.

Constantinople, July 26 .- The hope my soul with those abominable oaths, which the Porte had conceived that its powhich are fitted only for such degraded be- sition on the northern side of the Balkan Protestant R-1F-m-ly of these Realms, sian armies, has been nearly justified by a ec hoc genus omne. I have sworn that " I series of successful engagements fought will rather be torn limb from limb," than since the beginning of July. It appeared take the blasphemous oath against the that the Russian Commanders had not by the Pope --- the Miracles of the Fa- Turks, inspired the latter with great addi tional courage, and confirming the Porte

The first Bulletin from the Turkish head quarters arrived here on the 12th.— It announced an attack made by the Turks " Remember, remember, the Fifth of on the position of Hadschi-Oglu-Bazardschik, between Choumla and Varna, and after, says the Bulletin, the attack was O'Connell is handcuffed by the Sergeant second action, many men and six pieces of cannon.

"The Russians had approached within late it. Queen, "I believe that every attempt to perfectly successful, he proved before the yesterday set down three score, now wrote senso to endeavour to collect together the ter experiencing severe losses. Mehmed of cossack artillery, two squadrons of the

Pacha was even preparing to attack them next day in their positions, but they had his son, who was the issue of that ill-fated than he drew out from his pocket the pre- "On these occasions, that awful ugly quitted them during the night, and fallen vious record, and deliberately comparing thing, a large circle in an English drawing- back a whole league. During these events, the division of the Russian fleet had attisfaction, "well ladies, the work is accom- men sitting together on one side of the tempted to effect a landing at Varna, but plished -- I find you all have grown young room, the women on the other, was wisely had also been repulsed by the Turkish batteries, the fire of which had damaged several transports. An attack made the same day by the Russians on the position of Choumla, had not a more favourable result. They were beaten off, after losing 2,000

Constantinople, July 28 .- The Russians percilious man to talk chiefly to the male appear disposed to pass round the fortress of Choumla, and march along the coast of to indulge in the same practice, though the Black Seaupon Adrianople. To the from a different motive. A lady of the latter, large divisions of troops are continually proceeding. The Capital alone is to And all the men and women merely ter of this successful attempt to put down raise a corps of 50,000, and no doubt is the universal practice of card playing, by longer entertained that a vigorous resis-

> SIXTEENTH (LAST) BULLETIN OF THE RUSSIAN ARMY.

" Camp before Choumla, July 29.-Yesterday afternoon, at five o'clock, two brigades of the 3d division of the army before Choumla, under the command of Rudzegreen uniform, round the collar of which mongst their visiters were Lord Little- mez, marched with the right wing, in order are worked, in mistic characters, the words ton, Horace Walpole, and other celebrat- to occupy the thickly wooded eminences " Erin go bragh ;" round his neck is a ed men of the day; and among the female | which are situated on the road to Silistria. green silk 'kerchief. the corner of which, writers, who were then already known to This movement was successfully effected under the 3d brigade of horse artillery, supported by the division of light cavalry. A brigade of Infantry formed the reserve. During the movement a mass of the enemy's cavalry, supported by the redoubts erected before Choumla, and by some pieagainst us, endeavoured to dislodge us from our advantageous position. Scarcekish cavalry surrounded the extremity ? our right wing, and briskly charged the

"On this occasion the Emperor presented a sword ornamented with diamonds to sors they are women who improve their Adjutant-General Kisielew, and the ribbon minds by the acquisition of useful know- of the Order of St. Anne to General Berg. ledge, as well as, or instead of, showey ac- To-day we have forfeited the heights of complishments, and who are willing, when which we took possession yesterday, in and Illustrious Order of Liberators, conse- occasion serves, to join in discussing useful spite of the fire of the enemy's redoubts and subjects, modestly desirous to bring their entrenchments, and the repeated attacks of

Admiral Greig, with the whole fleet under his command, has arrived at Havana, whence he will proceed to Varna, to assist in the siege of that fortified. Silistria is invested, and the reserve battalions of the millitary colonies have already entered Moldavia and Wallachia. An article from Smyrna, mentions the * " This lady is now the only survivor arrival of a traveller, who states that the of the original blue-stockings ;---she still Russian general Paskiewitch had, after a retains the love of conversation parties sanguinary battle, taken Erzerum by storm,

> It is said that the Emperor of Russia is to leave the army on the 8th, and proceed to Odessa, there to meet Lord Heytesbury and other diplomatic characters from the several courts, who will form a congress upon the fate of Turkey, or in other words endeavour, by remonstrance and peruasion, to induce Nicholas to relax in his purpose of destroying the Turkish power in EPIGRAM. Fee simple-and a simple-fee. And all the fees---in-tail, Are nothing when compared to thee, Thou best of fees-female.

THE CHRONICLE.

We are indebted to the New-York Commercial Advertiser for the follow-

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

The packet ship France, Captain Funk, arrived yesterday from Havre, whence she sailed on the 5th ult. She brings Parenewed, and repulsed as before, chiefly ris papers to the 3d, and Havre to the 4th through the courageous defence of the re- of September. The Ship Europa, Capdays from Hamburg, bringing papers from that city to the 30th of August inclusive .-The same day a very sharp encounter By these arrivals, our advices from the seat of war are five days later, and from the Turkish capital ten, than our prece-

There seems to have been no foundation whatever for the rumours of reverses morning, and find your city in flames in a nate action of five hours, were repulsed, said to have overtaken the Russian arms and lost on that occasion 2,000 men in before Choumla. From Choumla the Exit the Liberator --- and adjourned. killed and wounded, and a great number dates are to the 8th of August; but the Paof prisoners. They were even pursued to ris papers only contain abstracts of the Origin of the Term Blue-Stocking .- a considerable distance on the Wallachian bulletins from that point, after the depar-

On the 1st of August, the Emperor published a proclomation from the camp before Choumla, by which every manœuvre was ordered to be adopted for the comten the carrying of that place as rapidly as possible. Hussein Pacha is shut up in From the 10th to the 15th, there were Choumla, and these measures were adopsiness to the Turks, as they saw they were nant sorces, who envied him the happiness on his admirable pictures in the great virons of Varna, and at a short distance on the point of having the communication between the capital and the interior The Lieutenant bowed profoundly, and Queen—and pressing the hand of her hus- fore necessary to make a new one; but not lectual, in the same dress in which he made several attacks on the Turkish po- ed the greatest part of the cavalry and inthen assumed the attitude of a respectful band, who was permitted to approach her, to keep them any longer in ignorance of painted; in short, he appeared in his wor- sitions near Varna. They had succeeded fantry and attacked the detachment comin approaching that town, but the arrival manded by Rudiger and attempted to drive measure, he informed them that the whole "It so happened, that when a foreigner of the Captain Pacha with considerable them back. The Turks were opposed by

The last official bulletin of the Russian a rmy, received in Paris up to the 1st September, is published in the Gazette de-France, of that day, from which we trans-

"With my infatuated consin," said the blish her fame. In these efforts he was to be ninety now gave in fifty; she who ture and literary company, and the good conflict of 12 hours, they were repulsed, af-