

He hopes that the Humbugdeons will take notice, and govern themselves accordingly. He does not mean to restrict them, in the use of the only weapon they have—the argument ad humbugem—they are at perfectly liberty, to serve the members of their own faction, as Doctor Dunlop served the Tiger, endeavor to blind them, by throwing snuff in their eyes; but he begs them to beware how they speak of his Country, and Government in future.—Before 'common sense,' again undertakes to reply to an Englishman, he would beg to introduce him to 'common honesty,' and if his suggestions are attended to, 'common sense' will not again mis-state the argument. He begs to inform him, that the old Lady of Ephesus, died of the dropsy, brought on by drinking too much Gin and Bitters, at the last celebration of independence; and therefore 'common sense' is wrong, in thus introducing the 'critic,' so frequently to the public. He would recommend 'John Homspun,' to confine himself to Webster's Spelling Book. His trash, was "crammed in mine ears," much against "the stomach of my sense." Homspun's 'disgust' means, that his egotism has turned sour, and if the Doctor he applied to, had given him a dose of calomel, ere this, his 'disgust' and 'patriotism' would have passed off, "Pat"—if he is a Padlander, has no business in the ranks of the Humbugdeon faction. An Englishman is well aware, that he is always ready to join in a row, and that the native generosity of his character, ever impels him to join with the weaker party. (Come out 'Pat,' from among them, or I will send Sawney after you, and bring you to a drumhead Court Martial.)

An Englishman, would beg to remind a "Canadian," of the vulgar proverb about "foul birds," commonly applied to those, who volunteer in abusing and traducing, their country or friends.—If this pretended "Canadian," was born in England, and is the author of those scandalous Editorial articles, which the 'man of Kent' alludes to; an Englishman would recommend the following quotation, to his serious consideration:—"Although the slanders and services of such men as Paine and Cobbet, may be accepted and used, they remain objects of disregard and contempt, as well with those, to whose service they have deserted, as with their countrymen whom they have abandoned. The citizens of the United States, in common with all civilized people, despise those political Jesuits, whose attempts at Fraternalization, prove, that they act upon the principles of the French Jacobins, and that they have adopted the belief, that the end sanctifies the means." An Englishman cannot conclude, without congratulating the Editor of the Herald, on the choice spirits he has in training. Under their management the Herald has been converted into a second torch of Alecto:—as if the allusion may be too classic for the Humbugdeons, and from the remarkable manner in which it spits fire, at the word, "Loyalty," he will content himself with likening it to a wet candle wick. Ernest Town, March 8th, 1830.

The Weather—From the heavy rains which have fallen during last night and this morning, the snow has almost wholly disappeared, and the ice on the Bay, and River in front of the Town begins to look very blue. The "busy note of preparation" at our wharves would indicate the near approach of the opening of the navigation.—The Steam Boat Toronto, after having undergone a thorough repair was launched yesterday in fine style.

From the Upper Canada Gazette.
At Twelve o'clock, this day, March 6, His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, being seated on the Throne in the Legislative Council Chamber, and the House of Assembly being present, His Excellency, was pleased to Prorogue the present Session with the following SPEECH:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly.
The assiduity with which the public business of this Session has been transacted, now enables me to relieve you from your Legislative duties.

Among the Bills passed, there are none which can afford more general satisfaction than those which secure the long expected remuneration for War Losses; the repair of Roads; a convenient entrance to Burlington Bay; and the completion of the Welland Canal—a work as advantageous to the conjoint interests of the Province, as it is peculiarly favorable to the Agricultural and Commercial prosperity of some of your finest Districts.

I regret that a Bill for imposing an additional duty on Shop Licenses, must be necessarily reserved for the signature of His Majesty's pleasure, the usual accounting Clause be omitted. Gentlemen of the House of Assembly.
I thank you for the supplies which you have granted for the service of the Province, and for defraying the expense incurred in carrying on several public works.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen.
We need only compare the actual state of the Province with its condition a few years since, to perceive how susceptible of rapid improvement it is, at this period, by a judicious application of the means at the command of the Legislature.
From your individual exertions also, much benefit may be expected, by promoting measures to encourage in your respective Districts, Moral and Industrious habits, the sure path to that ease and independence, which every Settler in this productive Country can obtain, by his own activity and perseverance.

From the York Advocate.
Road and Bridge Act.—Authorises the expenditure of £13,650 upon the roads and bridges, under commissioners appointed in the act. In the Home District £1,500; in the Niagara District £1,000; in the London District £1,100; in the Western District £1,100 in the Gore District £1,600; in the Newcastle District £1,110; in the Midland District £1,900; in the Johnstown District £1,100; in the Bathurst District £1,100; in the Ottawa District £800, and in the Eastern District £1,300. We understand that the monies appropriated will be immediately paid to the order of the commissioners and trust that they will be faithfully and disinterestedly applied to the purposes intended by the Legislature.

War Losses Loan Act.—Receipts in the preamble, the principle of the former bill of the same session, namely, to provide £57,412 Sterling, for the remuneration of the sufferers, provided the British Government shall pay an equal sum for the same purpose. Authorises the Receiver General to borrow £57,412, for use of the sufferers, and appropriates the duties on salt and whiskey imported from the United States, to liquidate the loan and interest.

Burlington Bay Canal Act.—Authorises the Receiver General to borrow £5,000, on the security of the tolls, and appoints William Chisholm, Alexr. Brown, John Aikman, Asahel Davis, Joshua Freeman, William Applegarth, and W. B. Sheldon, commissioners to expend the same in completing the Canal, in the manner therein provided.—Continues the present tonnage dues—authorises the commissioners to charge such tolls as they may see fit upon apples, cider, potatoes, and all other roots and vegetables, and all articles not enumerated in the table of duties. Fixes the tolls chargeable on certain articles as follows: Salt and Plaster per bbl. 6d. currency; Wheat and Peas, three farthings per bushel; Flour per barrel, 4d.; Beef, Pork, Butter, Lard, Whiskey, Bees' Wax, and Herrings, per bbl. 9d.—Do. per keg, 4d.—Oil, per bbl. 1s.—Ashes, do. 1s. 3d.—Dry Goods, per cwt. 5d.—Boards per 100 ps. 1s. 3d. Standard Staves per M. 10s. &c.

Currency Regulation Act.—Declares, that such of the silver coins of the United Kingdom, as are depreciated in weight more than one-twenty-fifth of their full weight shall not be legal money.

Repeals so much of the former laws as gave currency to French half crowns, crowns, four livre ten sol pieces; 36 sol pieces, and Spanish pistarinas and all the higher and lower denominations of these coins.

Muddy Wit.—A black servant, not a hundred miles from St. Andrew's, being examined in the Church Catechism, by the minister of the parish, was asked, "What are you made of Jack?" He said "of mud, massa." On being told he should say "of dust," he replied, "no massa, it no do, no stick togedder."

SONG.
Go, cruel hearted Traitor, go,
And leave this Heart to droop and die;
Thou canst not share the thrilling woe,
Which bids me thus in secret sigh.
The wrongs which thou hast heap'd on me
This Heart, be sure, can ne'er forget;
And though no more beloved by thee,
Thy falsehood I must still regret.
Yet, never think this wither'd Heart,
Can e'er forgive thy broken vow;
Though all unworthy as thou art,
I never lov'd thee more than now.
IAN THE.

DIED.—At Belleville on Tuesday last, Mr. Peter Holmes, aged 63.
On Monday last, William Hallowell Bethune, eldest son of the Rev. John Bethune, Rector of Christ Church, Montreal, aged 12 years.

PROSPECTUS.

It is somewhat a matter of surprise, that the District of Newcastle, which, in every other respect, has not a superior in the Province of Upper Canada, whether we regard the internal improvement of its country, or the highly intellectual character of its inhabitants, should yet be deficient in one most obvious means of its advancement; viz. A respectable and independent Newspaper, through which to convey to the surrounding Districts a just idea of its relative importance.

To supply this defect, and thereby to afford an enlightened people the power of asserting and maintaining their true position in the moral and political world is the object of a person who now, for the first time, presents himself before the public.

In accordance with this purpose, he proposes, as soon as a sufficient number of Subscribers shall have appeared to sanction the undertaking, to issue weekly in the village of Cobourg, a Paper of the above description—aiming to be truly Independent and Respectable—alike free from the animosity of party spirit, and the licentiousness of personal animadversion.

Attached, by birth and education, to the Institutions of Great Britain, it will ever be his study to support them, as the means of that distinguished pre-eminence, which has so long constituted her the envy and admiration of the world. Thus, in principle, the character of

THE NEWCASTLE PIONEER will be found to be unequivocally and decidedly English; an avowal, which its Projector confidently anticipates will ensure it the general support of the Province.
In arrangement, the new Paper is intended, as nearly as possible, to resemble that of the two published in New York, called the Albion, and the Atlas, both of which are so well known and justly admired, that any dilution on their respective merits would be more than superfluous.

The Terms, will be the same as the other papers in the Province,—One pound per Annum, exclusive of postage, and payable half-yearly in advance.—A stipulation that it is hoped will be strictly complied with, as otherwise the permanency of the establishment cannot possibly be secured.

In conclusion, the Writer might urge some claim to the particular attention of the Newcastle community, from the circumstance of his having been the first to introduce a Printing Press within their District, but he trusts the advantages of the proposed undertaking are in themselves sufficiently apparent, to render it independent of any such suggestion; and, with great respect, he remains
*The Public's most obedient,
and very humble Servant,
R. D. CHATTERTON.
Cobourg, March 4, 1830.*
