

That huge Leviathan, "The Lower Canada Watchman," this week occupies the space usually devoted to POINTS IN HISTORY.

This week we have again to regret the non-arrival of the Albion, when our paper went to press.

We learn from these communications that the Prussians have entered Belgium in great force, headed by Prince Albert.

We must, in common with the Editor of the Commercial Advertiser, regret, that his English papers had not all come regularly to hand.

Spain is still in a state of ferment, although no overt act of insurrection can be said to have taken place.

In Portugal matters still remain as before—it is however surmised that Don Miguel anticipates expulsion.

The most important intelligence in our opinion, if true, is that the Emperor of Russia, on hearing of the Revolution in the Netherlands, has refused to recognise the King of the French.

The English Parliament will have assembled before we again appear before our readers.

We are without any additional intelligence from Brussels.

The King of Holland has received real assistance from Berlin, in the shape of both money and men.

The Belgian Provisional Government has refused to allow even Belgians from abroad to enter that country.

The proceedings of the Brussels Provisional Government are far from wearing the appearance of an intended submission.

Spain.—A decree was issued declaring all persons concerned in plans for the establishment of another form of Government, to be subject to the penalty of death.

The Gazette of Hanover denies officially what has been stated in the German papers, that the public tranquility has been disturbed.

Great Britain.—Ministers have been in active communication the whole morning.

The Morning Herald says—"A good deal of surprise has been expressed at Sir George Murray's removal from the Colonial Department, which, coupled with the previous transfer of Sir Henry Hardinge from the War Office, looks as if the premier had taken the hint so often given him, that his Administration had partaken rather too much of the character of a military government."

Further despatches have been received at the Foreign Office this morning from Paris and the Hague.

At a Meeting of the President and Directors of the Midland District Agricultural Society, held yesterday at Mr. Davy's Inn at Bath, which was well attended, a statement was submitted from the Treasurer showing that the sum of fifty one pounds fifteen shillings had been actually paid into his hands by the Members of the Institution.

After the transaction of some other business the meeting broke up and several Members of the Society sat down to a dinner prepared by Mr. Davy, at which the greatest hilarity and good feeling prevailed.

We entertain very sanguine hopes of the successful progress of the Society, and of the benefits it will be the means of conferring on our Community.

THE ARMY. It is confidently reported in the best informed military circles, that the object in calling for a statement of the services and record of other particulars, from every officer in his Majesty's service, by the late experienced Secretary at War, Maj. Gen. Sir H. Hardinge, is to extend the advantages of the Warrant for regulating the pay, half pay, and retirement of Staff and Garrison Officers, dated 29th and 30th July, 1830, to the army at large; and the rates of full and half pay will be regulated by a schedule proportioned to the length of service in a similar ratio—as there is scarcely a corps in the service affording instances of the promotion of Officers without purchase, equal to the gracious provision promulgated in the warrant. It is also expected that the Lieutenants who were actually serving on full pay in 1811, and the Captains holding their regimental rank with superior Brevet rank in the army, of the year 1808, who did not accept the boon of promotion offered to them, will have their vacancies filled up by an equal number from the Seniors of their respective ranks, which would give unattached promotion to nearly all the newly created Brevet Majors, (as those of the Artillery, Engineers and Marines might not accept it) the average age and service, of those who have obtained their several promotions without purchase, is, age 50 years, and service 32 years, supposing them to have served two years as ensign, 8 as lieutenant, and 22 as Captain—and the Lieutenants of 1812, by this calculation, would average 39 years of age, and 21 of service. Limerick Chronicle.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS. We have received a Poem signed Henry Bell—we have some recollection of having seen it—or some portion of it before, but we may be mistaken; if, as it is stated to be, this can be the first attempt of the writer, he must prove ere long, one of the first poets of the day—sure we are, there is no person on these Cis-Atlantic shores who will be able to cope with him.

THE Partnership heretofore carried on by Samuel T. Hudson, and George Cliff, in Marysburgh, in the County of Prince Edward, and province of Upper Canada, is dissolved by mutual consent. W's review of the "Game of Life" is received.

In consequence of the vast space, occupied by the 12th number of Lower Canada Watchman,

Which, like some earth-born Giant, spreads His thiristy arms over our ample pages, and monopolizes no less than 12 columns, we are this week obliged to defer the continuation of the Points in History, as also, The Review and H. Bell's Poem. However we are enabled to promise our readers a splendid number next week, when all our omitted original articles shall appear. We hope this will satisfy our correspondents.

The Paper Maker's Coffin has been received—and we feel no inclination to commit it to the tomb of our Balaam Box.

J. G. is thanked for his "Recollection of my Native Land," and also for his frank avowal; which was unnecessary, for most decidedly, we should not hesitate one moment, to consider his communications as original matter, and of the highest order.

The Poetry sent from "The Black Bucht," shall receive immediate attention. Wait of room alone prevents its insertion to-day.

The same apology will we hope satisfy "The Rover," for the non-insertion of the Song, to the air of "The Girl I left behind me."

Will John Christie let us know where a line will find him?

MOST VALUABLE PROPERTY for sale.—Mr. Smith Bartlett being desirous of closing his concerns in Canada, has resolved to offer for sale the whole of his valuable property, which if not shortly disposed of by private, will be offered at public sale, of which due notice will be given. The property consists of those well known premises in Front Street, now in the occupation of Mr. Bruce: consisting of a large and well finished two story stone house, a stone store house about 70 feet in length by 30 in breadth, two and a half stories with a brick front, being a convenient Merchants Shop and a Store with space for offices. The cellars under the whole of the buildings are the best in town, and will stow more than a thousand barrels. There is a commodious frame warehouse on the dock which extends 70 feet, and the yard is closed to be safe for the storage of property. This property is especially well adapted for an extensive forwarder and commission merchant. The Brick House in the country one mile from Kingston late the residence of Mr. Bartlett, together with about 90 acres of fine land. This, whether considered as a farm or as a residence for a genteel family, or both, is a most beautiful and valuable property. A Tract of Land situated about five miles above Brockville, fronting on the St. Lawrence 400 acres in width, being lots 36, and 37, in the 1st, 2d and 3d Concessions of Elizabethtown, 1227 acres, known by the name of the Jessup Tract. The soil is of a superior quality, and on it is a good mill seat, with a constant supply of water, where a dam could be erected at a very small expence. A Farm adjoining the Village of Bath, consisting of 225 acres with a good Farm House, Barn, and Orchard, 100 acres under improvement, and thirty acres of the finest Bever meadow. The whole farm is a soil of the finest quality. A Lot containing 100 acres, half of which is cleared, with a log house upon it, four miles from Kingston on the York road. The quality of the soil is excellent and the lot contains a sufficiency of pine timber for the purposes of building, also abundance of lime stone with conveniences, and wood for burning it, and a never failing spring of limpid water close to the house. A Lot at floating-bridge Bay, containing 200 acres and a broken front estimated to contain about 70 acres. This is situated eleven miles from Kingston on the York road and seven miles from Bath and is altogether a desirable property. There is fire wood enough upon the Lot to pay the first cost of the land as it can be transported to Kingston by water when the navigation is open, and upon the ice when it is closed. Kingston, August 10th, 1830. Further particulars concerning any or all the above lots can be had by application at the Patriot Office.
