

SONG.—AIR, "Johnny Cope."
Hey Bonaparte your race is run, Thy banners are struck & the battle is won:
The sun of your glory has now gone down, Never more to rise in the morning.
So rapid was your flight from Waterloo, Stunned at British courage, which you never could subdue:
The battle was lost—off to Paris you flew,
To proclaim thy disgrace in the morning.
Hey Bonaparte, &c.
Napoleon! as you're crossing the main, You'll think of your crimes, and the blood of the slain—
Tho' thy heart were as flint, you'll languish in pain,
Then vanish like mist in the morning.
Hey Bonaparte, &c.
Now, Bonaparte, as you leave Europe's shores,
The sea-birds will scream, and the ocean loud roar—
The mermaid will lure you far from the shore,
And you'll die in St. Helena in the morning.
Hey Bonaparte, &c.
MUNGO PARK.

AN INDIAN'S PRAYER.
An Indian, who was overtaken by a tremendous storm some distance from land, in his canoe, thus invoked the Great Spirit: 'O goodly God, jis let poor Injun get on shore agin and he never ask no more favors!'
Two drovers meeting on the road each having a flock of sheep, one said to the other, 'Give me one of your sheep, and I'll have as many as you'll have.'—'No,' said the other, 'give me one of yours, and I'll have twice as many as you'll have.' Quere. What was the number of each flock?—Answer. Five and Seven.

LAUGHABLE BLUNDER.
Affairs, more particularly of the heart, make up always a good many pages in the history of early life. I took it into my head that a little girl who lived in the neighbourhood, was absolutely, and to all intents and purposes—an angel—that she had no equal in the world—was the most beautiful, bewitching, elegant, ethereal-minded being that ever was sent below the clouds—I was sincere and confident in this—I took every opportunity of seeing her, and if by dint of courage and ingenuity I succeeded it afforded me a week's happiness—these were all necessarily, Sunday occasions, when people look as pretty as possible.
At last an extra opportunity of seeing the fair creature occurred—I was to go over to the farm on an errand.—An ambassador on his first introduction to the presence of a sovereign, could not have made a greater display of his wardrobe than I did of mine—every hair was exactly adjusted—my hat put carefully on—a pair of clean shoes under my arm which were to be carried to the farmers bar—and in short, I went as every lovesick blockhead goes the first time to see his mistress, most particularly fine, and feeling most particularly foolish.

I gained the awful bars that brought me in view of the more awful presence of my angel—stuck my old shoes carefully under a log—put on my new ones, and went forward after having practised a bow or two. Walking leisurely down the lane as near the fence as possible, I met a drove of cows, and a girl dressed in a dirty linsey frock, bare foot, and with her mouth and bosom besmeared with mush and molasses, driving them forward with sticks and stones—I met the company—heavens! the driver was my Sunday flame—and what an angel!
I threw my hat down in the road, rumpled my hair, stuck both my shoes in the mud, and thought that I was going crazy. I was never afterwards a very enthusiastic lover.

PRETTY GOOD.—'What do you pic up dere, Sambo?' 'Dollar, Pompey.'
'Well jest lef' em down again; I only put 'em dere to try you.'

BUMPER.—When the English were good Catholics, they usually drank the Pope's health in a full glass every day after dinner—au bon pere; whence the word bumper.

JOHN BOOTH, MERCHANT

experienced at his former stand, and now solicits a continuance of that support, with the assurance that his utmost efforts will be used for the satisfaction

SALT RHEUM.—This inveterate disease, which has long baffled the art of the most experienced physicians, has, at length, found a sovereign remedy in Dr. La Grange's genuine ointment. Few cutaneous diseases are met with more resistance by the physician, & none in which he is so universally unsuccessful. This ointment has stood the test of experience, and justly obtained an unparalleled celebrity. It immediately removes the scabs, gives a healthy action to the vessels of the skin, and its original colour and smoothness. Numerous recommendations might be obtained of its superior efficacy, but the proprietor chose that a fair trial should be its only commentator. It has three or four weeks cured cases of fifteen and twenty years' standing, that had resisted the power of every remedy that was tried. It not only at once gives immobility to the disease, but it also cures Capitis, commonly called Scald Head, and all scabby eruptions peculiar to unhealthy children.
There is nothing of a mercurial nature contained in it, and it may be used on infants or others under any circumstances whatever.

compiled by British Authors only.
A copy of Mavor's spelling-book may be obtained by each master whose certificates have passed the board, on application to Dr. Hubbell.
THAT the compliance of the schoolmasters is desired with a former regulation enjoining the use of prayers at the commencement of school in the morning, and at its close in the evening.
A form adapted to general use, may be found in Mavor's spelling-book, and is recommended for this purpose by the board.
