TO THE MAGISTRATES OF THE MIDLAND DISTRICT IN QUARTER SESSIONS ASSEMBLED.

The committee who have been directed by the Sessions to examine into the District Accounts for the last year beg leave to

REPORT,

That the Treasurer has complied with the first and second Articles of the order in Session dated in January 1831, and has brought forward the Balance as due to him £157 17s. 11½d as per statement marked A, in the General Report dated 30th April, 1830 instead of the Balance of £264 2s. 9¼ as per Treasurer's account rendered in April 1831.

The Treasurer has not furnished the Books agreeably to the directions contained in the order of sessions dated January, 1831. the 3d Article;—no list of non-residents, as mentioned in the 4th Article of the said order, has been laid before the Committee; nor are the Accounts for the passed year, made out agreeably to the forms marked C. D. E. in the General Report dated 30th April 1830, and directed to be used in future by the order of Sessions dated January 1831.

The Treasurer's account from April 1830 to April 1831, appears to be correct and regular, Vouchers have been produced for all, the disbursements except three, viz,

N. B. These are now returned by the Treasurer.

The balance due to the Treasurer appears to be £171 11s. 6¾.

There appears from a careful examination of the several Assessment Lists, the general Report dated 30th April, 1830, and the Treasurer's account of monies received, that, there was due, a few days since, from the several Collectors, as per List herewith the sum of £1786 17s. 11½; a great part of which however, (particularly from the Townships in the County of Prince Edward) the Treasurer has stated to the Committee, has been paid in, since he closed the Account now before the Committee.

The Committee have examined, and recommend for payment, sundry claims for services &c. amounting to the sum of £656 0 9½ as per list herewith.

The Committee beg to state to the Court, that there have been submitted to them, a great number of claims for services of Constables, &c. some of which, the Committee have deemed it a duty to reject:—and the Committee beg leave to suggest that specific Instruction should be issued to the Constables, that they might be well acquainted, to whom they are to look for payment; that, neither may demands be made on the District but under the most particular circumstances; or the Constables lose their proper remuneration, for want of the necessary information.

Anxious enquiries have been made, respecting the detail of the sale of wild lands, and the appropriation of the monies received, to which the Committee have been unable to give satisfactory replies, and therefore, beg leave to recommend, that the subject of the sale of wild lands, and distribution of the proceeds, be referred to a Committee, who may report for the public information.

The Committee have taken the case of William Griffiths, crier of the Court at Adolphustown into their consideration, and having found, that he has faithfully served for a period of thirty years, and is now worn out, recommend that the sum of Ten Pounds be paid to him, and that he be allowed to retire.

The Committee, have taken the subject of expending a sum of money, in the repair of the Court House at Adolphustown, into consideration, and are of opinion that in the present state of the finances of the District, and of doubt where the Court will in future be held, it would not be prudent, to incur an expense which may prove of no benefit to the District.

The report of the Committee appointed to examine the Accounts of the Gaol and the Court House, is annexed hereunto, and the Committee recommend that the Contractors be called on to refund the amount which by some extraordinary mistake has been overpaid to them.

The Treasurer has just handed to the Committee, an account of monies received since the opening of the Sessions, amounting to £630 6s 11¼ and which is herewith submitted to the Court.

S. YARWOOD, J.P. Chairman.

Committee Room, Court House, Kingston, 20th April, 1831.

TO THE MAGISTRATES OF THE MIDLAND DISTRICT IN QUARTER SESSIONS ASSEMBLED.

The Committee to whom was referred the accounts, &c. of the Gaol and Court House, beg leave to

REPORT,

That they have diligently examined the Vouchers of the Secretary of the Committee, and find that the sum of Nine Thousand, Three Hundred and Twenty-two pounds, fifteen shillings, and seven pence three farthings, has been expended in erecting and furnishing the said building, as will be seen on referring to the statement which accompanies this Report. Of this sum, seven thousand two hundred and seventy three pounds six shillings and ninepence half-penny, have been paid to the contractors being being one hundred and seventy-four pounds seven shillings and eight pence half-penny over the sums awarded by the Arbitrators and allowed by the committee.

The Committee have also examined the statement of monies paid by the Treasurer on account of the Gaol and Court House, by which it appears that he has disbursed the sum of seventeen hundred and sixty pounds sixteen shillings and eight pence half-penny, fifteen hundred and thirty-two pounds, fifteen shillings and eight pence, being towards the liquidation of the principal and interest of the District debt, and the residue for sundry services performed, and the payment thereforauthorised by the building committee.

All which is respectfully submitted,

H. C. THOMSON, Chairman.

Committee Room, April 18th, 1831.

Ameliasburgh, 1830. April, 1831.

JUGGLING.

In a little village up country, lived one Nat Davis, better known by the appellation of "Jumping Nat," for he often declared he could out-jump, out-hop, out-run, out-wrestle, and out-crack-a-whip any man in the District, and lick the best feller within ten miles square." Nat was one morning sunning himself in front of the Village Hotel, and, as usual, soon attracted a comfortable audience, eager in the hope that he would amuse them with a sample of slight-o'hand tricks, sometimes Black art, in which business he was more celebrated about his little neighborhood than ever was the renowned Bagdad Magician. "Now," says Nat, "I'll bet a silver dollar that I can blow this sixpedce (exhibiting it to the bystanders) into Sam Jones' boot, clean over t'other side of the road." "Well I'll bet you," exclaimed a Johnny Raw, and the money was immediately put "up." Nat commenced operations by sundry distortions of the face, and crossings of the forehead, and giving a hearty blow with his mouth, signified that the work was accomplished." "Halloo Sam," said Nat, "here Sam Jones, jist come over here, will you." Sam apparently hesitated to wade through the mud, for his particular accommodation, but finally started, and when arrived, was asked by Nat "if he would just pull his left boot off." "Pull off my boot," says Sam, "I rather guess I shant do that by gosh, for any body." But the reason for so strange a request having been explained by the company, Sam consented, and to the utter consternation of the astonished group, the sixpence was found in the bottom of the boot. Nat now pocketed the dollar, but as Sam went snacks in the affair, he of course was entitled to half the proceeds, as the sixpence had been placed a short time before, and the whole matter arranged between them.

After an exulting grin, says Nat "why that are now is jist nothing at all for me—if any on you is a mind to bet me two dollars that I cant melt lead in my mouth, let them come on and I'll plank the pewter." For a moment a stillness ensued, and all eyes were gaping at Nat, when he inquired "where that darned spunky feller was that bet afore;" he concluding that a bird in the hand was worth two in the bush, had backed out, but the crowd by this time was much enlarged, and directly a six footer walked up and covered the two dollars.

This was rare sport for the company. Every thing having been prepared for the curious feat, Nat took from his trowsers pocket a handful of small shot, under which he had dexterously placed a little bunch of lead, about the size of a pistol ball, in rather an oblique shape, and the whole mass he put in his mouth, commencing with the necessary grimaces of the countenance, &c. In a moment he opened his mouth and out dropped the little piece of lead, apparently just melted, he having swallowed the shot. The assembly were amazed, and the credulous and incredulous, with eyes staring like saucers, were wondering how the duce he did it.—A part of them concluded that he must be leagued with old Nick himself, and all agreed that he must be at least a trifle related.—Nat could hold no longer, but burst out into an immoderate roar of laughter, and offered to bet $10 that he could swallow a grindstone without choking, but none would bet, and Nat strided into the bar room, called loudly for a Gin Cock tail, and cracking his whip to the tune of Yan-

Schuyler's Lottery Herald.
