KINGSTON

Seventeen Shillings and Sixpence per Annum:

VOL. 13.-NO. 4.

if sent by Mail Twenty Shillings.

HRONICLE.

Published every Saturday, by James Macfarlane, at his Office in Front-street, Kingston, U. C.

SATURDAY, JULY 23, 1831.

To the Editor of the Kingston Chronicle.

their own party views and designs : that favor. When one election has been purthey will, their protestations to the contrary | chased in this way, it will soon become a notwithstanding, court the favour of such practice for Candidates to get their nomitheir creed to bear upon the objects of secure the influence of Catholic voters:public or private ambition or faction; And when rival candidates seek his favor, prevent the complicated mischiefs that which the patronage and influence of the would naturally grow out of such a state general government can render to Poperyof things, and to lay seasonable restraints When this comes to pass, Popery will beupon that source of influence in the cause | come the fashionable religion of our Politiof faction, is, for the civil state to take cians. * We believe that the under its own direction, and to engross to greatest danger of a union of Church and itself that which, in the hands of demagogues | State, in this country arises from the dispoown existence. In the very nature of with sectarian leaders." things, government has an indefeasible right to the means of public influence, the same I say : LET THE GOVERNMENT AND PEOas the head of a family has in his own PLE of UPPER CANADA READ IN THIS A house, and to the entire possession of all LESSON OF INSTRUCTION. How many into whatsoever they please. The government is sole proprietor of the public soil the sole disposer of it to individuals-the republic, when it is to be taught, and imsole power that secures them in its posses- pressed, and enforced, both in private and sion and enjoyment, because it would be in public, at election meetings and at elecdangerous to the civil state for individuals tions, both to Electors and Candidates ?public authority, as the history of the Ba- of the courses of instruction in our risiPg rons of England before the Crown sucnational Academy? Why not? It is to been brought against its members at all derous spirit that have ever marked the ceeded in reducing them to the proper conbe our national faith, and of course it must seasons, and that they have contributed, in operations of the Holy Court of the Aposdoctrine is true of all the sources, causes, Under the new order of things, a man canof the state, that the state may not only people as expressed in the dictates of their and were chiefly directed against their ava- "wolves" on the work of desolation and use them in self-defence and self-preserva- " sectarian leaders;" and therefore, to act riciomsness. This was the source of all death. Blood has marked her path whergood government of its subjects. That government which does not possess resources and strength superior to all the internal factions which may assault it, is in no very enviable condition. Now there is nothing being accepted and acted upon if made .- society by a number of princes." This Goa for the conversion of the Christians of within the range of human power so potent We Canadians, at least many of us, well language being uttered by the mouth of St. Thomas, who never before had heard in its operation on human creatures as religion. But in making this assertion I rican politics and politicians. A slight therefore, on this occasion, use it with the this moment she is securely and unmolestmust not omit the important fact, that men reading of their political Journals for ten greater freedom. But since the successor edly achieving the conquest of the United Catholics with it, and no doubt with rea- their menials. are more divided on that subject than on years past is enough to convince any man any other; and that there are falsifications of common observation, that the aspirants of Transubstantiation, our virtue and vice, derstand their business to perfection, as no of religious excitements is kept up by the the principles of the general government, of religious truth, in which are mingled after place and power in the land of Jonadetached portions of it, which only serve than are as unscrupulous in regard to the to convert them one into the other as may better calculated for proselytism. They the day at elections; and certainly the as- ed to prevent the transport of mails on to give them currency and mischievous means of obtaining them as any people in efficiency; which falsifications, while they the world. They care not what the ladder freely allow the predominance of some evil is, nor who holds it for them, provided they Pius the Seventh, in the year 1815, restor- sectarians render themselves conspicuously cause of surprise if they should feel them- vent those from receiving letters and papruling passion, urge on to a blind and infa- can ascend it. We well know the political ed these wolves that had reigned their day ridiculous; and so, to know the extent of selves called upon as a religious body to ers on Sunday who might wish it. tuated zeal in the pursuit of a darling game that was played on the chess-board and lad been driven out like dogs, and re- their success with certainty requires some have recourse to political influence and The country is composed of powerful object; and that object is generally the of anti-masonry, and how the respective novered them like eagles, in fulfilment of examination. At the same time it must be power in order to meet another religious factions in violent enmity against predominance and supremacy of its own parties of Adamites and Jacksonians sought | the prophecy above recited,—and transmb- remembered that the See of Rome has ne- body on equal ground who have resort to each other, and straining every nerve to sect. We see this now before our eyes in to turn the Morgan business to their politithe case of the Ryerson faction : we see it | cal advantage. And in particular, the cha- not only into a very harmless, but a very one iota of her enormous and shocking dy done that which is equally inconsistent of them guilty of gross dishonesty in furstrikingly in the conduct of the Presbyte- racter of the late Secretary, and of the useful race of beings, even "the common claims at various times set up. She is in- with their professed abhorrence of Church thering their own party interests. One rians of the United States detailed in my President, and in short the disgraceful bulwerk of every kind of authority !" Whe- fallible, and that settles all cavils; for to and State, in regard to the outery raised faction draws its support principally from last letter-I mean their deceiving and scenes lately acted at Washington amply ther or not his Holiness has authorised the acknowledge a fault would be to pierce her against Sunday mails, and their interfer- foreign countries, and it is under the maswindling "other denominations" out of justify the belief that they would not scrutheir influence and money and labor for a ple to bribe St. Peter and buy over his subnumber of years for their ewn exclusive jects now residing in the United States .benefit; and I shall in this letter shew you Also; the atheistic character of the Constianother remarkable instance of the same intion is highly favorable to such iniquitous fear, were I to recommend them, that I body into dust. She retains to the full the set one man's creed before another, it ve- men, the Protestant of June 4th remarks: better than so much bypocrisy, and entit- croachments of any ambitious sect. The tinction who effected the Reformation in dons of the conquering usurper, and sought and State, and yet no one has raised the is the very idea advanced by the ex-Bishop led to the same credit for sincerity that we heretical doctrine of allegiance also which England, and established the Government refuge on board the fleet of a Heretical king cry of persecution and priestcraft against Pradt in his admirable volume on Jesuitkeeping the public peace, are only subju- factions to serve political purposes. gating their neighbours. If they speak the far as possible, and enlisted under the law- horse, and to kiss his great toe in token of tish Lion couchant, whose eye can trace state to interfere with the creif of indiviful banners of the state, for the good of the abject vassalage; that he absolved subjects them in their flight, and the thunder of duals. The state can bring, therefore, no individual who resident the authority of the particular his most clean hands. This will produce whole political family.

excursion to the land of Jonathan,—that transferred them to others; and that none gles, and have spread themselves not only birth place and another of liberty and control of liberty a birth-place and cradle of liberty and equal of these amazing powers have ever been over Europe, but America. By a return as such a measure would most liberty and equal of these amazing powers have ever been over Europe, but America. By a return as such a measure would most liberty and religious where the first and religious where the rights, civil and religious, where our nation- surrendered by his Holiness, nor can be laid before the British House of Com- followed by insurrection and bloodshed. al Watchman informs us that Papist, Pro- surrendered on account of his infallibility. testant, Deist, Hindoo, Musselman and He must, therefore regard the diminution these "wolves" in England and Wales, creed, of which there are many would re-Jew are all a band of brothers in the faith, of his power as effected only by rebellion and 58 in Ireland; making a total of 176. sist measures calculated to interfere with and that their religion is rendered incorrup- against himself; and what is the cause of Their occupation we may divine from their traffick at the Roman market, -meatible by the "worldly lurch" of "State wonder if be should now seek to gain in our knowledge of themselves. How sures which would prevent the buying mates of a penitentiary? The doctrine and Church," in consequence of the Athe- the new world a part of what he has lost istic character of the general government. in the old? If he should purchase the States is impossible to conjecture; and see the want of a previously established Perhaps we may stumble upon something United States of America, and add them if there should be an enquiry instituted, faith, which, occupying the ground beforeto strengthen our position in regard to the to the imperial crown, he would only be they would in all probability conceal their hand, and holding for the government its necessity of a national religion for the pre- laying up his own property. Hence I numbers. But this is certain; they are indefeasible right to public influence and servation of public liberty and peace; bear- conclude that there is not only nothing to at this moment fortifying themselves in e- patronage on the exclusive system, could ing in mind, that rational freedom consists hinder his Holiness from trading with the very corner of the United States, and exin the greatest attainable degree of public political stockjobbers of the United States, pending money in as great profusion as if country from this Jesuitical invitation. Such pending money in as great profusion as if country from this Jesuitical invitation and policy and has considered the country from this Jesuitical invitation. and private prosperity, in connection with but every thing to induce him to enter heart they grew it in the earth like potatoes.— a remedy cannot now be applied. In the chaplain, and supplying his place on the the means of producing the greatest at- and soul into such a speculation. tainable degree of public and private virtue. York, of June 4, 1831, gives the following Holy Order of the Jesuits, those most de- but a few months bygone the Austrian generally abhor the only thing which, were most singular and interesting paragraph from the Vermont Chronicle. State addressed a letter, through our Consul at Rome, to the late Pope, assuring him | concerning them : of the protection of his subjects residing in the United States in all their civil and religious rights. His political opponents say, 'that the letter was an artful appeal from In plain English: "We entered as lambsthe Secretary to the Pope, with the view of enlisting the influence of the latter on the consciences of the Roman Catholic Church, in support of his own or General Jackson's borne testimony to the close fidelity of this Administration, with assurances of special prophetic distich. The game of hypocrisy kindness towards them on the part of Go- and crime has never been so ably, so deep- emigrate to America, who gather about Their fanatical revival system is banishing States, on a charge of exciting the Chero. service.

not Egerton laid down this system of traffic as the foundation of his contemplated reliction of principle.

from their allegiance to their lawful sove- whose voice may keep them at bay.

what into the history and character of the and convents under their controul; and many already loudly complain voted servants of the See of Rome, and the Consul purchased and paid for an expensive it in operation, could save them. The Je- state Governors in that country enforce results upon the people suits well know this, and they a party without the least respect paid to the rights "It is said that the Secretary of the October 10, 1572, F. Borgia the General of the Order, left this dying declaration bulwarks to every kind of authority" expend. is growing up which enforces

"Intravimus ut agni,---regnavimus ut lupi---"Expellemur ut canes, --- renovabimur ut aquilæ."

vernment, provided the overture was ly, so profoundly, so successfully, so fatally the towns and form stations for their ope- true religion from their own ranks, and in kee Indians to resistance against the Unitaccepted.' We wish to call attention to played as by those wolves in sheep's cloth- rations, and commence the trade of poli- the same degree preparing the soil for the ed States Government, and that two more (27.) MR. CHRONICLE-I am labouring the fact, that the possibility of influencing ing. There was no art of dissimulation ticians in the cause of his Holiness. In reception of popish superstition when the in the service of the American (National) in the field of public duty to convince your our elections by the assistance of the Pope but they perfectly understood; no mask New-York city there are said to be 45,000 fire of fanatacism cools down. One ex- Board of Missions, "have each received readers, that men of ambitious minds will is seen and acknowledged by our political but they knew to put on at pleasure; no make religion a stalking horse for political managers. The next step is, for some Can- proteau form but their dexterity could as- the following extract: "We have re- -so the Jesuits now find success in those That some of them are guilty is probable, purposes, and by means of it seek to effect | didate for the Presidency to purchase his sume; and no enterprise but they had the ceived a most important volume entitled | districts where those fevers have subsider how the Government has sects as they find convenient, and bring nation approved of at Rome, in order to were; they spread themselves over the Belgic commotions. It contains a mass face of the whole earth; they insinuated of the most important facts, which we prothemselves, like the frogs of Nile, into the pose to translate for our friends-the foland that, therefore, the only decent way to he maybargain with them for any assistance kneading troughs and the ovens-into the lowing may serve as a specimen :confidence of the employment of all mankind; they kept the consciences and the purses of the rich, and were the confessors and counsellors of princes and great men; and they engrossed the education of the of being master every where. The Roman youth wherever they obtained a footing .-But their "reign as wolves" met with sad Ireland, are most devoted slaves of the Pope. might prove dangerous and ruinous to its sition of political aspirants, to bargain this reverses, and they were literally "expelled They are extremely vigorous, and in due vernment was of so peculiar a temper as not the Church, because the Church would as dogs" from the various countries of Eu-Fas est et ab hoste doceri; and therefore rope as the most pestilent wretches that ever the United States as those of Ireland have things which in Europe would attract the their conduct is charged on the system or afflicted mankind. They had served the disturbed the English Government, and as notice of government; and they cautiously bodies under which they act. It involves papal cause and upheld the papal power for a long period; but even the Pope himthose efficient causes which work such election bargains have been made in this self at last found it necessary to defend himwonders among mankind, and mould them | Province with "sectarian leaders?" Has | self against them; and on August the 25th, 1773, Clement the Fourteenth formally abolished the order. "It is notorious, (says he, in assuming a reason for so doing) that the germ of discord and rebellion against in America, and the entire subjugation of falsehood can be regarded with the slight- "address to the Jury" I shall postpone, or those princes who have received them into their states, has in every way been nurtured Rome. We know the boundless ambition | columns has heard subjects of the United to acquire and hold lands without limit by And who can doubt that it is to form ape by the Society of Jesus from its very infan- and the States Government boast of it as a privi- America declares itself neutral on all quescy; that the heaviest accusations have proof and hypocrisy, and the bloody murbeen brought against its members at all derous spirit that have ever marked the gardless of the fear of man. dition of subjects amply proves. The same be the very basis of national instruction, no slight degree, to disturb the peace and tolic see wherever she has been permitted Protestant sect will enlist itself in politicks Legislative and Executive. tranquility of Christendom. At the close to act herself. Wherever she has had sufand means of public or extensive influence not be fitted to hold any public station and of the sixteenth century the accusations ficient influence she has erected her racks, allibrity men: they ought to the the property less the is propered to do the will of the against them became louder, and beated her evens, and sent was they tion, but turn them to the well-being and the defaulter in a point of such vast im- those storms and disorders with which every ever she has freely moved; and the portance would be a most abominable de- one is familiar; they were the occasion of grouns not only of Europe have told of the butterest pangs and deepest sorrow to her deeds of cruelty, but the half of Ame-But let us examine the probability of such the apostolical chair, and called forth the rica also, and even India, where her faithan offer being made to St. Peter, and of it proceedings which were had against the ful Portuguese erected an Inquisition at know the unprincipled character of Ame- infallibility, can admit of no dispute, and I of her corruptions and her crimes. At of St. Peter is thought to possess the power States. Her Emissaries and Agents un- son. It is believed too, that the system good and evil, and to be able reciprocally men are better versed in human nature, or Presbyterians with a view to their carrying with a political question, -and endeavourbest suit and serve his apostolic views and perform their work without that silly boast- pect of the times is by no means unfavora- Sunday, on the ground that the state ought interests. Clement's infallible successor, ing in the public prints for which various ble to such a supposition. There is no to interfere in matters of religion, and prestantated the gang of seducers and traitors ver recanted of her doctrines, nor abated the same means. Indeed they have alrea- gain the numerical ascendency, and some Kingston Catholic to recommend, in the own heart with a poisoned arrow. She once with the general government to have nagement of a combination of men who. worde just quoted, these renovated "wolves" cannot change, because she is unchangea- them stopped. The government acted on for centuries, have been universally exeto the good opinion and confidence of our ble; and therefore the burthen of her ini- that subject in perfect consistency; for, crated and feared as the most dreadful pests Canadian people I know not; but I should quities must accumulate till they crush her acknowledging no religious obligation to that ever infested human society. Of these kind, now in most active progress in proceedings. It imposes no manner of should be suspected of endeavouring to amount of all her former claims: she looks ry properly refused to wound the conscient and amount of all her former claims: she looks ry properly refused to wound the conscient and amount of all her former claims: It is also to be remarked, check on the disposition to traffic in foreign bring them into notice and influence with back on the sunny centuries of her flowing ces of Jews, seventh-day-baptists and in- crease in the same proportion for the next that I regard the ostensible professions of influence through the medium of the reli- a view to distracting the country and inrespect from one sect to another, and the gion of persons resident in the country; for volving it in difficulty. And seeing on the have cast their crowns at her feet and begthe tights and dictates of acknowledging no system of faith, it is other hand that this pious Catholic has ged them returned on the terms of vassalone another's consciences and the religious bound to protect none, and has abjured taken some pains to persualle the people of ange : she cellisto mind the diale hate when liberties inherent in each sect, as little the right of self-defence against the en- the country that all the men without dis- St. Peter fled for refuge from the myrmiusually give to the professions of those am- has been adopted by the Americans, is fa- of Great Britain on a secure foundation, -and wounded and humbled pride and the bitious potentates who, under pretence of vorable to the ambitions use of religious were even worse than his Holiness Clement spirit of revenge goad her on to the conthe Fourteenth declared the Jesuits to be, quest of a new world to repair her losses As to the probability of such an offer whom he is recommending to our kind in the old, and perhaps lead her back to truth why do they proselyte? If they hold being accepted by the Holy St. Peter, his consideration ;--- I should think that com- her old patrimony. But whenever her dothe rights and dictates of men's consciences character has been too well established for mon prudence would advise him to be minion is fixed, thence must rights and dictates of men's consciences character has been too well established for mon prudence would advise him to be minion is fixed, thence must rights and dictates of men's consciences character has been too well established for mon prudence would advise him to be minion is fixed, thence must rights and dictates of men's consciences character has been too well established for mon prudence would advise him to be minion is fixed, thence must rights and dictates of men's consciences character has been too well established for mon prudence would advise him to be minion is fixed, thence must right and the consciences character has been too well established for mon prudence would advise him to be minion is fixed, thence must right and the consciences character has been too well established for mon prudence would advise him to be minion in fixed. so sacred why do they electioneer among more than a thousand years past to permit cautious of conduct so calculated to raise dom at once depart. "The earth cannot them, in order to seduce them to their own the shadow of a doubt of it. He is too old suspicion of his motives. We enjoy Bri- bear two suus; neither could Asia bear party ? It is honest and consistent to say : in the traffic of Kingdoms and States, and tish liberty by the labours of these men two kings." So it ever has been with you and your sect are in error: I and mine has been too long a dealer in human blood whom the Catholic occasionally so basely Papal Rome; she cannot share her glory are in the right, and therefore I wish you to for us to suppose that such a veteran in traduces, and at the price of their blood with a rival; she never can ferace a step suit himself. This is as completely chainstrengthen mine.—And since all questions wholesale iniquity would for a moment he- shed by those "wolves"; and we cannot that she has taken. Like her own most terests, and embrace political questions, and it must be remembered that he is infallible; ry by those very wolves whose jaws still altars, or she must come forth from the land yet no voice is raised in defence of tion of its own destruction by the slaves of this sort necessarily involve political in- sitate at the offer of such a bargain. For but feel the indignity offered to their memo- worthy Becket she must perish at her own give rise to trains of political opinion and that in ages bygone he claimed as his pa- reek with their blood, and for ought we contest crowned with victory complete as action, I maintain that it is the first duty trimony all the kingdoms of the world and know thirst for ours. Though newly her hand can achieve. of the civil state to fortify itself with reli- the glory of them; that he, in consequence, fledged since they have assumed the pini- But America, -independent, -republigious truth, and take under its management deposed and set up Kings, took and gave one of the bird of Jove, and though they are can American is now the theat's of ambithe religious interests of its people; that kingdoms like toys, compelled Emperors now marshalling their forces on this side tion; a country where it is defined little expended in this way; and certainly ac- buying their elections to office under Go-

But the Jesuits are renewed like the ea- croachments. It is now too late in the day mons June 14, 1830, there were 118 of Besides, ambitious political aspirants of no many there may be in the United promotion from St. Peter. And here we At Pittsburg they have completed a mag- midst of their danger which the charles charles a charles and a rotation America cannot furnish it, for they are of making a more decided resistance to the

" PAPAL GOVERNMENT." "In Ireland, Holland, and the United States, every thing is managed by vicars apostolic. This system gives the Court of Rome the nower those of Belgium have done their Sove- abstained from enforcing a wholesome and really a most serious political question. reign.' This is a Roman Archbishop's moral quarantine on the importations from account of the Popish Priests in this republic!"

Now no reasonable man can for a mo-opposing influence in this case to her en-

foreign countries; and at one time the dis- indeed I trust that the importance of the ciples of Paine and the French philoso- discussion, and the decided bearing it has phists found a ready admittance to all on our Canadian affairs, will plead my exment doubt, that the definite object of the places of honor and emolument, In the cuse. But suffer me now, secundem ar-Jesuits is, the erection of a Papal empire eye of the government, no species of moral tem, to "sum up the Evidence:" the the American people to the dominion of est displeasure; and the writer of these leave it to their own good sense. lege, that they could blaspheme God re- tions of a religious nature, and freely ad-

Now is it too much to suppose that some | thens and Atheists to all places of both the for the purpose of counteracting the influence of the Jesuits, and meeting them with United States regard a national religion as probable, and it is even more than suspected. The known policy of the Presbyterians, in regard to their defrauding other denominations out of their money, labour structors on three classes of its citizens, and influence for their own party purpos- | soldiers, seamen, and criminals, and pays es, assure us that they would not be over | them with the peoples money without the scrupulous in adopting the policy of the authority of their Sovereign Majesty, and Ryerson faction in this Province, namely, meets with no resistance: and state govof supporting none but their own creatures | ernors appoint religious fasts and festivals, at elections. One sect is as likely to do and the people do not assert their inherent it as another. They change the Roman | natural rights thus trampled under feet by Chaplains on the soldiers and sailors with- Governments, turn now their zeal to the and they take the people's money arbi- the government of the United States." trarily and tyrannically to pay the Chaplains for the equal iniquity of teaching the pose these Jesuits by political power, and sailors and soldiers in a way that either nothing is more rational than that they each one has not invented or selected to should. ple, as is done by the British Constitution, affairs of religiou, to lift a finger in prevensons. Neither do the tyrants consult each | United States. religious faction may be swallowed up as to hold his stirrups when he mounted his the Atlantic, yet there is even here a Bri-short of sacrilege in the first degree for the sury. This method of procedure is cerconscience our Legislative demagogues ly believe it, and many will pretend to bepossess over those enjoyed by the soldiers lieve it from motives of political or sectarian and sailors of Brother Jonathan, or the in- ambition. is, that the conscience is free, and wholly is in a fair way to become extinct, and independent of any human influence and every new administration of public power control : and if the soldiers, sailors, and to be a new revolution, effected by the criminals of " a free country" are robbed prevalence of this or that religious faction.

> It will here be expedient to enter some- nificent Cathedral; they have colleagues gin to see, feel, and dread, all the name It is also to be noted, that some of the ous excitements, which only serve to increase state Governors in that country enforce re- the violence of the threatening tempest. without the least respect paid to the rights fully put into operation 50 years ago, would Whence comes the money these "common to take every advantage of it and dictates of their consciences, which is have consolidated the nation and auchored an express violation of their doctrines of it safely on the rock of fixed principles, and America cannot furnish it, for they are of making a more decided resist power to now merely proselyting among people in Jesuits than the country has power to met by disobedience and rebellion; be- And lastly—Let this Province Listen general too poor to pay tribute to St. Pe- make; but the Jesuits laugh Bible and cause it can be done on no principle but ter in such a style. The answer is short: ride them. The American Societies are that which recognizes the right of the civil the Jesuits all over the world are the Pope's Tract and Sunday School Stalley of the magistrate to enforce religious observances the people plundered to pay for it, I see no

From the Protestant of June 11, I take treme generally paves the way for another notice to quit the territory in ten days .courage to undertake. They had their Ancient and Modern Jesuitism,' by Mr. De ed. But had the Americans, when they been reviled on account of these Indians, arts reduced to a perfect system, and they Pradt, formerly Archbishop of Malines, settled their Federal Government, settled and the fanatical and headstrong character worked in perfect concert wherever they who has lately borne so great a part in the and established the Christian faith as the of many of the sectarian teachers. The law of the land on a reasonable foundation Government is thus at war with religion, and provided the new and destitute settle- at least with religious societies, and is perments with religious teachers as they were secuting them for the exercise of the rights formed and filled with inhabitants, as the and dictates of their consciences; and by soundest policy ought to have dictated, consequence, at war with a source of inthings would now have been far different. fluence and power which ought to be en-The Americans also adopted a policy of grossed exclusively by itself. Under a reareceiving with open arms all the European | sonable established Church, with the narunaways, and giving them the rights of tional religion, such a dilemma could not Priests in the United States, like those in citizenship on the easiest possible terms. occur; for if an individual should be found They boasted that the material of their go- guilty, it could only implicate himself, and season they will embarrass the government 'of to neutralize and render harmless all those be a part of the Government. As it is,

Pardon me, Sir, for being so tedious-

The constitution of the United States of mits the eligibitity of Jews, Turks, Hea-

The great majority of the people of the them reatest curso that could fall ubon

In defiance of its own principles, the government arbitrarily imposes religious in-

Religious bodies have interfered with other matters has recognized and acted on will have a majority in the West. Then beyond dispute the full amount of the prin-ciples of the British Constitution, of Church over throw of your tree institutions. This They arbitrarily impose Navy and Army he, expelled 37 times from the European out the least respect paid to the rights and United States of America; and soon will dictates of the pour fellows' consciences; it be seen whether they shall not embarrass

Other sects manifest a disposition to op-

The Government has put it out of its own power by declaring itself neutral in quitous policy is pursued in their state pri- his pay a regular army of Jesuits in the

Thus the Government, properly speaking, of its privileges, rights and dictates, and What a field for corruption and violence ! The administration has already become jealous of the interference of religious bo-sion now in active operation among our neighbours, especially those dreadful religi-

A national religious establishment, faith-

TO THE WARNING VOICE OF ONE OF THE PEOPLE. P. S .--- My Dear Chronicle : Please to