

TRUTH.

Friend, Truth is best of all. It is the bud Where virtue'er must spring, till blast of doom;

As white as Charity is single Truth, Like Wisdom calm, like honour without end;

And Love doth lean on it in age and youth, And courage is twice armed with Truth its friend.

Oh! who could face the blame of just men's eyes, And bear the fame of falsehood all his days,

For what is Hope, if Truth is not its stay? And what were Love, if Truth forsook it quite?

And what were all the sky, if Falsehood grey, Behind it like a dream of darkness lay,

Ready to quench its stars in endless night?

MONUMENT OF COPERNICUS.—On the 11th of May last a superb colossal bronze statue, which had been erected by the Poles to the memory of Copernicus at Warsaw, was first unveiled to the public.—The Philomatic Society, after attending divine worship in the Church of the Holy Cross, adjourned to the open place, when the venerable Julian Ursyn Niemcewicz from the raised platform of the monument addressed the assembled multitude with a singular eloquence and power, and his words falling from the lips of a man of more than eighty, moved whole masses of the listeners, now to the enthusiastic plaudits, and anon to tears.

He said that three centuries had passed since Copernicus had gathered to the bosom of that earth whose motion round the central sun he had revealed, That the forgetfulness of the great services of the great was usually succeeded by the outbursting of grateful remembrance, and that posterity often dragged forth to immortal memory the names which had been resting in temporary oblivion.

He spoke of this as the fate of Copernicus, and he honored with deserved plaudits Staszyc who had defrayed half the expenses of the statue. He mentioned Thorwaldsen, who had modeled it. "Now," he said, "after ten years lingering, shall every Polish heart vibrate with the satisfaction that beams from every Polish eye: and the sun on which Copernicus turned in perpetual gazing shall for the first time visit his image with its glorious beams."

At this moment the tapestry fell which covered the statue, and he continued—"Henceforth ever present will thou be. Highest, happiest of the eternal! The honour of thy country—the glory of thy race. Let thy influence, watching over the temple of the national muses, guard it from all degradation, and aid the propagation of all knowledge and all truth. And how infinitely happy am I in the privilege of having lived to extreme old age, to perform this honourable office—nunc dimittis, Domine, servanum tuum." Every head was uncovered—every face turned towards the statue—and the heavens which for three days had been cloudy and dark, broke out into sudden brightness and sunshine. There was a burst among the people as if a miracle had really been wrought in celebration of the great festival, and a loud band of musicians and singers suddenly broke forth from the cupola of the Philomatic Society's edifice, with a hymn, of which what follows is a close translation.

"O sun of glory! Let that glory shed Its most concentrated radiance on his head— On him the orbits of the stars who drew, And nature's mystic lore and language knew: Illustrious man! Sarmatia's grateful tongue Unceasingly adorns thy name, Thy voice Though Lechian voice the loudest speak— yet all In blending accents hail thy festival!"

THE CANADA COMPANY Have for sale in Upper Canada, about TWO MILLIONS FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND ACRES OF LAND.

OF the following description:—Viz. FIRST Crown Reserves, being lots of 200 Acres each, scattered through the older Townships of the Province.

Second, Blocks of Land, of from 1,000 to 40,000 acres. These are situated in Townships of the Western District, and in the Township of Wilmet in the Gore District.

Third, a Town and Township called GUELPH, in the Gore District, about 2 1/2 miles North West of Dundas, in which there are upwards of 800 settlers; among whom are almost every kind of Tradesmen and Mechanics: also, Taverns, Stores, Schools, Saw-Mills, a Brewery and Distillery, and one of the best Grist Mills in the Province. This is a desirable location for small Capitalists, as labourers and servants are easily procured, & lots partially improved may be purchased at a reasonable rate.

Fourth, The Huron Territory, consisting of 1,000,000 acres, in the shape of a triangle, the base resting for upwards of 60 miles on the East bank of Lake Huron.

The Town of GODERICH, containing at present about 30 Houses, with Stores, Taverns, Blacksmith's and Carpenter's Shops, a School, and a Branch Office of the Company, overlooking a harbour formed by the Basin of the Maitland, a large stream which falls into Lake Huron, and is the centre of the settlement. A Saw Mill is in operation, and a Grist Mill in progress.—Roads have been run to Dundas and London, which this year, at a very great expense, will be rendered equal to any in the Province; and the communication by the St. Clair, with Lake Erie, and thence by the Welland Canal, into Lake Ontario, gives a most advantageous mode of sending produce to the market; and this year the Rideau navigation will be completed, when produce may be shipped in a sloop at Goderich, and delivered without breaking bulk at Montreal or Quebec.

The land, to say the least, is equal to any in the Province, and greatly superior to the average of either Upper Canada or the opposite coast of the United States. The climate, owing to the vicinity of the Lake, is more mild and equable than any not possessing similar advantages. It abounds in Brick, earth, Lime and Building stones, and holds out every prospect of becoming the most prosperous settlement in the Province.

Settlers coming by the way of Quebec, will proceed by Montreal and Lachine to Prescott, where an Agent of the company will forward them to Port Dalhousie, and thence to Buffalo. Those coming by the way of New-York will take the route by the Erie Canal to Buffalo. From that, they are forwarded to Detroit, whence they will proceed in a smaller Steam Boat up the St. Clair, at the head of which a vessel belonging to the Company will transport them (about sixty miles) to Goderich. Should they wish to proceed to any other part of the Company's Lands, any of the Agents mentioned in the Way Ticket along the line of Road will give them the necessary advice and information. Canada Company's Office, York, 7th May, 1831.

SALT RHEUM.—This inveterate disease, which has long baffled the art of the most experienced physicians, has, at length, found a sovereign remedy in Dr. La Grange's genuine ointment.

Few cutaneous diseases are met with more reticence by the physician, & none in which he is so universally unsuccessful. This ointment has stood the test of experience, and justly obtained an unparalleled celebrity. It immediately removes the scabs, gives a healthy action to the vessel so the skin, and its original colour and smoothness. Numerous recommendations might be obtained of its superior efficacy, but the proprietor chose that a fair trial should be its only commender. It has in three or four weeks cured cases of fifteen and twenty years' standing, that had resisted the power of every remedy that was tried. It not only at once gives immediate relief in Salt Rheum, but cures Tinea Capitis, commonly called Scald Head, and all scabby eruptions peculiar to unhealthy children.

There is nothing of a mercurial nature contained in it, and it may be used on infants or others under any circumstances whatever. PRICE One Dollar per BOTTLE. For sale by Wm. Binley, Kingston, John Musson, Quebec, and George Bent Montreal, Sole Agent for the Canadas. Kingston, 11th July, 1828.
