

THE CHRONICLE.

Clara bursting into tears... she was long before she could be pacified.

The groom who took it neglected to set off till night. At that time the roads were infested with highwaymen.

That night, as Clara sat alone before she retired to rest—her lover's splendid bridal presents before her on the table—her maid expatiating on their beauty, herself gratified by their magnificence, she happened to raise her eyes, and looking on the opposite glass, she turned suddenly pale and gasped for breath.

The maid hastened to show the superstitious girl that the pall was but the reflection of the heavy and sombre curtain on the opposite bed that had been accidentally drawn aside towards the foot.

The next day was uncommonly bright and clear; the sun shone out: the birds sang; all nature seemed in unison with that rite which custom always honors with joy, though experience usually condemns its celebrators to disappointment.

In a numerous and blithe cavalcade, the marriage procession swept to the old-fashioned church where the ceremony was to be performed. It was distant only one mile from the hall.

Clara, who was the first stretched out to assist Clara (who was with her bridesmaids) to descend from the carriage. She trembled as she saw him, and looked around for Bayatuu—his carriage had not yet arrived.

"Fear not," said Vavasour with a smile, which re-assured and deceived her; "you have bid me to your bridal as a friend—as a friend I attend them. Will you reject my services, even in a form, a common courtesy?"

"Nay," said one of the bridesmaids, laughing, "if the bridegroom cannot manage to be in time, you serve him right to take the arm of another," and she whispered Clara that it would only seem strange to play the bride.

"Behold!" cried he, raising his voice till his deep and hollow tone pierced to the very isle of the church, and repeated by a dreary echo smote the ear of the priest as he stood prepared by the altar—"Behold, Clara, your bridal bed!"

"No," he muttered the second time, "I strike only for justice. Thou didst as I would have done—thou didst not at least deceive me—thou art sufficiently punished!"

"Bliss the Water! thou hast been a good son to me. But what means—"

FOR SALE.—Lot No. 353, in Grave Street, Kingston. Apply to the Editor of this paper.

CANADA COMPANY. Have for sale in Upper Canada, about TWO MILLIONS FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND ACRES OF LAND.

Of the following description:—Viz. FIRST Crown Reserves, being lots of 200 Acres each, scattered through the older Townships of the Province.

Second, Blocks of Land, of from 1,000 to 40,000 acres. These are situated in Townships of the Western District, and in the Township of Wilmet in the Gore District.

Third, a Town and Township called GUELPH, in the Gore District, about 2 1/2 miles North West of Dundas, in which there are upwards of 800 settlers; among whom are almost every kind of Tradesmen and Mechanics: also, Taverns, Stores, Schools, Saw-Mills, a Brewery and Distillery, and one of the best Grist Mills in the Province.

This is a desirable location for small Capitalists, as Labourers and servants are easily procured, & lots partially improved may be purchased at a reasonable rate.

Fourth, The Huron Territory, consisting of 1,000,000 acres, in the shape of a triangle, the base resting for upwards of 60 miles on the East bank of Lake Huron.

The Town of CODERICH, containing at present about 30 Houses, and Stores, Taverns, Blacksmith's and Carpenter's Shops, a School, and a Branch Office of the Company, overlooking a harbour formed by the Basin of the Maidland, a large stream which falls into Lake Huron, and is the centre of the settlement. A Saw Mill is in operation, and a Grist Mill in progress.

Roads have been run to Dundas and London, which this year, at a very great expense, will be rendered equal to any in the Province; and the communication by the St. Clair, with Lake Erie, and thence by the Welland Canal, into Lake Ontario, gives a most advantageous mode of sending produce to the market; and this year the Rideau navigation will be completed, when produce may be shipped in a sloop at Goderich, and delivered without breaking bulk at Montreal or Quebec.

This land, to say the least, is equal to any in the Province, and greatly superior to the average of either Upper Canada, or the opposite coast of the United States. The climate, owing to the vicinity of the Lake, is more mild and equable than any not possessing similar advantages. It abounds in Brick, earth, Lime and Building stones, and holds out every prospect of becoming the most prosperous settlement in the Province.

Settlers coming by the way of Quebec, will proceed by Montreal and Lachine to Prescott, where an Agent of the company will forward them to Port Dalhousie, and thence to Buffalo. Those coming by the way of New-York will take the route by the Erie Canal to Buffalo. From that, they are forwarded to Detroit, whence they will proceed in a smaller Steam Boat up the St. Clair, at the head of which a vessel belonging to the Company will transport them (about sixty miles) to Goderich. Should they wish to proceed to any other part of the Company's Lands, any of the Agents mentioned in the Way Ticket along the line of Road will give them the necessary advice and information.

GARDEN SEEDS.—For sale by the Subscriber, a large quantity of fresh Garden Seeds, warranted to be of the growth of 1830, with directions for Gardening. JOHN MOWAT.

SALT RHEUM.—This inveterate disease, which has long baffled the art of the most experienced physicians, has, at length, found a sovereign remedy in Dr. La Grange's genuine ointment. Few cutaneous diseases are met with more successfully by the physician, & none in which he is so universally unsuccessful. This ointment has stood the test of experience, and justly obtained an unparalleled celebrity. It immediately removes the scabs, gives a healthy action to the vessel so the skin, and its original colour and smoothness. Numerous recommendations might be obtained of its superior efficacy, but the proprietor chose that a faithful should be its only commentator. It is in three or four weeks cured cases of fifteen and twenty years' standing, that had resisted the power of every remedy that was tried. It not only at once gives immediate relief in Salt Rheum, but cures Tinea Capitis, commonly called Scald Head, and all scabby eruptions peculiar to unhealthy children.

There is nothing of a mercurial nature contained in it, and it may be used on infants or others under any circumstances whatever.
