PROSPECTUS

OF A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER,

TO BE ISSUED AT MONTREAL.

The first number to appear on Saturday, the 17th October next;

AND TO BE ENTITLED

THE TRUE BRITON

AND MONTREAL CONSTITUTIONAL ADVOCATE.

" For God, the King, and the People."

When we take into consideration the number of Newspapers published within this City, and throughout this, and the Sister Provinces, little ground, we confess, appears to be left for our present undertaking. Yet the incessant emigration to our shores, and the increased and increasing population of Montreal and the country at large, seem in some degree, to warrant the present essay, and to call forth the exertions of our humble abilities to the arduous duties of the press.

Although we do not flatter ourselves that we shall be able to compete with many of our Brethren, in exhibiting to the Merchant, the details he requires to conduct his speculations to successful issue, or to guide him in those he may project, yet we feel confident that to the General Reader, the Agriculturalist, the Mechanic, and those who may neither possess the inclination, nor afford the time, to peruse daily Newspapers, our columns will be found productive of several advantages, and will prove sources of usefulness and amusement.

In Politics, as the title we have selected justly indicates, we are Constitutionalists.

Some travelling and observation have wrought in us the conviction that under the British Constitution, those inestimable ingredients in our happiness, " Civil and Religious Liberty," are now here better secured and enjoyed than in Great Britain and her Colonies; and under this conviction, we shall sedulously endeavour to maintain their permanency within this and the sister Provinces. But in making this confession of our political faith we wish to be perfectly understood: and pledge our reputation and honor that public abuses of any, and every kind, shall have our unequivocal reprobation.

In Religion we are Episcopalians. Attached by principle and habit to doctrines of the Established Church of England, and to the decent propriety of its Rites, we shall zealously, yet temperately support and defend its tenets and temporaries whenever they may be assailed on the one hand, or neglected on the other.—While however we assert these points, we desire to remain in peace with all men. We have lived long enough to bear witness to the truth of our Saviour's declaration that " God maketh the Sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth his rain on the just and on the unjust." In using this quotation, we do not advocate lukewarmness in the faith in which we were brought up; but because we sincerely believe it is not given to man to pronounce that his own form of profession bears the exclusive stamp of infallibility.

We shall therefore cheerfully grant to others what we claim for ourselves, Liberty of Conscience, and shall on all occasions that require its exercise, uphold the maxim of " Unity in things needful, and Charity in all," as indisputably necessary to the welfare of the community in which we live.

As our constant end and aim will be, to prevent Miscreancy that shall, as far as possible, meet the wishes of all classes of readers, we intend to insert copious extracts from the latest English, Irish, and Scotch Newspapers, as well as whatever may be interesting to our Naval and Military readers; and as we shall also form a careful and extensive summary of events that have occurred in the British American Provinces, and in the United States, we presume to hope our Publication will not be deemed an unacceptable offering to the friends of our subscribers residing in the United Kingdom.

The latter (universal motion,) will be represented by a drawing of the solar system with the planets surrounded by the electric element with a division of its pressure into local and universal repulsion, by which each planet is caused, from philosophical principles, to travel in curvilinear line round its centre by one simple and primary impetus.

As the above systems are entirely original, the author feels himself justified in presenting them to an enlightened community, respectively soliciting their patronage to a work that comprises assigned causes for many of the natural phenomena, that have been looked upon by the whole school of philosophers as beyond the reach of human ken, fathom, and that have slumbered in the cradle of Nature's armchair.

The above systems are entirely original,

the author flatters himself that many causes deemed past finding out, will be satisfactorily explained and developed.

The price of the above work, bound in sheep, will be 6s. 3d.; in calf, gilt, 7s. 6d.; Halifax currency, exclusive of postage.

The brief space of a Prospectus precludes more extended annunciation or illustration of our views, we shall, therefore, merely add, that our efforts will, at all times, be directed to effect the maintenance of the Civil and Religious rights of our fellow-countrymen; and to maintain inviolate the great principles of the Constitution, under which we have the happiness to live.
