Gentlemen residing in the country may depend upon having their orders executed with the utmost dispatch and neatness. Kingston, Nov. 17, 1835.

IN COUNCIL. 17th October, 1835. THE Council having taken into consideration the Lieut. Governor's reference of the 5th instant, on the question of U. E. Loyalists' Rights and Militia Claimants, respectfully recommend, that the suggestions of His Excellency be adopted, and that the Deeds do issue in the names of the original Grantees, to all persons who have received Location Tickets, as U. E. Loyalists or Militia Claimants, without further delay. And it is also recommended, that in future certain Townships may be set apart for the location of this description of persons, who may be authorised to receive Free Grants on account of their U. E. Loyalist or Militia Claims, and that the Deeds shall issue in the names of the Grantees respectively, at the time of their location.

These Regulations, made for the purpose of adjusting the question, which, for the interest of the Province, it is considered should not longer remain unsettled, are not to prevent U. E. Loyalists or Militia Claimants entitled to grants of land, from settling in other Townships, provided that they wish to occupy their own Locations, and to take up their residence on the lots assigned to them. It is further recommended, that the Surveyor General be instructed to publish this order. (Signed) JOHN BEIKIE, Clerk Executive Council.

Fashionable Tailoring. HENRY MATHISON. (Late Foreman to Mr. John Dawson.) WOULD respectfully inform the public that he has commenced the above business, in King Street, nearly opposite the Store of Messrs. D. Bryce & Co. He has personally made arrangements for the most approved London and New York Fashions, and hopes by assiduous attention and reasonable terms, to merit a share of public patronage. Kingston, Sept. 29, 1835.

TO LET, A comfortable Dwelling House, with an excellent Garden, situated in Grave Street. Apply to Wm. WILSON. Kingston, 16th May, 1835.

Alexander Lockie, Saddler, IS thankful to the gentlemen of Gananoque and its vicinity for the liberal support he has received, and hopes he will continue to deserve a share of the public patronage. He has always on hand Gentlemen's and Ladies' Saddles, at as moderate prices as they can be had for in the Upper Province. Likewise Harness of every description he manufactures with every degree of neatness, and at the same time with the utmost dispatch. A. Lockie takes this opportunity of publicly contradicting a statement which appeared some time ago in the British Whig, setting forth the particulars of a transaction which took place between him and a Mr. Madigan, Tanner, of Kingston, which particulars he affirms to be altogether false. He begs leave to state that he has worked for Mr. Watt, Saddler and Accountment Maker to the Hon'ble the Board of Ordnance, Edinburgh.—He has also acted as foreman to Mr. John Henry, Saddler, Allan Town, Pennsylvania, and in that capacity for two years with Mr. Jeffrey, Cobourg. From all of those Gentlemen he can get testimonials of character, quite sufficient to show the improbability of the statement above alluded to. Gananoque, 23d December, 1835.
