Tailoring Business. J. D. SEELEY would respectfully inform the inhabitants of Kingston and its vicinity, that he continues to carry on the above business at his old stand in Store Street, directly opposite the Commercial Hotel, and he hopes, by punctuality, strict attention to business, and reasonable charge, to merit the continuation of patronage he has so liberally received the past year, and he assures the public that no pains will be spared on his part to give every possible satisfaction.

J. D. S. will receive the most approved Fashions every Spring and Fall. N. B.—One or two first rate Journeymen find constant employment by applying to the above. None but first rate workmen need apply. Kingston, 2d May, 1836. 90z

Repeated Representations

HAVING been made to the Committee of the Kingston, by men in business, that it would greatly accommodate the public, and allay the apprehensions which many entertain by the rapid movements of both the Kingston and Brockville, consequent on the opposition, if the days of one of the Boats were altered, and expressing a wish that the Kingston would take other days; although convinced that they had the right of keeping the days of last year, and the injustice of another Boat taking the same days, when there were other days of the week unoccupied. The Committee of the Kingston beg to intimate to the public, that in order to afford them greater facilities and convenience they have decided on altering the days of sailing under the consent expectation that it will be duly appreciated. They therefore give Notice that for the future the

STEAM BOAT
