

...barges belonging to the Ottawa & Rideau Forwarding Company have arrived this morning, with goods and passengers.

We are able to announce that His Excellency, the Lieutenant Governor, intends visiting several portions of the Province during the summer, and that he left the metropolis on Saturday last for Lake Huron, intending to go to the Manitoulin Islands. We may therefore expect the pleasure of a visit from him the latter end of the month.

We are happy to observe that the Upper Canada Gazette proclaims a reward of £100 for the discovery of the incendiary who committed Arson on the premises of Captain Kingsmill, Port Hope, on the night of the 18th ult.

Melancholy Accident.—We regret to learn that a respectable farmer of Loughborough, of the name of James Lyons, died on Sunday evening, the 24th ult. from the effect of a fall on the previous day from a fence upon which he was carelessly sitting in conversation at the time with several persons.

Military Movements.—We learn that the 15th Regt. at present stationed in Toronto, will exchange quarters with the 24th in this garrison, on the 1st of September next; and that the 32d Regt. will not this season come to the Upper Province, as we before announced.

The Great Britain.—This noble vessel, on her downward trip, on Monday morning last, had no less than 191 cabin passengers—principally travellers from the U. States.

The Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery for the Eastern District was opened at Cornwall on Monday last by His Honor, Mr. Justice Macaulay. Mr. Solicitor General Hagerman is attending in behalf of the Crown.

The Three Rivers Races.—These races took place in the course of last week, under the patronage of His Excellency the Governor-in-Chief. It affords us much pleasure to learn that the three principal prizes were taken by the Horses of our enterprising townsman, George W. Yarker, Esq.

To the Editor of the Chronicle & Gazette.

My Dear Sir,—I take the liberty of sending you the enclosed—I really think it worthy of appearing in to-morrow's Chronicle & Gazette.

The modesty exhibited in the requisites simply necessary for the Governor, reminds me of a request made by an officer holding a high rank, to an officer commanding a Regiment.

My Dear Sir,—

Will you have the kindness to let me have a servant from your corps. I am not particular, and shall therefore be content with one who is honest, sober, regular in all his habits, and industrious.

To this the commanding officer replied:—

My Dear Colonel,—“I have been for 30 years looking out for the individual described in your letter, and have not yet found him.”

My dear Sir, Yours,

From the London Metropolitan.

A GOVERNNESS WANTED.

BY MRS. ARDY.

Our Governness left us, dear brother, last night, in a strange fit of pique. Will you kindly seek out for another? We want one, at last, by next week. But I'll give you a few plain credentials. The bargain with speed to complete; Take a pair—just set down the essentials, And begin at the top of the sheet!

With easy and modest decision, She ever must move, act and speak, She must understand French with precision, Italian, and Latin, and Greek; She must play the piano divinely, Excel on the harp and the lute, Do all sorts of needlework finely, And make feather flowers and wax fruit.

She must answer all queries directly, And all questions well understand, Paint in oils, sketches from nature correctly, And write German-text and short-hand; She must sing with power, science & sweetness, Yet for concerts must not sing at all, She must dance with ethereal fleetness, Yet never must go to a ball.

She must not have needy relations, Her dress must be tasteful, yet plain; Her discourse must abound in quotations, Her memory all dates must retain. She must point out each author's chief beauties, She must manage dull nature with skill, Her pleasures must lie in her duties. She must never be nervous or ill!

If she writes essays, odes, themes, and sonnets, Yet is not pedantic or pert, If she wear none but deep cottage bonnets, If she deem it high treason to flirt, If to midness she add sense and spirit, Engage her at once without fear, I'll give to reward modest merit, And I give—forty guineas a year!

“I accept, my good sister, your mission, To-morrow my search I'll begin, In all circles, in every condition, I'll strive such a treasure to win; And if, after years of probation, My eyes on the wonder should rest, I'll engage her without hesitation, But not on the terms you suggest.”

Of a Bride I have never made selection, For my bachelor thoughts would still dwell On an object so near to perfection, That I blushed half my fancies to tell; Now this list that you kindly have granted, I'll quote and refer to through life, But just blot out—“A Governness Wanted,” And head it with—“Wanted a Wife!”

...pire, in the Colonies. It would be needless to attempt to address ourselves to persons whose minds are corrupted to the degree of harbouring treason against the State; but those whom they may have deceived into a belief that the authority of the General Government of the Empire is carried to excess in the Colonies, would do well to refer to what is done by the general authority of the United States, in regard to their territories or colonies, under institutions which are held up to us as models for “envy” and imitation. We refer them to two acts of Congress in this day's paper as a present and practical illustration of the power which Congress exercises over the American Colonies, who have no vote in that body, to whom they do not even allow representative assemblies, but solely a Governor, Legislative Council, Judges, and officers appointed by the President of the United States during pleasure. No sovereign State of the Union is even permitted to touch a cent of the revenue collected on imports, or received by the post-office, but it is all disposed of by the General Government, collected and distributed by its officers, which has its judicial and civil and military officers, in each State, independent of its “self government.” Yet we are told that all the authorities of the British Government in the Colonies ought to be responsible to us, or that we should renounce our allegiance, declare our independence, and ask, no doubt, to be admitted into the Union as a sovereign State, paying all our expenses by internal taxation. Could any man, or set of men, think of such a proposition, if he were not blinded by ambition and selfish passions? The means which these people take publicly with impunity, to detach the subject from his affection and fidelity to the British Crown, if they are proofs of the great freedom which we enjoy, are at the same time proofs of their wickedness. They told us, some time ago, that the British Government was accountable for the death of all the persons who died amongst us of cholera, and they have lately been ascribing to the same Government the poverty to which portions of the Province has been reduced by unfavorable seasons; and the distress which will probably occur in the district of Quebec by the prevailing drought, which no doubt: be ascribed to the same cause.—[Nelson's Quebec Gazette.

FORWARDING.

UNITED LINES OF THE RIDEAU AND St. LAWRENCE.

THE OTTAWA AND RIDEAU FORWARDING COMPANY beg leave to notify their friends and the public generally, that they have United their Line with that of the Canada Inland Forwarding and Insurance Company.

Although a decided preference has justly been given to the Rideau Line from the superior craft in which goods are forwarded as well as the certainty with regard to time and diminution of risk attending the transport, yet some objections have been raised to the Canals being closed earlier in the Fall than the River St. Lawrence, and to obviate these objections the Company intend this Union to keep a full supply of Boats on the St. Lawrence, not with a view of doing their business generally by that route, but to accommodate their Customers in the spring and fall, as well as to meet every possible contingency that might take place on the Canal and restore to the Company the fullest confidence of the public.

To facilitate the Transport of Goods destined for the Ports of Lakes Ontario and Erie, the Company have arranged for their transshipment at both the Ports of Prescott and Kingston, but from its eligibility, intend the latter to be the principal place of transshipment, when the Rideau Canal is re-opened, and no advance on the present rate of freight will be demanded from their regular customers while the Rideau Canal is open in the fall. Their Stores at Prescott are those of the Canada Inland Forwarding Company, and Mr. W. Dickinson, their Agent, will continue to conduct the business there.

Goods forwarded by the Rideau Canal will not be insured unless ordered by the owners; those that may be forwarded by the St. Lawrence will be insured by the Company unless otherwise directed.

Mr. E. Hackett of the Canada Inland Forwarding and Insurance Company will at all times be ready to receive orders for this Company, to whom as well as the Company's Agents at Montreal and Kingston application may be made.

Bank of Upper Canada, Toronto, 13th July, 1836. 8y

The Editors of newspapers who have usually published for the Bank of Upper Canada, will be pleased to give this notice one insertion.

BANK OF BRITISH NORTH AMERICA.

CAPITAL, £1,000,000 STERLING, IN 20,000 SHARES OF £50 EACH, (THREE-FIFTHS OF WHICH HAVE BEEN SUBSCRIBED IN ENGLAND, AND THE REMAINDER ARE RESERVED FOR THE COLONIES) WITH POWER TO INCREASE THE CAPITAL.

LONDON DIRECTORS: GEORGE DE ROSCO ATTWOOD, Esq. EDWARD BLOUNT, Esq. ROBERT BROWN, Esq. SIR ROBERT CAMPBELL, BART. ROBERT CARTER, Esq. WILLIAM ROBERT CHAPMAN, Esq. JAMES JOHN CUMMINS, Esq. JAMES DOWIE, Esq. OLIVER FARRER, Esq. ALEXANDER GILLESPIE, JUN., Esq. WILLIAM MEDLEY, Esq. WILLIAM PEMBERTON, Esq. GEORGE RICHARD ROBINSON, Esq. M. P. JOHN WALDRON WRIGHT, Esq.

THE rapidity with which the British North American Colonies have advanced in prosperity and commercial importance, the vast increase of their population, the high rate of interest, the fluctuation of exchange, the inadequacy of the capital already employed for Banking operations, and the increasing facility of intercourse with the Mother Country, point out the different settlements of British North America as affording a secure field for the profitable employment of Capital; for which purpose, and with a view of promoting the Mercantile and Agricultural interests of the Colonies, the present Company has been established.

The management of the Company's affairs is vested in the London Court of Directors, and the Banks in the Colonies are to be conducted by local Boards appointed by them.

A general meeting of the Proprietors is to be held yearly in London, to whom a statement of the Company's affairs will be submitted.

Power has been reserved to the Directors to apply for, and accept on behalf of the establishment, a Charter of Incorporation or Act of Parliament.

A Deposit of £10 sterling per share to be paid within a period to be named in the letter of allotment, at the rate of Exchange therein fixed, and the Deed of Settlement to be signed at the time of payment.

After payment of the deposit, the remainder of the Capital will be required by instalments not exceeding £10 sterling per share, at such intervals (of not less than three months) as the Directors may find necessary to carry the objects of the bank into operation, of which due notice will be given.

The undersigned, commissioned to represent the Court of Directors in America, and to visit the several Colonies for the purpose of putting the affairs of the Bank into operation, hereby gives notice that he will be ready to receive and consider applications from persons residing in the Province of Upper Canada, who may be desirous of becoming Shareholders in the Capital Stock of the Company, addressed to him at the Post Office at Montreal, on or before the 10th day of August next.

SCOBELL'S INSPECTION STORE.

R. SCOBELL, General Inspector of Pot Ash, Beef and Pork, presents his cordial thanks to the Merchants and other Inhabitants of Kingston and the vicinity, for the liberal patronage they have extended to him during the past year; and he begs leave to inform them that he has removed his Inspection Business from the Hon. J. Kirby's Store to the large and convenient Store and Wharf of Mrs. Forsyth, lately occupied by Mr. A. McDonnell, where he will be always ready to inspect such articles as may be consigned to him for that purpose; and he hopes, from his long experience, punctuality, and strict attention to business, still to merit the approbation and support of the public.
