Repeated Representations
HAVING been made to the Committee of the Kingston, by men in business, that it would greatly accommodate the public, and allay the apprehensions which many entertain by the rapid movements of both the Kingston and Brockville, consequent on the opposition, if the days of one of the Boats were altered, and expressing a wish that the Kingston would take other days; although convinced that they had the right of keeping the days of last year, and the injustice of another Boat taking the same days, when there were other days of the week unoccupied. The Committee of the Kingston beg to intimate to the public, that in order to afford them greater facilities and convenience they have decided on altering the days of sailing under the confident expectation that it will be duly appreciated. They therefore give Notice that for the future the
