POSTCRIPT.

Eleven o'clock. Painful Intelligence.-We greatly fear, from the tenor of our advices from Washington, that the President's life is in great jeopardy. His disease is bilious pueumonia, and as very obstinate. A physician who has arrived from Washington this morning, apprehends that the next mail will bring tidings that the nation will weep to hear.

Per Contra .- Since the above was written we are greatly relieved by learning that the Collector has received a letter from Washington, dated 2d April, (vesterday morning, 6 o'clock,) stating that the t'resident was decidedly better. The letter was written by a gentleman who, half an bour previous to writing, lett the Presi-

The Election of Mayor for this Town took place on Monday last, when the choice of the Common Council fell on our active and enterprising fellow-townsman, John Counter, Esq. He was sworn into office on the same day, The late universally respected Mayor, Ductor Sampson, had declined serving for another year, and was not a candidate for re-election. We are informed that the late Council have adopted a highly complimentary address to this genman, whose zealous exertions for the welfare of the Town, and impartial conduct as its first officer, have won for him "golden opinions from all sorts of people."

New Brunswick .- In our preceding columns will be found a very interesting correspondence | Counties will, in all likelihood, be between the two branches of the Legislature of this loyal Province and His Excellency Major General Sir John Harvey, its universally esteemed Lieut. Governor. In no instance and Shefford. reness correspondent, 'and have planted it this year exclusively. I planted last year four different varieties,—the Dutton, early Canada, seed (from Poughkeepsie,) eight rowed white, and corn said to be Egyptian, eight rowed. The Dutton tipened two weeks before the others. Tenements of Peter Rea, at the suit of Alexand yielded better. The cob is very large and that would be objectionable, did it not take a good deal of corn to cover it. It is well to remark, that after raising the corn eighteen years—the second having been obtained from the second in the Tenth Concession of the Township of Portland; which I will expose ceive any diminition in its early ripening pro-perty, which we ascribe to the fact, that we Eingston on Monday, the 17th day of Man have always selected the earliest ripened ears hext, at the hour of 12 o'clock, noun.
