A turbulent and . d. bate crowed, and the House did not refand three e'clock next norning. After a of divisions, however, the three first clauses bing the general principle of the Bill were Ed. By the first two of these clauses each let of the Province formally called Upper Cais constituted into a leady Corporate, capable pw of sning and being sord, and of purchasing holding lands &c. The third clause provides the reshall be a District Council in each such 2ct, consisting of a Warden and Councillors. int evening the House resumed the subject in mittee of the whole-Mr. Hugkins in the Chair hen the fourth clause of the Bill became the eet of discussion, which provides that it shall anful for the Covernor by L. Hers Patent &c. point one fit and proper person to be Warden meh of said Districts, holding his office during sure. A very warm and lengthened discussion red. Mr. Baldwin moved an amendment to the st, that the power of the Exercise to appoint Warden should be concided for the space of 5 years only-after which that officer should be ted by the people. We were not surprised to the ultra Reformers keenly opposed to this se and favorable to the amendment-but to see conservative gentlemen such as Sir Allan Me-3, Messes. Carawright, Muffatt, and others join n with all their might in attempting to destroy great conservative faature of the Bill was to us ious in the extreme. We shall give this bill (which will now eviatly pass into a law] in our next number at gth. One poculiarity about this measure is Ait is denounced by one party as republic n principle and by another is tyrannical, placundue power and patronage in the hands of Executive. A similar Bill to this comes in operation in Lower Canada on the 10th inst.

Peterboro', 21th July, 1841. GENTLEMEN,-Allow me to seturn you my sincore thanks for the very gratifying and too flattering address you have this day presented to me. It will ever be to me a satisfaction to know that my professional career during the last seven years has been such as to call forth the complimentary enconium which you have passed upon it. Although our intercourse will be interrupted by my change of residence I hope it will not be at an end, and I assure you that it will give me sincere pleasure if I can ever be of service to the town of Peterborough and its neighbourhood.

In bidding you farewell I earnestly pray that you and your families may be blossed with health and happiness, and the District of Colborne with peace
