THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

The Municipal Bill .- The consideration of this measure was resumed last evening. It may be important to revert to the first division which took place, when the preamble of the Bill was adopted, and the House pledged to the principle. On that occasion the year were 45-nays 10. The division which took place on Friday last on the 4th clause respecting the appointment of the Warden, we have already given-and last evening an animated but factious debate took place on the appointment of Clerk, it having been moved in amendment by Mr. Baldwin, that this officer should be appointed by Similar unendments nere made respecting the appointments of auditors and the Treasurer, and upon a division in the case of the latter office + the votes were-equiest the amendment 56, for it 26, besides the Telters. The House adjourned at 12, - and the question is placed on the order of the day for to-merrow.

Sir Allan McNab, Measts, Carturight, Moffan, and o hers, strenuously appoind the passage of the different clauses last evening. The position is which these genilemen, have placed themselves in regard to this measure though Farlianmutary seems to us undignified. The practice of Sir Robert Peel has been, that when he found the principle of a Bill acknowledged he withdrew his opposition, and brought all his force to bear upon rendering the case before us, the principle of the Bill was adopted gun, and a like sum for the arrest of the authors Tenders to state the price per pound in Halby a sweeping majority-but singular to say, the hon, gentlemen afterwards left no atone unturned to destroy the clauses of the Bill, which were canfessedly Conservative. Such a course may be Parliamentary, but for our part we do not like it.

Mr. Vizer remarked in the House last night, that it had been frequently asserted of the Bourbons, learnt any thing that was new. This is no doubt politically true. They remained unchanged while all was changing around them-and when obliged to act, they invariably from the narrowness and exphies which they most dreaded. The same observation applies to some conservatives in this Province and indeed to many in Great Britain also.
