In cases of TOOTHACHE, it has always been Dr. J.'s study to avoid the excrutiating operation of extraction usually resorted to, but instantaneously, and without pain, to relieve the sufferer, by a simple application recently dis-covered; and having stuffed the decayed tooth, restores it to its former usefulness. For this important discovery, Dr. J. has provided himself with various sets of Instruments upon the most modern and approved principles.

Dr. J. is enabled to say, that owing to his possessing the secret of making the Incorruptible Procelain Teeth, he can supply any denciency of the mouth and guins, so completely as to prevent the possibility of detection. Dr. J. also begs to assure the Public that his professional services shall be rendered to all ipon the most reasonable terms.
