GLOBE HOTEL.

F. BLANCARD respectfully informs his friends and the public that the above elegant and extensive establishment, newly erected, and purposely adapted to the European plan of accommodation, is now opened for the reception of company. The rooms have been newly fitted up, with new furniture of the most modern style, and no expense has been spared to promote the comfort of his guests. The plan is pre-eminent for convenience, as families, and persons desirous of accommodations unconnected with regular boarding, may have suits of apartments, and diet furnished therein, at all times, and in any manner agreeable to their taste. The best servants are always in attendance, and the British and Foreign languages spoken in the house.

To this establishment there is a Restaurant, where the best provisions of the market will be served up, on the most approved and fashionable style of French and English cookery. The choicest wines at reasonable prices.

In connection with the Hotel is an extensive Bathing establishment, on New street, open at all reasonable hours for the use of his guests.

The location of the Hotel is admirably suited to business or pleasure, being within two minutes walk of Wall-street, the Public offices, and the Battery, the most airy and healthful walk in the city.

The Proprietor, gratefully acknowledging the many favors he has heretofore received from his patrons, assures them that he will spare no pains to accommodate such as may grant him a call in any style of expense or economy, that may be best suited to their wishes. 66 Broadway, New York.
