MOFFAT'S VEOETABLE LIFE MEDICINES—; These Medicines are indebted for their name to their manifest and sensible action in purifying the springs and channels of life, and conducting them with renewed tobe and vigour. In many hundred certified cases which have been made public, and in almost every species of disease to which the human frame is liable, the effects of Moffat's life Pills and Phonix Bitters have been gratefuly and publicly arknowledged by the receives leavefied blodar's life Fills and Flatnix Bitters have been grateful-ly and publicly acknowledged by the persons benefited, and who were previously unacquainted with the beauti-fully philosophical principles upon which they are com-pounded, and upon which they constantly act. The Life Medicines recommend themselves in diseases of every form and description. Their first operation is to loosen from the coats of the stomach and bowels the various impurities and credities constantly settling a-round them, and to remove the hardened were which ed-various impurities and crudities constantly settling around them, and to remove the hardened sees which collect is the convolutions of the smallest intestines. Other medicines only partially cleanse them, and leave such collected masses behind as to produce habitual costiveness, with all its train of evils, or sudden diarrthms, with its imminent dangers. This fact is well known to all regules austomists, who examine the human bowels after death; and hence the prejudice of those well-informed men against quack associates, or medicines prepared and heraldud to the public by ignorant persons. The second effect of the Life Medicines is to cleanse the kidneys and bladder and by this means the liver and the lungs, the healthful action of which entirely depends upon the regularity of the unitary organs. The blood which takes its red colour from the agency of the hear and the lungs before it passes into the heart, being puritied by them, and nourished by food entirely from a clean stomach, courses freely through the vers, renews evened by them, and mourished by food enting from a clean stomach, courses freely through the veits, renews every part of the system, and triumphandly mounts the bannet of health in the blooming cheek.

Moffat's Vegetable Life Medicines have been thoroughly tested, and pronounce's a sovereign remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, palpitation of the Heart, loss of appriite, heartburn and healaches, reallessness, ill tempore, arrively. apprint, hearthurn and heathches, restleasness, if temper, anxiety, languor and melancholy, costwoness, disrehers, chaleta, fevers of all kinds, gravel, worms, asthma and consumption, scurvey, ulcors, inveterate acres, scorbotic cruption, and bad complexions, salt rheum, crysipclas, common colds, and influence, and various other complaints which afflict the human frame. In Fever & Ague, particularly, the Life Medicines have been most emirantly successful; so much so, that in the fever and ague districts, physicians almost universalty been most eminerally successful; so much so, that in the fever and ague districts, physicians almost universally prescribe them. Moffat's Medical Manual, designed as a domestic guide of health. This little pampblet, edited by W. B. TERS.—The perfectly safe, unerring, and successful treatment of almost every species of disease by the use of MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINES, in no longer a matter of doubt, as a suference to the experience of many thousand patients will satisfactorily prove. During the present month alms, searly one hundred cases have come to the knowledge of Mr. Moffat, where the patient has, to all appearance, effected a permanent cure by the exclusive and judicious use of the Life Medicines—some eight or ten of these had been considered beyond all hope new confidence to recommend the use of his medicines to his fellow-chizens.

The LIFE MEDICINES are a purely VEGETABLE preparation. They are mild and pleasant in the'r operation, and at the same time thorough—acting rapidly upon the secretions of the system—carrying off all acrimonious humors, and assimilating with and purifying the blood. For this regam, in aggrayated cases of by special sin, the Life Medicina will give relief in a shorter space of time than an other prescription. In Feverand-Ague, Inflammanty Rheumatism, Fevers of every description, Sick Hesiache, Heart-burn, Buziness in the band, Pains in the Chest, Flatulency, impanied appetite, and in every decase arising from an impunity of the blood, a disordered state of the stomach, the use of these Medicines has always proved to be beyond doubt, greatly superior to are other mode of treatment.

All Mr. Moffet asked his patients is to be particular in taking them strictly according to the directions. It is not by a newspaper notice, or by anything that he himself may any in that favor, that he hopes to gain credit. It is alone by increasits of a fair trial. In the render an invalid, and loss he wish to know whether the Life Medicines will sate his own case? If so, let him call or send to Mr. Medical Manual, designed as a Donestic Guide to Heath, published gratuatously.—He will there find countained very many carenocdinary cases for cure, and periaps some exactly similar to his own. MISCELLANEOUS

A Tare to Eurose.-We yesterday bad a visit from an old and esteemed friend, who had just returned from a visit to Europe. He was absent, accompanied by his son about four: months and a half. They went out and returned in the Great Western, and were on the ocean nearly twenty-nine days in all. They travelled about ten thousand miles, visited all England. saw the principle curiosities, passed through Scotland and tarried for a short time at the principal towns in France, made the trip through Switzerland and down the Rhine, stopped at a number of the principal towns in Germany, hurried through Holland, and rambled over Ireland. They were six weeks in London and three. weeks in Paris - put up at the hest hotels, and travelled in the best conveyance and expended about $1000 each, including nearly $800, their passage money in the steamers .- So much fortravelling in these modern days. They saw all the lions of the Great Metropolis-from the hottom of the Thames to the hall of St. Paul's, and from Brentford to Mile End. Indeed, be informs us that one may travel ten miles through the streets of London and suburbs in an ompibus for sixpence, and during the route at one point gaze with astonishment and admiration at all the magnificence of nobility and wealth decked out in the richest trappings—such as splended. equipages, outridese, &c., and at another look condition .- [Philad. Inq. Scientific Assembly at Florence. - A letter from -Florence of the 22nd ult. says :-- " Preparations, are making here for the third meeting of Italian. savans. This scientific congress is likely to be still more numerous and brilliant than those of Pisa and Turin, the Governments of Rome and Naples having removed the prohibition to the visit of the professors of those states. Severallearned foreigners are expected, and we also hope to see those distinguished men Orioli and Litting one of whom is in Greece, and the other in Paris. The congress will open on the 15th, of September, with a grand mass, at the church of Santa Croce, after which the members of the congress will meet in the great hall of the Palazzo Vecchio. The opening speech will be made by the Marquis de Ribolfi, the president, and immediately afterwards the presidents and verything in its power to promote the object of he congress. The library, museum, &c., of the Ricardi Palace (formerly the Medicis,) and all the public estimations, will be opened to the members. Several fetes will be given during with feelings of pity and commiseration at human nature in is most wretched and deplorable the congress."

TEMPERANCE. Shingling A House .- The new " reformed farmer" had fallen almost asleep, it being nearly midnight, when he heard the landlodr's

" I wish that man would go home, if be's got one to go to." " Hush, hush !" says the landlord, " he'll call for something else directly."? "I wish he would make haste about it then," for it's time every honest person was in bed," said the wife." " He's taking the shingles off his house, and patting them on our's," said the landlord. At this James began to come to his right sens, and commenced rubbing his. eyes and stretching himself as if just awoke, saying, " I believe l'Il go."

" Don't be in a hurry, James," said the landnight," and off he started. After an absence of some time the landlord met and accested him-" Hallo, Jim, why aint you been down to see

"Why," says James, "I had been taking shingles off my house, and it began to leak! so I thought it was time to stop the leak, and I have

The tavern keeper was astonished, went home to tell his wife all about it and James ever since has left rum alone, and attended to his own business. He is now a happy man, and his wife Royal Marriage .- A letter from Amsterdam, in the Dusseldorff Gazette, states that preparations are already in progress for the intended martiage of the Princess Maria Sophia with Prince de Joinville. A number of articles, which are to form part of the wedding trousseau, have been ordered. The merchants of Amsterdam are said to view this alliance favorably, as they hope it may operate favourably on the future commercial relations between Holland and France.

A Thought .- If Memory, instead of softening all the traces, gave us back the original lines of life in their native harshness, who could live on to old age t —for the catalogue of broken hopes, and disappointed wisher, and pleasures snatched from us never to return, would be more than human mind could bear. It would harden the heart to marble, or break it in its youther It is hoppy, too that in early years our mind has greater power of resistance, for the novel-ty of sorrow gives it double lasting.

No Learning without Preparation .- No man can learn what he has not preparation for learning, however near to his eyes is the object. A chemist, may tell his most precious secrets to a carpenter and he shall be never the wiser; the secrets he would not utter to a chemist for an estate. God screnes us evermore from premature ideas. Our eyes are holden that we cannot see things that stare . us in the face, until the hour arrives when the mind is ripened; then we would behold them, and the ime when we saw them not is like a dream

A Russian's Estimate of Authorship,-A popuar Russian fable (by Kruiloff) represents an author and a thief in hell. They are in two separate ketby the Trustees -- and £25 Cy. for the next ties, and the devil has lighted a hoge fire noder that belonging to the man of letters, while the light fingered hero is only enjoying a gentle degree of warmth. The author reproaches Satan with his impartiality, but the latter justifies himself thus :- You are a much greater sinner than the thief; his ains have died with him, but yours will survive for centuries

> The Louisville Star tells the following story which made us laugh in spite of our teeth: "My dinner don't agree with me," said a man to his wife, after an extraordinary hearty meal .- " I don't blame it, my dear; I expected as much when I saw you juwing it so bard."
